Don't Stub Your Toe!

One dark night—a story goes—a certain monarch placed a large boulder in the middle of the road. Thousands of his people, thereafter, severely stubbed their toes or troubled to walk around. At length, one dusty youth—wiser than the rest—seized the stone and heaved it from his path. And where it had rested, he found a bag of gold.

Aren't you stubbing your toe? Are you overlooking any bag of gold? How about the advertising in this paper? Do you read it—consistently? It is a bag of gold to many of our readers.

Concerning the plans for reduction of cotton acreage, the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta describes the extent of curtailment from last year's planting as "still a subject upon which speculative estimates are daily being made. Conservative estimates place the reduction in acreage compared with last year to be from 10-20 per cent. Certainly the figures are in the range of a reduction of 10-20 per cent. Actual experience and the condition of the crop will be an important factor in determining the extent of the reduction."

The management of The News has been asked a number of times in recent years why it is that we do not start a daily newspaper in Chester. We have always answered by stating that Chester is not yet in a position to afford a daily newspaper. It does not take a great amount of money to operate a daily newspaper, especially one in the smaller cities. However, this ignorance on the part of the public is due to the fact that they have no acquaintance with the expenses incident to the operation of a newspaper.

In September 1919 the Orangeburg Times and Democrat, which was issued tri-weekly, launched into the daily field and on last Sunday it made the editorial announcement that the daily would be suspended and they would go back to the tri-weekly stage. The management of the Times and Democrat stated that they believed that Chester could not be

TO THE PUBLIC:
I have already notified you beginning on the morning of the 15th of May, that the Automobile Law will be enforced, as to speeding, cut outs, and stops at crossings. This is not for the purpose of interfering with your liberties, but is intended only, for the protection of the public at large. When you go through the City, with your window open you infringe with every line of business which you pass.

The Sweet Young THING had been unable to buy the article she wanted, but in each case the clerk had assured her that "next time" it would certainly be in stock. One day she asked At the store to find a new clerk on the job. "Do you have spats yet?" she inquired.

The clerk blushed. "No, ma'am," he stammered. "I'm not living with my wife now."
