FRIDAY, JULY 6.

The dairy cow, the hog, and the hen have won for themselves a high place in the regard of Turner County, Ga. Farmers—this county grows but one cotton—until about two years ago. Finding the boll weevil and general economic conditions made this crop a continuous and heavy loss, "upstream poultry" program, substituting dairy cattle, hogs, and poultry, with pasture and feed crops for their maintenance, was adopted and approved methods of management introduced by the county agricultural agent. Within two years, a profitable and goodly crop, and meat industry has been developed.

The total amount realized by Turner County farmers in 1922, through the sale of their diversified farming products, reached $1,000,000, an average of about $600 per farm. In addition, they have enjoyed a comfortable living ground on their own farms, their soil is increasing in fertility, and their live-stock holdings are growing.

which opened in October, 1921, with 100 patrons, now has over 800. Checks for cream have more than doubled in amount in the last several months. There are now 40 pure bred bulls in the county. Cooperative shipments of hogs from the county will reach probably 15 cars this month this year. More than 45,000 purebred chicks have been hatched in the county since November, 1922.

"This striking success in a country having no market, physical or economic advantages to start with has been accomplished, according to reports to the United States Department of Agriculture, through the complete cooperation of practically every farmer and business man in the county with the county agricultural workers in carrying out the program."

CHARLES AMERICA IS GETTING TO BE TOO MIDDLEBROW

Speaks at Tammany Hall Celebrates Pays His Respects to Nation

New York, July 4.—The United States is "getting to be a middle-class nation and the intolerant habit of trying to regulate every habit is becoming a national nuisance," Representative Harry B. Haves, of St. Louis, declared today in an address at Tammany Hall's annual Fourth of July celebration.

"During the war we proclaimed the world that we would make the world safe for democracy," he said. "Since the war has been over, the democracy unsafe, even in our own country, and we are heading for a monarchy."

"Talking for his next the assaults which, he said, were being made on the fundamentals of American democracy, Mr. Haves paid his respects to the Volstead act, the Ku Klux Klan and to "small but well organized minorities," who, he declared, are assailing the "essentials of a democratic government."

"In many cases public officials are themselves guilty of what might be termed official lawlessness in trying to carry out the extreme wishes of organized minority groups," he said.

"What we shall eat, how we shall wear, what we shall read, how we shall play, and who shall be permitted to be idle are attempted to be controlled by statute rather than by personal inclination. We are now engaged in the mischievous occupation of trying to regulate the habits of the rest of the world."

Referring to the Ku Klux Klan, the speaker said that this organized minority group of intolerance "is openly violating the constitution of the United States and that of every separate state."

Mr. Haves opposed the proposal to take from the supreme court the power of judicial review, legislative enactment, declaring it would "destroy the heart of the constitution and leave 110,000,000 people subject to the interpreter, hasty arbitrary acts of the two remaining branches of the government."

Many of the new laws are being written, Mr. Haves said, by some department clerk; he urged a "legislative rest" for the country.

"Without leadership in the house," he asserted, "with varied leadership in the Senate, the nation needs a vigorous and courageous legislature who will grounded in the fundamental principles of our government will insist upon a fight for the things he believes to be right regardless of the political consequences."

HEAR REPORT ON 'BAD CHECK LAW'

South Carolina Merchants to Consider Matter at Second Session. Preliminary Reports Indicate That Few Spurious Checks Received There Formerly.

Columbia, S. C., July 5.—Reports on the operation of the so-called "bad check law" passed at the last session of the state legislature will be one feature of the annual convention of the South Carolina Merchants' association in Greenville next Wednesday and Thursday according to a statement made here today by L. Hayne Wannamaker, executive secretary of the organization. The bill which was enacted the endorsement of the merchants' organization.

The principal feature of the law is the provision that makes the giving of a worthless check prima facie evidence to default unless the merchant of the check makes it good within seven days of being notified that it has been turned down. Another provision that makes the present status of the law in former laws. Mr. Wannamaker pointed out, is "a clause that prevents a prosecutor in a bad check case from dropping the case on his own motion, after the check is made good.

The merchants' convention will discuss what attitude shall be taken by the organization to various possible legislative proposals, according to the secretary, but the main theme of the convention will be that with special reference to the operation of the so-called luxury tax features of the revenue measure enacted by the last general assembly. Some opposition has been expressed to the operations of these taxes and it is predicted that the Greenville convention will enter into the organization shall back a motion for the repeal of this law.

Greenville merchants are present at the convention, the delegates, according to reports reaching Mr. Wannamaker, but the greater part of the two-day session will be devoted mainly to business. Congressman John J. McSwain, of the fourth South Carolina district, has been announced as one of the speakers at the convention. His subject will be "The retailer and national legislation."

AUTO PASSENGERS RIDE LOCOMOTIVE THAT HITS AND DEMOLISHES CAR

Norfolk, Va., July 5.—J. Johnson, a middle-aged farmer of Crittendon, Va., and his wife, had a miraculous escape from death today when their automobile was struck by an Atlantic Coast Line passenger train that was crossing near Suffolk.

The train was speeding at 40 miles an hour when the Johnsons' automobile was struck. The engine, which was wrecked, was brought to a stop nearly 100 yards from the crossing, and the trainmen hastened back to aid the passengers of the wrecked automobile. A few minutes later, however, their whereabouts was not known.

Mr. Johnson, dazed, but otherwise little injured, was sitting on the running board of the engine, and his wife was perched on the locomotive's cowcatcher. Both were taken to a Suffolk hospital, where it was reported tonight that their injuries were not serious. The automobile consisted merely of light bruiser auto.

WHITHER BOUND?

Uncle Sam counted noses in 1920. The facts of the count are now available, and are an interesting commentary on the present-day scheme of things.

Partially owing to the effects of the war, the tendency is decidedly to concentrate in the cities. Fully one-third of the country's have lost population, and this population, for the most part, has been lost to the enormous increases in the cities. The western migration is also effectively supplanted by this and rush to industrial centers.

The overwhelming number of women engaged in industrial pursuits, as wage-earners, is a new situation in the South except in the Southern cities, the reverse is the case. Statistics indicate that the American Indian will be extinct at no far distant date except where this is averted by intermarriage, in which case Indian tribal relations and customs will disappear.

ORDINANCE

To Provide for the Public Safety on the Streets of the City of Chester by Prohibiting Regulators. For the Operation of Traffic on Public Streets.

Be it ordained by the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Chester in Council assembled:

Sec. 1. Every automobile on the streets of the City of Chester when moving shall show three lights at night, one red light to be at the rear of the machine and two white lights in front. At night shall mean the time during which the regulations of the city are or should be lighted.

Sec. 2. The use of mufflers or cut-outs, and the unnecessary use of signals are strictly forbidden.

Sec. 3. All vehicles meeting shall pass each other to the right and overtaking another vehicle shall pass to the left.

Sec. 4. No vehicle shall stop with its left side to the curb on any street in the City of Chester except in the case of an emergency.

Sec. 5. All fire apparatus shall have the right of way in a street or thoroughfare.

Sec. 6. Upon the approach of a vehicle through the driver of a vehicle shall drive to the right hand curb of the street and remain at that place until such fire apparatus shall have passed or stopped, and no vehicle shall follow any fire apparatus at a closer distance than one hundred feet.

Sec. 7. No person shall drive a vehicle upon or over any nose or other apparatus being used by the fire department.

Sec. 8. Every motor vehicle operated on the streets of the City of Chester shall be provided with at least two adequate brakes in good repair, each of which shall work independent of the other, except motorcycle which shall be provided with not less than one adequate brake.

Sec. 9. No person shall drive or cause to be driven upon, or across a paved street or thoroughfare of the City of Chester a vehicle having wheels with flanges, rips, clamps, or other device attached to or a part of the wheels which would damage the pavement surface.

Sec. 10. No automobile shall back or make a turn on any street if by doing so it interferes with other vehicles, but shall go around the block to a street sufficiently wide to turn in without backing.

Sec. 11. It shall be unlawful for any person to pull any automobile or other vehicle on the following streets of the City of Chester: On the North side of Main Street from the Post Office Building to the Post Office; On the North side of Gadsden Street from the Marion Building to the City Cafe; On the East side of Wylie Street from the A. B. P. Church to Scholberg's Building; On the East side of Hudson Street from the Pryor Filling Station to Whitehead's Cafe; On the East side of Center Street from the Pryor Building to McAlley Street; On the North side of West End Street from the Post Office to the City of Chester; On the South side of York Street, in Hospital Zone. All the boundaries in this section be as shown on the map.

Sec. 12. It shall be unlawful for any person to park any automobile or other vehicle on the following streets of the City of Chester: adjacent to said streets, viz: West side of Wylie Street, from Main Street to Marion Lane; West side of Church Street from Gadsden Street to Columbia Street; North side of York Street from the Post Office to Hospital Zone; South side of Salisbury Street from Hudson Street to Culp Street.

Sec. 13. Every automobile, motor car, motor wagon, cart, buggy, wagon, or other conveyance, in whatever or by whatever force or power the same shall be driven, ridden, or propelled, which is to be used upon the streets of the City of Chester shall constitute a vehicle and come under the terms of this Ordinance.

Sec. 14. It shall be unlawful for any person while in the state of intoxication to operate any vehicle on the public streets of the City of Chester.

Sec. 15. No vehicle shall stop except where stops are required by law or where the intersection of any street or in front of any hydrant, or within ten feet of same.

Sec. 16. No person shall operate a motor vehicle upon any public street of this city recklessly at a rate of speed greater than is reasonable and proper having regard to the safety of the public, or so as to endanger the property, or the life or limb of any person; provided that a rate of speed in excess of twenty miles per hour for the residence portion of the City and a rate of speed in excess of fifteen miles per hour in the fire limits of the City, and at a rate of speed in excess of eight miles in turning corners in the city shall be deemed a violation of this section.

Sec. 17. It shall be unlawful for any automobile to stand two or more abreast in any street or for any vehicle driven by any animal or animals to stand upon any street so as to obstruct the same.

Sec. 18. That any person who violates any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be fined not less than $5.00 nor more than $25.00 or imprisoned not exceeding thirty days.

Sec. 19. All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict with this Ordinance are hereby repealed.

Done and ratified in Council this 3rd day of July, 1923.

S. C. CARTER, Mayor.
Attest: J. H. McLEURE, City Clerk.

HARDING AND LABOR

President Harding's bid for the support of the labor leader was out in a spirited public statement giving warning that labor will call the Harding Administration to account for its alleged shortcomings with respect to the organized workers of the country, charging the present Administration with aiding in the alleged campaign against labor and declaring that "the sentiment now uttered (by the President) has not been Administration policy in the past."

"The Harding Administration itself," said Gompers, "has been charged by labor with lending aid and comfort to that campaign (against unions) and we are by no means inclined to withdraw the assertion, though we are glad to have the President's emphatic declaration that his Administration has tried to prevent the destruction of organized labor."

"At the proper time," warned Gompers, "the whole career of the Administration must pass in review. Obviously this is not the time. But this is the time to say that a declaration such as the President has just made is welcomed for itself and for what it may mean in the future, but it cannot erase a record of performance and omissions, and the sentiment now uttered has not been Administration policy in the past."

That statement is regarded as a plain notice from labor that it will soon announce to the country whether it places its stamp of approval on President Harding for the coming presidential election and reveal just what its political preferences are.

It would seem that Mr. Harding has gained little or nothing by this bid for labor's support, and certainly, in the very nature of things, he could not have hoped to gain much from the great army of organized labor's employers by his sudden address. It was apparently another instance of playing both ends against the middle without gaining much from either, a sort of game rather characteristic of the President—Charlotte Observer.

Dr. Land Won His Case

A matter of considerable local interest was the case of Dr. James Land, which came up at the term of court held in Chester this week, and was in reference to the license imposed upon those selling fruit on the streets of Chester by the city authorities.

Several months ago through the efforts of some of the merchants, council passed an ordinance placing a heavy license on those who sell fruits, such as oranges, bananas, etc., on the streets of Chester. This was for the special purpose of keeping out parties bringing in fruits offering them to the people on the streets.

Last Christmas Dr. Land bought a car of oranges, which he had shipped to Chester, and which he offered the people from trucks on the street. The city authorities took the matter in hand and fined Dr. Land, who appealed to the Circuit Court.

Judge Henry decided that the ordinance was in violation of the constitution and was unreasonable. Council will probably repeat the present ordinance or pass one which carries a "reasonable" license.

The attention of the public is called to an ordinance, published in this issue, regarding automobile traffic in the City of Chester. Certain sections of the ordinance prohibiting the parking of automobiles, and other vehicles, on certain streets, and all motorists should familiarize themselves with the ordinance. City officials will probably erect signs on the streets within the next few days to help people in knowing just what not to park their cars.

Mr. A. A. Richardson, chief mailman, advises that the Southern Railway Company has received $4,152.75 from the state game department, which represents an amount collected over and above the usual keep of the department and payments made for law enforcement in the counties of the state. Chester county is to get $911.50 as its pro rata share of the collection. The article which was published covering the above subject made no mention of the total expenses in connection with the running of the department.

Union County is to be linked up with Chester county in the new route being held in that city. It will be called the Calhoun Highway. This road runs from Whitmore to the Seaboard overland bridge, thence to Rodgers Ferry and thence to the Fishdam Ferry and thence to Chester. The distance of this new highway is about 30 miles, and very little of it will be topographical. About twenty-six men on Union county's change are now working on the road, and it is expected that information furnished PROGRESS by Supervisor J. V. Askew the road will be finished in about ten months time—Union Progress.

According to a report issued by the South Carolina Highway Commission license for the first six months of the present year, ending June 30th, have been issued to 194,162 automobiles, trucks, motorcycles, etc. The highway commission has collected $816,599.04 in highway fees. Eighty per cent of the amount collected is returned to the various counties of the state in proportion to the total amount collected from the motor vehicle owners of that county. Chester county's proportion for the six months amounts to $11,876.77.

Cotton in South Carolina failed to show average improvement in conditions during the month of June, according to the report of R. B. Hare, agricultural statistician in the office for the United States Department of Agriculture. The condition in the state June 25 was the same as the condition report of May 25, whereas the average improvement for this period, based upon calculations covering ten years, is 3 per cent for South Carolina and 2 per cent for the entire cotton belt.

Some people seem to be of the impression that all school children are entitled to admission to the baseball games for a twenty-five cent. This is a mistaken idea. Children twelve years of age and under, entitled to admission for twenty-five cents, but children above twelve years of age are supposed to pay fifty cents. The ladies are now being admitted for twenty-five cents, this ruling became effective a few days after the opening of the league.

Mr. J. U. Bell, of the General Offices of the Lancaster and Chester Railway Company at Lancaster, spent yesterday in Chester, having come over to check Mr. McKay, the new agent for the Southern, C. & N. People from far and wide were present at the Glenn-Abell Motor Company in Chester, Wednesday afternoon, 1:30 o'clock, with the hope of being the one who would hold the lucky number and thereby become the possessor of a Ford touring car without cost. After a few preliminary remarks by W. A. Chitty, manager, and Mr. James H. Glenn, one of the owners, both of whom thanked the people of this section for their patronage, he told them of the equipment which the company has at their disposal, the sixty odd thousand tickets were taken from a large box, in which they had been deposited, and thoroughly stirred after which a little boy, blind-folded, was brought in to select. We can fix you up. Chester Hardware Co.

The regular monthly meeting of the city council was held Tuesday night with the Mayor and all of the Aldermen present. The report of the Chief of Police for the month of June showed that fines collected amounted to $282.00. The Chester Plumbing and Heating Company asked for permission to cut into the pavement on Columbia street for the purpose of making water and sewer connections for the new high school building. Council was of the opinion that this could possibly be avoided by making connections on School street or College street, neither of which are paved, and the City Engineer was requested to look into the proposition and if connection could possibly be made at one of the two streets mentioned that same be done. In the event it is found impossible to make the connections except on Columbia street, then the plumbing and heating company is to furnish bond to insure the paving being put back in its present condition.

A request was also received about water and sewerage connections for some houses Mr. T. L. Eberard expects to erect on Wylie and Walker streets, and the city engineer was requested to also secure bond for this work.

Mr. C. C. Young was granted permission to erect a brick filling station on the Gladden lot on Hudson street, and to also erect a gasoline tank in the vicinity of Walnut street and the C. & N. W. Railway.

A traffic ordinance was passed and received second reading thereby making the ordinance a law. It appears in full in this issue of the News.

Last Tuesday afternoon Chester and Rock Hill put up a real baseball game, the score being 1 to 0 in favor of Chester. Errors were few and both teams played a first grade class of ball. Hiram twisted for Rock Hill and Degenhart for Chester. Both are excellent pitchers, and they were on the job from start to finish.

The arrival Wednesday of John Calhoun, Jr., first of the negro personnel is said to have caused considerable excitement. Calhoun, however, left the city yesterday afternoon.

At the District Meeting in Rock Hill

At the district meeting in Rock Hill last week a picnic for all Methodists of the Rock Hill District was proposed and the following committee was appointed: Mrs. I. C. Cross, chairman; Mesdames Julia Johnson, W. P. Smith, D. C. Case, R. L. Keaton, L. E. Brown and Revs. G. C. Leonard, J. C. Roper, R. C. Boulward, R. L. Holroyd, W. Sparks and Henry Stokes. A meeting of this committee was held Tuesday afternoon, and Rev. R. L. Holroyd was elected secretary.

The Chester Chamber of Commerce kindly offered as Chester County Fair Grounds for the occasion, and with thanks, the committee accepted this courtesy, and plans are now rapidly developing for the largest picnic of this kind ever held in this section, at the Chester County Fair Grounds on August 7th.

There are 61 churches in this district and every pastor is urged to come and bring a full delegation with his charge. Prominent men and women of church and State have been invited to be present, and there will be a band and a recreational program, all of which will tend to make August 7th a Red Cross Day for the Methodists of the Rock Hill district.—Mrs. L. E. Brown.

Shoots Man; Takes Car.

—Abbeville, July 5.—A negro "soldier" William Williams, who is lodged in the Abbeville jail, charged with shooting a Mr. Ginn, the shooting occurred near Lowndesville.

From what can be learned here, it seems that Mr. Ginn was on his way from Georgia to Anderson, that the negro Henry gave him a $150.00 to let him ride as far as the next station, where the negro shot him four times and taking his car. The car was ditched near Calhoun Falls.

Parties going to Anderson found Ginn lying in the road. Upon being told about the trouble they returned to Calhoun Falls, found the negro and arrested him, bringing him on to Abbeville jail.

The last heard here from Lowndesville was that Ginn was still alive but badly wounded. Neither the white man nor negro is known here.

Mr. A. S. Turner Dies.

Many friends in Chester and throughout the county learned with sorrow of the death of Mr. Alexander S. Turner which occurred at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. R. Hamrick, on York street, yesterday morning about eleven o'clock. Wednesday morning just after sitting down to the breakfast table, Mr. Turner suffered a stroke of paralysis, which caused his death as a result of the attack. The funeral services will be held at the Hamrick home this afternoon at 5 o'clock. The remains will be laid to rest in Evergreen cemetery. The services will be in charge of Chester Commandery No. 7, Knights Templar, of which Mr. Turner was a member.

Mr. Turner was also a member of the Methodist church and was one of Chester's most respected citizens. He was sixty-three years of age and had been a resident of Chester for a number of years, being associated with Mr. J. R. Hamrick in the lumber and grist mill business.

Mr. Turner is survived by two sisters and one brother, Mrs. R. Hamrick, and Miss Julia Turner, of Chester; and Mr. J. H. Turner, of Atlanta, Ga.

TUSKEGEE IS STILL STIRRED OVER THE VETERANS' HOSPITAL.

Tuskegee, Ala., July 4.—While people of Tuskegee were today eagerly awaiting the outcome of Friday's conference between Director Hines of the Veterans' Bureau, and local citizens on the placing of a negro hospital in the negro disabled veterans' hospital here, they were also discussing the demonstration last night of the Ku Klux Klan in which hundreds of robes figures appeared in a silent protest against such action.

With a fiery cross gleaming above them on the outskirts of the town, hundreds of Klansmen paraded through the streets to Tuskegee last night. Many cities in the state were said to have been represented in the demonstration. The rally was headed by the Tuskegee Institute the famous negro institution founded by Booker T. Washington, but none set foot upon the grounds of the school.

Spokesman for the organization declared that their mission was one of peace, and they had no intention of causing trouble to the school.

They claimed to represent 50,000 Klansmen throughout the state, who, they said, opposed the move of the government.

BRIEFLY TOLD.

A concrete tower 600 feet high is to be erected at Wembley, near London, England, to give visitors a view of the surrounding country. A searchlight powerful enough to be seen from the coast of France will be installed in the tower. A cage will make the trip to the top of the tower spirally.

Above the lowlands of Guatemala there are rich, table-lands rising as high as 6,000 feet, with a delightful climate. Here are grown several crops, such as sugar, coffee, wheat and rice, as well as various varieties of fruits. Above this 6,000-foot level are the cold lands where wheat, potatoes and other temperate climate plants thrive.

Charles Young, the only Negro ever to rise to colonel's rank in the United States Army, was buried at Arlington Amphitheater, May 21. Colonel Young was graduated from West Point in 1889. He served in the Philippines, in Indian campaigns and as military attaché in Haiti and Liberia.

Thousands of foreigners were waiting on the Mexican side of the Rio Grande to be smuggled into the United States, according to immigration inspectors of Federal District No. 22. Organized bands of smugglers put the foreigners over the line for ten pesos ($5) a person. The inspector stationed at Laredo estimates that 300 foreigners, from Nuevo Laredo are awaiting transportation across the border.

Sir Conan Doyle's famous detective stories of Sherlock Holmes have been scattered from the libraries of 'Iverness, Scotland,' by the authorities who have charge of the county's education. They say the stories have a corrupting influence on youth.

A jail, a chapel and a morgue will be included in the Chicago Union Station now under construction. The jail will be used for holding prisoners passing through Chicago and will eliminate the necessity of prisoners being handcuffed to officers while waiting for trains. The chapel will be complete and will be equipped for funeral services.

To aid in preventing the ruthless destruction of wild flowers, loss by fire, pollution of streams, and littering of picnic grounds and camp sites, a "Hill and Mountain Club" has recently been organized in Tuolumne County, California. The members take the following oath: "I pledge myself to leave the hills and mountains as beautiful as I find them; to observe and aid in the enforcement of all measures intended to preserve their natural features, and to respect private property and the rights of others."

"Unless sensible men come to the rescue, we shall have a government of laws, with a statute governing our every action," says Bruce A. Campbell, president of the Illinois Bar Association. "Paternalism has become the order of the day. Good law is a good sense, and good sense is to be determined by the deliberate judgment of the generality of the people."

A French professor has discovered a process of grafting plants by means of which perfumed flowers grafted on plants that heretofore had no scent at all results in the product of the grafting smelling like the original. A wormwood grafted on a chrysanthemum produced flowers which gave off a perfume much more powerful than that of the original plant.

W. W. Husband, Commissioner of Immigration, in a recent report states that the recent immigration restrictions are having their desired effect in reducing the number of persons coming to the United States from Southern and Eastern Europe and in increasing the number of the original settlers of the country. The countries last mentioned are now sending their full quotas to the United States, something that has not happened for several years.

So finely balanced are the doors of the Bank of England that a clerk, by pressing the button under his desk, can close them instantly, and they can be opened only by special process.

To help promote good health see that the articles you use in your bakings give you—

Food containing gluten which is vital to your vitality.

Gluten is the soul of flour—the real nutritive element. It is gluten that builds health, strength, and makes robust children and healthy men and women.

Why take a chance on losing the full value of this gluten? Good, wholesome bakings can be made only from good materials—no other way—so use only good baking powder and plain flour for best results.

Don't use substitutes such as self-rising flour, Cake Mixes, and Egg Savers (so-called).

The safe course which is pointed out to the family physician is to recommend pure plain flour and a baking powder of standard quality, and to be especially watchful in all cases of malnutrition to be sure the diet carries strength giving properties.

For best results use—Calumet Baking Powder and a good plain flour.
