JULIAN LINDA

MAX MONITOR HERE IN IMPERSONATIONS

Anne Thompson, pianist, featured soloist at the Massasoit Concert, made her debut at the Pabst Theater on Saturday, January 30.

In a very artistic manner, showing fine command of the piano, Miss Thompson displayed a program which contained selections by Beethoven, Chopin, Mendelssohn, Liszt, and others.

She was not only a soloist but also her playing was so perfect that it was heard throughout the auditorium. Miss Thompson's performance was received with enthusiasm by the audience and she was given a standing ovation.

Dr. R. B. G. B. Cameron, director of the Massasoit Concert, expressed his satisfaction with Miss Thompson's performance and congratulated her on a successful debut.

STAGNATION WITHOUT ACTIVITY FREE.

What would be the situation of the Student Government, Alumni Association, Journal, Johnstonian and the four classes today without the $42.00 Student Activity Fund?

Without question, the answer would be gloomy. The funds presently in hand will just barely permit a very limited program. Instead of having over one hundred parties, dinners, dances, meetings, and activities, we will have a few of these affairs. The Student Government will not have the money to continue its work.

\( \text{\textbf{NEW SOCIOLOGY INSTRUCTOR HERE}} \)

Miss Virginia H. Crawford has been appointed Instructor in Sociology at the University effective February 1.

Miss Crawford was graduated from Wesleyan College in 1907. She holds the B. A. degree from Wesleyan and the M. A. degree from the University of Illinois.

Miss Crawford expressed her pleasure at being at Johnston College with the students.
