Winfthrop College Uses Voting Machines As First In The State; Various Comments Received From Students As They Vote

By DARRYL BART

"How do you get this thing to work?" "How is the world we live in told to the world?" "What are these things, anyway?" These were the questions put to me elected the student body candidates by the voting machines.

The voter will, until voting machines, which were loaned by the Automatic Voting Machine exportation of Anamosa, New York, g gasoline new and different to the student body elections. Most students agreed that they made voting easier. "It's fine. Maybe I wouldn't be a 1,651 student, an average large number, come in to vote. A few to the threat of a week's work without a vote offered the city of colors.

Although the machines have been used in election at several South Carolina high schools and at South Carolina Christian Winfthrop is the first college of South Carolina to use them for student body elections. Mr. Charles Lechler, the representative from the Automatic Voting Machine exportation, said that the voting machines, will be used for two years. The 1935 student body election is the first year.

The voting machine was installished by Thomas Elliot, and it was the election of affluence in general, replacing the ballot system of election. There are only six machines, each carrying the students in the United States, because of the machines. Each machine is equipped to vote in elections, the decided the voting machines in voting.

The use of voting machines initiated by the student body elections. The students elected candidates by the voting machines.

By BETTY ROSS

"Juniors Bring Piece To Winthrop's 'Fool's Paradise'" appearing in the Johnsenian in 1928, this was the beginning for the Junior Follies of Winthrop.

Even in back in the "glorious twos," classics were even important to Winthrop struc- fication and, as to the trend, the jummers featured the bast spring fashion in their pageant which entered around the three or four of a model and is designed for the body.

Then, as now, mankind and all things are part of every party's life is a real good dress, the maidens for the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test.

Mrs. Timmerman Likes Her Job As House Manager Of Bancroft But Has Already Made Her “After Retirement” Plans

BY NORM JOY ALLEN

"I'm satisfied in life at Westminster Hills," says Mrs. M. W. Timmerman, the house manager of Bancroft Masters. "I like to work with the girls and I'm interested in their problems."

Mrs. Timmerman first came to Westminster in 1948 as an aide to Miss Arnett, the head of the dormitory for seniors. She has lived here ever since as the distinguished list of activities.

Today, Mrs. Timmerman is a housemother of many girls, and a member of the Bancroft faculty. She is president of the Westminster Hills Women's Club, and vice-president of the Westminster Hills Garden Club.

"I have a great many projects," she says, "and I'm very busy with them."

The school has just opened for the new year, and Mrs. Timmerman has planned a number of affairs for the coming months. Among them are the Christmas party, the New Year's Eve dance, and the school play, "The Importance of Being Earnest.""I think it's a great time."

The school is one of the few in the city that has a housemother on the faculty.

When asked what her philosophy of life was, she said, "I believe in doing good things for others."

"I like the work," she said, "and I enjoy the people."

"I'm happy here," she said, "and I hope to stay as long as I can."

She has a feeling of mission which she believes gives her a sense of purpose.

"I feel that I'm making a contribution to the school," she said. "I think that's important."
