Seniors And Juniors Tie In Annual Hockey Tournament

Juniors And Seniors Tie In Annual Hockey Tournament

The annual fall hockey tournament came to a close Friday afternoon with the Juniors tying the Seniors 3-3 in the final game of the tournament. The game saw the usual high level of play that characterized the tournament, but neither team was able to take the lead in regulation time. The game went to overtime, and the Juniors were able to tie the score with a goal from Chris Johnson. The tie result means that the Juniors and Seniors will have to play another game to determine the tournament champion. The game is scheduled for next Tuesday, and both teams will be looking to prove that they are the best team in the tournament.

Sophomores First in Big Pep Meet

Sophomores First in Big Pep Meet

Sophomores took first place in the Big Pep Meet, defeating Juniors and Seniors in a close match. The Sophomores, led by captain Alex Smith, put on a strong performance, with Smith scoring two goals and assisting on a third. The Juniors and Seniors, led by captain John Johnson, put up a good fight, but were unable to overcome the power of the Sophomores. The Sophomores will now advance to the final round of the Big Pep Meet, where they will face the Senior challenge.

The Messiah To Be Presented Dec. 9th

The Messiah To Be Presented Dec. 9th

The Messiah, a Baroque oratorio composed by George Frideric Handel, will be presented by the Boston Baroque in Boston’s Symphony Hall on December 9th. The Messiah is a fusion of sacred and secular elements, and is considered one of Handel’s greatest works. The performance will feature a world-class orchestra and choir, with Grammy-winning conductor Peter Dijkstra leading the way. The Messiah has been a staple of Christmas programming for over 200 years, and is expected to draw a sold-out crowd. Ticket information can be found on the Boston Baroque’s website.

Juniors Troupe Pleases Audience

Juniors Troupe Pleases Audience

The Junior Troupe put on a delightful performance for the crowd, with skits and songs that had the audience in fits of laughter. The troupe, led by senior Captain Alex Smith, put on a well-rehearsed show that captured the essence of Christmas. The performance featured a variety of acts, including a song about Santa Claus and a skit about the Three Wise Men. The audience was treated to a special performance by the school’s choir, which sang a medley of Christmas carols. The Junior Troupe’s performance is a tradition at the school, and is always a highlight of the winter holiday season.

"Arm and the Man" Show Plays in Success - Played Last Week

"Arm and the Man" Show Plays in Success - Played Last Week

"Arm and the Man" is a play about the life of a man who is terminally ill. The play was performed last week and received enthusiastic reviews from both faculty and students. The play, produced by the School’s Drama Club, was directed by Ms. Smith and starred Mr. Johnson in the title role. The play’s theme of love and loss resonated deeply with the audience, and the performances of the cast members were praised for their raw emotion and authenticity. The play was performed to a packed house, and the school is planning to produce another play in the spring.

Winthrop Courses Are Given Approval

Winthrop Courses Are Given Approval

Winthrop University has approved a new course in the field of Business Administration. The course, titled "Organizational Behavior," will be taught by Dr. James Johnson, and will cover topics such as communication, leadership, and decision-making. The course will be offered in the fall semester, and is expected to attract a large number of students. The approval of the course is a testament to Winthrop University’s commitment to providing high-quality education to its students.

GOLDEN RULE PLAY FOR SHARING

With the effects of unemployment and world-wide depression becoming the order of the day, and with the public's interest so high on every hand, we read with interest of a plan for "plain" saving" that is sponsored by The Golden Rule Play, 60 East 34th Street, New York, which sponsors Golden Rule plays in the towns of this country.

The plan is simple: a group of three young people for the week and the giving--plus as much more as one's generosity would allow. A week's schedule of scientifically prepared menus have been worked out by eighteen nationally known food experts and house-to-plant supplementaries. Original research data, are in learned in a sixty-page illustrated booklet which is issued by the Foundation. By following the plan suggested a family--or a group of five will be fed on a total of 60c per week.

In past years many schools and colleges have observed Golden Rule Sunday by voluntarily using without the customary "tipping" or "hiring" the services of a chef. In this way, the students of Middlesex College volunteered to cook a Golden Rule meal. They have found that by doing this, they can dine within the cost of 32c and 37c. The difference, however, is very small and the cost reduced from $20.00 to $17.00. Each of the participating students was given a certificate of appreciation and a copy of the menu. The certificate was received with much enthusiasm. The students were very happy and the cost of this meal is not prohibitive.

The members of Alpha Delta Phi at Princeton University are using the plan as a way of saving money and at the same time giving something back to their communities. They have started a "dinner club" for the purpose of raising money for charity. So far, the club has been very successful and they have raised over $100.00.

Fourth of Population

Are In School

Actually one-fourth of the people in the United States are now in school. According to statistics from the United States Bureau of Education, 512,994,822 people are in schools of various kinds. In the United States, there are more people in school than in any other country in the world. This is a great achievement and it shows that the United States is a great country.

First 1932 Journal

Marks Appearance

The first issue of the Journal of the American Medical Association appeared in 1859. It was an eight-page, double-columned publication that contained articles on the latest medical research and developments. The journal has since grown to become one of the most respected and influential medical journals in the world. Today, it is published weekly and contains over 1,000 pages of medical content each issue.
