

5-18-1909

The Lantern, Chester S.C.- May 18, 1909

W F. Caldwell

J Frank Latimer

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.winthrop.edu/chesterlantern1909>

Part of the Journalism Studies Commons, and the Social History Commons

Recommended Citation

Caldwell, W F. and Latimer, J Frank, "The Lantern, Chester S.C.- May 18, 1909" (1909). The Chester Lantern 1909. 40.

<https://digitalcommons.winthrop.edu/chesterlantern1909/40>

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the The Chester Lantern at Digital Commons @ Winthrop University. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Chester Lantern 1909 by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Winthrop University. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@mailbox.winthrop.edu.

Specials this Week

We are showing a beautiful line of Wash Suits, Jumper Suits, and Lingerie Dresses all specially priced this week.

$5.00 Wash Suits special price	$3.48
3.00 " " " "	2.48
5.00 Jumper Suits special price	3.48
3.50 " " " "	2.48
1.50 " " " "	1.19
7.50 Lingerie Dresses special price	5.89
5.00 " " " "	3.48
3.50 " " " "	2.48

We are showing some very pretty Silk and Net Waists special $2.50.

At The Big Store S. M. JONES & CO.

FREE

During the month we are giving one year's subscription to McCall's Magazine and one pattern FREE with every cash purchase of $5.00 and over. No family should be without this magazine. Take advantage of our special offerings this week.

THE LANTERN

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.
$1.00 per year, cash.

LOCAL NEWS

Cotton today 10-9

Mr. J. B. Westbrock was in Columbia yesterday on business.

Mr. A. N. Sample has returned from a visit of several weeks in Florida.

Miss Jessie Gross, of Rieburg, was among the visitors in the city last week.

Mrs. W. Holmes Harlin has returned from a visit to kinpeople in Macdon county.

Miss Bertha Stahn has returned from a pleasant visit to friends in Columbia, Newberry and Doe West.

Mr. K. H. Patrick, of White Oak, spent from Saturday until yesterday with his cousin, Mr. M. H. White.

Miss Amelia Ratterer, of Columbia, spent Sunday here with the family of her uncle, Mr. B. D. Refo.

Mr. Wm. King, of this city, will attend the cotton seed cruizers convention in Memphis this week.

Mr. W. S. Hall, of Haffroy, was in the city yesterday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hall, Sr., and left last night for Columbia.

Mr. W. J. Rodder, of Rock Hill, passed through the city yesterday enroute to go to Clinton to attend the laymen's convention.

Miss Jennie Oates and Ora Williams, of Charlotte, spent Saturday night at the Madison Hotel with the former's mother, Mrs. Jessie Oates.

Miss Bessie Brown, who was operated on for appendicitis some time ago, is almost well again and has gone home.

Master D. E. Colvin, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Colvin, who was operated on for appendicitis some time ago, is almost well again and has gone home.

Editors are being made to secure the First Artillery Band from Sullivan's Island here for the reunion, Senator E. D. Smith, Senator Tillman, Congressman Aiken, Finley and others have been asked to use their influence towards securing it.

Mrs. Paul McCorkle, who has been in hospital in Charlotte for several months, came down Saturday for the visit. Her many friends here are glad to see her out again.

Mr. W. G. Parker, one of the inmates of the Confederate Home in this country, went to Columbia this morning to enter the Home. There is another one still to be selected from this country.

Mr. T. L. Eberhardt has bought the old Miller home on Calhoun street, from Mr. S. D. Cross and will use it for his residence. He will have it overhauled and a force of hands under the direction of Mr. J. M. Gibson, who has the contract for overhauling the house, have already commenced work.

Another change of interest is the purchase by Mr. W. B. White of the Madison Hotel on West End. It is recalled that the house was recently damaged by fire. Mr. W. A. Lattimer, Sr., has the contract for rebuilding the house which will be completed by Mr. White.

Col. J. W. Reed received a letter this morning from Gov. Kitchener, of North Carolina, in which the governor said he could not pay well whether he was able to attend the Confederate reunion here in June but that he would come if he could possibly do so.

Col. Reed also told him that the laymen's committee would send him a formal invitation for the occasion. It is believed that the governor of the "Old North State" will be here for that occasion and it is certainly hoped that he will come.

Mr. W. A. Hood and little daughter of Wagoner, visited the family of Mr. W. A. Lattimer yesterday.

Miss Sadie McKee is spending the week in Charlotte.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lowrance and Miss May Carpenter have gone to Charlotte on a visit.

Miss Sadie Murr left this morning for Charlotte to attend the 30th of May celebration.

Mrs. C. F. Harry and little daughter SaNelle, of Grover, N. C., who have been visiting the former's sister Mrs. W. H. Lowrance have gone to Yorkville on visit to relatives.

Miss Lou Query, of Newell, N. C., spent last night in the city with her friend, Miss Wylene Wylie, on her way home from visiting friends in Columbia.

Mrs. W. H. Lowrance has returned from a visit to kinpeople in Macdon county.

Miss Lillian and Mary Mann, of Camden, are visiting Miss Oocy Collins at Saluda station.

Messrs. J. T. Collins and J. E. Hamilton expect to go to Columbia on Thursday to attend the 30th of May celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Pace spent from Saturday until yesterday with relatives at Santee.

Mr. J. R. Williams, of Rock Hill, was in the city yesterday morning on his way home from Abbeville, where he spent Sunday with friends.

Miss Hattie Brakefield, of Lowryville, accompanied by her friend, Miss Pearl, returned to Spartanburg yesterday afternoon for a visit to friends at Rock Hill. From there they will go to Charlotte and take in the 30th of May celebration.

A white woman by the name of Leila Eberhardt, was arrested here Saturday by the police on information from Hall County, Ga., charging her with being a fugitive from justice.

She was accused of jumping a bond of $500, and it is said that she was attempting to get away from reach of the officers when arrested. She was taken back to Georgia on Sunday and will have to stand trial over there.

Mr. R. L. Wylie, of Clover, was in the city for a few hours on Saturday morning.

For Violation of the "Tick" Regulations.

Will Jackson, colored, was yesterday sentenced to serve thirty days on the chain gang by Magistrate Reed of Rieburg, for violation of the tick regulation. He was charged with moving a cow from quarantined premises without permit of an inspector.

The warrant was sworn out by State Veterinarian Powers and the accused convicted. He was brought to the city last night by Constable Ward and taken to the gaug to begin sentence. It would be well for all to observe the regulations in such cases for violation will be met with punishment.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

The entertainment committee will meet at the 8th of May on next Monday, the 30th of May, to make arrangements for the entertainment of the Confederate soldier at the state reunion here June 23-24th. The township committee is as follows:

Chairman—W. L. Abernathy, R. H. Ferguson.

Lewisville—W. C. Blockin, I. N. W. White.

Lowryville—W. B. Ferguson, S. B. Crawford.

Hazelwood—W. A. Gladden, J. C. Lattimer.

Blacklock—J. S. McKown, W. S. Darmon.

Halesville—S. M. McLean, N. H. Stone.

Clinton Rogers—John Wesley Wilks, Nelly Grant, G. W. Byers.

Lowryville—O. G. Guy, R. T. Searl, J. H. H. H.

Chairman—C. H. Col. J. W. Reid; R. M. Strange, J. G. L. White, Z. V. Davidson, W. W. Brice.

Please don't fail to meet on the day above named.

I. M. D. Hood, Chair. of Committee.

The hours we pass with happy prospects are more precious than those crowned with tribulation—Glad Smith.

Get Ball for Chief.

Mr. Dawson Potts, of Fort Mill, accompanied by his attorney, Mr. John B. Hart, of Yorkville, was before Judge Gage yesterday to get bond for the release of the latter.

Mr. Potts, who is chief of police of Fort Mill, killed a negro on Saturday night while the latter was resisting arrest and showing the officer his duty and the trial will result in the complete exoneration of the officer.

A Visitor from Charleston.

Senator Huger Slinker, of Charleston, arrived in the city last night and in the guest of Mr. A. G. Landon. Senator Slinker is a member of a large Charleston family and for a number of years has served his county in the state senate where he took a high stand.

Commercial Club will Meet Tonight.

The Commercial club will meet this evening at 8:30 o'clock in the club rooms to hear reports of certain committees and to transact whatever other business may come before the meeting.

All the members are urged to be on hand at the appointed time in the club room. The board of directors of the club will meet either this afternoon at 6 o'clock or tonight after the meeting of the club.

Mr. C. J. Bryck Dead.

Mr. Clarence J. Bryck, of Anderson, who was killed by Annie Harlin of this city, died yesterday in Anderson. He is survived by his wife and one child.

Mr. W. Holmes Harlin was at the home of Mrs. A. G. Landon, at 8:30 p. m. yesterday afternoon. The following account of his death is taken from this morning's Charlotte Observer:

Anderson, May 17.—Mr. C. J. Bryck died at his home here this afternoon at the age of 34 years. He was the eldest child of Mr. J. A. Brock, of the Bates of Anderson, and one of the city's leading young business men.

For several years he was secretary of the Anderson and Brogan Mills, but gave up the position on account of ill health. He then became connected with the Citizens' Insurance Agency, but his health became so bad several months ago that he was forced to give up business altogether. He was a modest, retiring young man and was held in the very highest esteem by all who knew him.

He married his wife, a little girl of two months, and a half sister, Miss Alberta Brock, of Converse College. The funeral will be held from the home tomorrow afternoon.

The Program Announced.

The program of the Quarter Centennial exercises of the Ladies Missionary Society of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church, May 25, at 8:15 p. m. is as follows:

Invocation—Rev. A. S. Rogers.

The Lord Belqueth—Anthem—Choir.

Prayer Reading.

Message of Welcome—Mrs. A. G. Brice.

Response—Mrs. R. L. Robinson.

Psalm 24-11.

Message from the Societies of the Local Churches.

Not Unto Us—Anthem—Choir.

History of the Society and God's Blessing—Mrs. M. H. Gato.

Work, Influence and Benefits of a Society—Mrs. G. B. White.

The Silver is Gracious—Anthem—Choir.

Prayer Offering for the Society.

Address—Rev. A. S. Rogers.

Psalm 100—L. M. Benediction.

Wednesday Morning 10:30—Delegates and visitors meet at the church for a social half hour.

11:00—Organization of a Missionary Union of the First Presbyterian.

The police of Paris recently found a ragged, starving Italian boy on a bench in the Boulevard. Through an interpreter he said that all his friends had perished in the earthquake at Messina, and that he had made his way about to Paris in the hope of earning his living. The police are looking for the lad.

Annual Meeting of Bible Society.

The annual meeting of the Chester Bible Society took place at the Methodist church on Sunday night. The oldest church on Sunday night. The sermon was preached by the Rev. S. J. Carriage, pastor of the Presbyterian Church and President of the society. Collections for the society were taken up Sabbath morning in the Presbyterian church, and A. R. P. churches the members of the society. The officers were named as follows: President, Rev. S. J. Carriage, and the ministers of the other churches are ex officio Vice Presidents. Mr. A. B. Brice was elected secretary and Mr. G. D. Heath, the treasurer. The following are the committees: From the A. R. P. Church, Mr. S. B. Lathan; from the Presbyterian church, Mr. E. A. Crawford; from the Methodist church, Mr. J. L. Glenn; and from the Baptist church, Col. E. T. Atkinson. Jas. Hamilton and Sons were chosen as the depository.

Picnic At Murray Spring.

Miss Marie Dominick and Mrs. A. G. Brice gave their usual picnic Saturday at Murray spring and it was a very delightful affair. Mesdames B. Bigham, W. A. Colin, J. W. Wilkes, and Messrs. Linder, attended. There was quite a party of young ladies and children and they each enjoyed every moment. In the forenoon the party amused themselves with songs and music and in rambling about the woods. At 6 o'clock dinner was served and this dinner was in itself the feature of the day. Not to mention numerous delicacies, fried chicken and cake were in abundance as well as many other things which made the time of the picnic the day and as one expressed it, "Mrs. Brice and Miss Dominick kept their picnic as they do everything else, pleasant and enjoyable to everyone."

Mrs. Henrietta Hood Dead.

Mrs. Henrietta Hood died at the home of her nephew, Mr. Joe W. Hood last yesterday afternoon in the 81st year of her age. The funeral services will take place at Pleasant Grove Presbyterian church this evening at 8:30 o'clock, leaving the house at 8:15 o'clock. The remains will be buried in the cemetery at Pleasant Grove. Mrs. Hood was the widow of the late I. M. D. Hood, who died about ten years ago. She was a veteran of the Mexican war. Mrs. Hood's maiden name was Summerville, from Kershaw. The deceased was a constant member of Pleasant Grove and was a consecrated Christian. She leaves no children.

Mr. I. M. D. Hood was in Clinton.

Mr. I. M. D. Hood was in Clinton last night on his way to the reunion and was telegraphed for last night. He came in on 34 over the S. A. L. reaching here about daylight.

Here Comes the June Bride

At a meeting of the congregation of the A. R. P. Church on Sabbath the members of the church voted to extend a call to the Rev. D. G. Phillips, of Newberry, to become pastor of the church. The formal call will be made Saturday of this week and the Rev. J. A. White, of Blackstock, will moderate the call. Mr. Phillips is one of our foremost ministers of the church and it is hoped that he will accept the call.

Great men are they who see that spiritual is stronger than any material force.

Emerson.

J. T. BIGHAM

Advertisement under this head twenty words or less, 20 cents more than regular rates.

FOR SALE—Cabbage and tomato plants. W. B. Brown, 104 Hinton street.

THE CHESTER Plumbing and Heating Co. and the City Electric Co. having organized, we are now in position to quote you the lowest prices on our respective lines. We give our personal solicitation to all work and we kindly solicit your patronage. J. T. Bigham.

Communion Services at A. R. P. Church.

Services preparatory to communion will commence at the A. R. P. church on Saturday. There will be preaching Saturday morning at 10 o'clock and again on Sabbath morning at 11 o'clock by the Rev. J. A. White, of Blackstock. The service on Sabbath will be followed by communion. In his remarks the pastor will urge each to receive such as may wish to connect with the church and to transact whatever other business that may come before it.

Mrs. Bigham is survived by two sons, Dr. E. B. Bigham and Dr. Harvey Bigham, of Charlotte, N. C., and one brother, Mr. J. W. Bigham, of the Wellridge neighborhood, two sisters, Miss Minerva Bigham, of Wellridge, and Miss Margaret Simpson, of Edgemoor.

Mrs. Bigham's husband died in Maryland during the closing period of the war, about 1865. He was attached to the engineering corps and on an expedition perished. For some time after the war it was not known exactly what had become of him but a soldier who had been serving with him told his death.

Mrs. Bigham was born and reared in the Wellridge neighborhood and has made that her home all her long life. She early connected with Howell A. R. P. church and was a consecrated and devoted Christian. Since the war she made her home with her son, Mr. R. Brice Bigham. During the last few years of her life she was helpless and confined to her home. She was a good friend to her neighbors and at Howell on Sabbath the whole country around turned out to pay the last respects to the departed. In his remarks during the funeral services Rev. J. A. White paid beautiful tributes to the dead and told of her long Christian life as an example for others.

Invitations reading as follows have been received here.

Miss Hattie visited at the home of her cousin, Mrs. C. B. Betts, last summer and made many friends while here.

Mr. and Mrs. John Chesnut Halle invite you to be present at the marriage of their daughter Fannie Mallon to Mr. Walter Saenger Blum, on Wednesday evening, June the ninth One thousand nine hundred and nine at seven o'clock Domestic Three hundred and one East Thirty first street Savannah, Georgia.

Sewing Machines

Now is the time for your Spring Sewing. Why pay a fortune for a Sewing Machine because the agent brings it to your house. You pay for his time and his team. We have good machines from $15 up, warranted five years. The light running New Home $35, the Silent Domestic $35—none better.

Best quality of needles at 25c a dozen.

Sperm Oil that will not gum, 10c a bottle.

E. C. Stahn

At a meeting of the congregation of the A. R. P. Church on Sabbath the members of the church voted to extend a call to the Rev. D. G. Phillips, of Newberry, to become pastor of the church. The formal call will be made Saturday of this week and the Rev. J. A. White, of Blackstock, will moderate the call. Mr. Phillips is one of our foremost ministers of the church and it is hoped that he will accept the call.

Great men are they who see that spiritual is stronger than any material force.

Emerson.

J. T. BIGHAM

Advertisement under this head twenty words or less, 20 cents more than regular rates.

FOR SALE—Cabbage and tomato plants. W. B. Brown, 104 Hinton street.

THE CHESTER Plumbing and Heating Co. and the City Electric Co. having organized, we are now in position to quote you the lowest prices on our respective lines. We give our personal solicitation to all work and we kindly solicit your patronage. J. T. Bigham.

Communion Services at A. R. P. Church.

Want Column

Advertisements under this head twenty words or less, 20 cents more than regular rates.

FOR SALE—Cabbage and tomato plants. W. B. Brown, 104 Hinton street.

THE CHESTER Plumbing and Heating Co. and the City Electric Co. having organized, we are now in position to quote you the lowest prices on our respective lines. We give our personal solicitation to all work and we kindly solicit your patronage. J. T. Bigham.

Cut Glass, Silver, Hand Painted China for Wedding Presents

Jewelry

Fine line of jewelry in Gold and Silver.

Remember if it is anything in the jewelry line we sell the best goods at the right prices.

Stricker's Jewelry Store

Reliable Jeweler

J. B. Westbrock Attorney at Law

First Floor, Argus Building

Hail Insurance

The Mutual Hail Insurance Association of Chester County begs to announce that it is now ready for business. Insures Cotton, Corn and Oats against hail.

Your Patronage Solicited.

J. S. McKEOWN, Pres. C. S. FORD, Sec.

J. L. GLENN, Pres. S. M. JONES, V. Pres. M. S. LEWIS, Cashier

The National Exchange Bank

Capital $100,000.00
Surplus 100,000.00

United States Government Supervision.

Total Assets More Than Half Million Dollars.

Accounts, large and small, solicited.

Interest Allowed on Savings.

MILLINERY

Spring Millinery, 1909, now ready at F. M. Nail's Cheap for Cash Millinery Department.

Miss Bessie Latimer, who is an experienced designer and trimmer is in charge of my millinery department, assisted by Miss Mamie Stone, where they will be glad to meet their friends and customers.

We guarantee up-to-date styles and workmanship.

F. M. Nail, In the Valley

Excursion Rates

To Asheville, N. C., and Return Account Twentieth Annual Meeting National Travelers Protective Association of America.

The Southern Railway announces very low round trip rates from all points to Asheville, N. C., and return for the above occasion. Tickets will be sold May 28th, 29th, and 30th and for trains arriving Asheville before 3:00 p. m. May 31st, limited good to return 30 days from date of sale.

Round trip rates from principal stations as follows:

Blacksburg	$1.10	Gaffney	$1.40
Blackville	6.70	Lancaster	5.00
Branchville	7.15	Orangeburg	6.55
Camden	6.10	Rock Hill	4.90
Charleston	8.95	Spartanburg	2.35
Chester	4.45	Winnabow	3.35
Columbia	5.05	Yorkville	4.00

Special arrangements are being made for handling T. P. A.'s their families and friends in the most comfortable and convenient way and from Asheville. Entertainment of various kinds; side-trips to Lake Toxaway, June 4th, old-fashioned Southern barbecue, turkey dinners, grand ball at Battery Park Hotel, etc. Southern Railway officials and passenger representatives will be present to assist in looking after the entertainment, providing information, etc.

For tickets, detailed information, etc. apply to Southern Railway ticket agents or address:

J. L. MEEK, Asst. General Passenger Agent, Atlanta, Ga.

J. C. LUSK, Division Passenger Agent, Charleston, S. C.

Gadsden and Wylie Sts.

in cut glass, china, everyday table ware, toilet sets, vases and hundreds of other articles. A broom would be a good, cheap present. She could use one end of it on the floor and the other where it would do the most good.

J. T. BIGHAM

