FRIDAY, MAY 5, 1898.

Mr. W. R. Bryan of Nebraska, is going to go into the ranks as a private. He is an exception.

It may be proper to remind our readers that congress is in session. They may be interested to hear that there are some restorations in military circles.

Congressman Brown informs the Lancaster Ledger that he voted against the Cuban resolutions because they are "inconsistent with the highest interest of the United States." He was in favor of both Wirt's and Sanders's amendments to the Hull bill. He has been sent to the president asking him to give a chance.

The Press and Banner reports that the last day of the session was attended by a great many employees, and that not a word to it was given to any further advance but buy at least one year's supply of coffee before war.

We have seen on coffee since the war and laid in a big stock. Now there is a run among buyers that carry small stocks. We also took advantage of the lowest prices which makes it very convenient for us and our customers to buy coffee, but one does not always get the coffee before war.

From the Camp.

COLUMBUS, S. C., May 1, 1898.

The Left Light Infantry arrived here this morning at 6 o'clock, and were paraded down Main Street to the Depot. We were put in line and marched on the street, and then were turned over to their field officers, and the color guard left the house and moved to Haywood's Park, the terminus of the street car line in this town, and there they are waiting for the men to arrive from the state house. They have been with us for nearly all of us is their first experience in camp life, but the war service is going very well and is almost hearing, "I bet I'm sorriest kin folks going away from the following from the Abbeville Gazette.

Treating the Gout.

On Tuesday evening, April 19th, the following named gentlemen gave the county chain gang a fine supper: H. H. Godwin, J. U. Godwin, H. C. Godwin, Henry Lynch, S. T. Gaskins, E. F. Prosser, J. H. Blackwell and J. L. Stuckey. Chickens, turkeys, guineas, rice, biscuits, jelly-cake, pound-cake and other good things were furnished in abundance. Some of the convicts did not eat any dinner, drinking sweetened water, waiting for supper time. Several good citizens came down and took supper with us besides those named above.
