THE BREADTH OF THE APPEAL

I am appealing not only to every man, woman and child, white and colored, in the County to contribute to the Red Cross War Fund, but to every Church, every Sunday School, every Fraternal Order, every Ladies' Club, every Corporation and every individual to help secure the subscriptions of others. I request that on next Sunwal day every Minister, and every Sunday School Superintendent present this great cause to their people and otherwise aid the solicitors of their respective precincts in gotting donations. They care of our sick and wounded soldiers and the nelping of the stricken ones of our allies is everybody's business, and I want everybody in our County to do his or her bit.
