CLASSROOM TEACHER LEADER VISITS WINTHROP- Miss Ethel Turbeville, president of the South Carolina teacher group and third grade instructor in the Sumter city schools, commended the training for teaching given by her Alma Mater, Winthrop, on a recent visit there. Seated before the desk used there by the late D.B. Johnson, founder of the South Carolina college for women, she is talking with Miss Ruth Williams, alumnae secretary at the Rock Hill college and a former president of the South Carolina Education association.
