VOL. NO. 6.

YOUR AMUSEMENTS.

(By H. Addington Bruce.)

Here is a question I would earnestly put to every young man engaged in earning his living...

For it is a fact, though thousands of young men do not seem to appreciate it, that the way a man spends his time outside of business hours...

I know a man who, ten years ago, was earning an exceptionally good salary, and was looked upon as a real "comer" in his profession...

Nor is he so much in evidence as he was in those earlier times. He does not dance at all, because he has to hustle too hard to hold his job...

For no man can dance as he used to dance, evening after evening, until late at night...

How often, young man, do you spend your evenings restfully at home? How often do you amuse yourself with good books, good music, quiet conversation...

Will Analyze Brain of Murdered Woman. Thought Analyst Will Repeat Whether or Not Criminal Operation Was Performed.

New York, July 26.—Chemical analysis today of the brain of the "needed" body of an unidentified woman, which was found in a trunk here yesterday, snipped from Detroit on June 10, was expected to assist in establishing how the victim met her death.

Special Notice. Lewisville School District No. 3, will hold a convention at Land Methodist church at 4:30 P. M. Saturday, July 27.

IF YOU FEEL BLUE.

(By H. Addington Bruce.)

You confess to a despondent state of mind that is becoming almost chronic. You insist that you have never realized the full possibilities of your life.

But despondency will never help you to deal with the activities of life. It will only tend to multiply your clouds and your perplexities by clouding your judgment.

Every evening, the last thing before going to bed, make a tabulation of the day's occurrences with reference to their effect upon yourself.

It may further his great self-loyalty to supplement his moral self-education by a physical examination. Often it happens that persistent despondency has its origin in an unsuspected bodily defect or in an unsound habit that lowers the physical tone.

It is in all probability the present obscurity and the dancing mania which he was once obsessed there is a direct relation of cause and effect.

There is a direct relation of cause and effect. For no man can dance as he used to dance, evening after evening, until late at night.

Therefore, study yourself morally and let a doctor study you physically. If you habitually suffer from the blues, you need not thus suffer.

Will Offer for Senate Instead of the House. Columbia, July 25.—Interest throughout the state attaches to the announcement made here today by Joseph A. Berry, Orangeburg lawyer and prominent member of the state legislature, that he will not offer for re-election to the house this year but will offer for the senate.

Special Notice. Lewisville School District No. 3, will hold a convention at Land Methodist church at 4:30 P. M. Saturday, July 27.

PLACE YOUR ORDERS NOW

Orders For Cover Crops Should Be Placed With County Agent As Soon As Possible.

People desiring alfalfa seed, crimson clover, or any other cover crop should place their orders with county agent Sanders at once.

Large catches were found all over the county. It is thought that the alfalfa seed was brought to Raleigh hospital in the city for treatment.

On July 25th he left her home with Sam Lackey, of Winston-Salem, with the understanding she was to be married to him.

Persons doomed to wear a lean and hungry look from the cradle to the grave enjoy those who are more generously endowed.

A man, denied generous covering, at the bath, but he has the confidence assurance that clothes will conceal his poverty.

For the removal of superfluous hairs, there are numerous devices and operations, and many of them are not the least effective.

For male persons between the ages of 15 and 50, first stop taking the eye glasses.

For persons who are not satisfied with their present hair, it is best to stop cutting as it grows.

WOMAN'S BODY IS LACERATED

In Hospital She Tells Shocking Story of Cruelty—Stateville Woman Found Dead in Cell.

Burlington, N. C., July 25.—One of the most horrible crimes known to this section came to light when a young woman who says her name is Maggie Smith, of Raleigh, was found dead in a cell at the Stateville hospital.

Large catches were found all over the county. It is thought that the alfalfa seed was brought to Raleigh hospital in the city for treatment.

On the following day, the couple left Burlington for Durham. They spent the day there and took the train for Durham.

Her brother came down from Stateville yesterday and is now in the hospital.

MORTALLY HURT MAN FATALLY WOUNDS TWO. Shoots Wife to Death and Fires Two Bullets Into Companion's Head.

Washington, July 25.—Mortally wounded by blows from a hatchet, Philip Joseph, of Norfolk, Va., was shot by his wife, and she turned his fire on Apollonia, sending two bullets through the latter's head.

The two men decided not to argue their differences until today, according to the police.

Columbia, July 24.—Every part of the state is expected to attend the 37th annual reunion of the Third Division of the A. E. F. to be held at Asheville, N. C., September 20.

MORE GOSPEL AND LESS SENSATION

Sermonic sensationalism coupled with the lack of a definite theology not only exhibits a spiritual weakness, but it also exhibits a moral weakness.

On the following day, the couple left Burlington for Durham. They spent the day there and took the train for Durham.

Her brother came down from Stateville yesterday and is now in the hospital.

TUESDAY, JULY 27.

Give some people a bite of an apple and there'll be no cure.
Those who live the most are not the ones who live the fastest.

The man who never gives up will some day have money out at interest.

You never realize how many men there are out of work until you start to do some outdoor job that is a little difficult of performance.

The man who thinks the country is being run just as good as he could run it himself can safely be called a conservative.

Property on Wall street is said to be worth forty million dollars an acre—and not a foot of it is devoted to the plot, nor is the water fit for drinking.

If Christian Science succeeds in making us believe there is no such thing as pain, it will rob a lot of the pleasure they take in being miserable.

The automobile industry is doing much for labor. It gives direct employment to about two million people, besides doing considerable in the way of lessening the number of people wanting jobs.

BACK TO STATES RIGHTS.
Sometimes chided with fogism for her undimmed loyalty to States rights, the South can now take cheer from the fact that British statesmanship is turning to that very principle as a solvent for certain grave problems of the United Kingdom. Mr. Asquith, the former Premier, recently declared that his experience of 30 years as a Scottish member of the House of Commons had taught him how utterly impossible it is for the central government efficiently to administer the affairs of Scotland and how essential it is for the good of the Kingdom as a whole as well as for that of its several units that a freer, freer measure of local self-government be provided.

With this judgment there appears to be general concurrence. The tasks of government have grown at once so tremendous and so intricate that Parliament cannot handle them with justice to either imperial or provincial affairs. Hence there has developed in the British Isles in recent years a well-nigh unanimous sentiment for the establishment of some sort of legislative and executive machinery for handling matters of domestic concern in the different parts of the Kingdom—Wales, Scotland and England as well as Ireland—leaving Parliament free for imperial business.

On the side of the water we started out with this method, not so much as a matter of practical necessity as of principle, for each State of the original Union was considered a sovereign with inalienable rights. We have kept the form through a long age, and have found it most expedient. But here we kept the spirit as well: If the centralizing tendency obtrudes another 50 years at the pace it has gained during 50 just passed, will the fathers of the Republic, revivifying by change "the brightness of the moon," ever recognize their handiwork? Assuredly there must come a reaction, if not to still-principles, at least away from excesses of Federalization. For as our population, already well above a hundred million, multiplies and multiplies its contacts, its sweep and almost infinite variety of interests, the point will be reached where governmental efficiency itself—now urged as an argument for centralizing—will demand de-centralization.

GASOLINE RATIONING IS CONSIDERED BY LEADING REFINERS.
Washington, July 27.—A gasoline rationing system to be applied throughout the entire United States now is being considered by big refiners.
The rationing system is designed by the refiners as a last resort to curtail consumption and to keep the price from being forced to more than 40 cents a gallon, government officials here have been informed by the representatives of the refiners.
Vice President C. A. Dix, of the Midwest Refining Company, is one representative of the big refiners now here who has discussed the rationing system with government officials. Another is G. G. Sheffield, of the Standard Oil Company, of New Jersey.
Refiners say curtailing consumption is the only way to keep down prices. Before adopting the rationing system they plan to issue a nationwide appeal to the country to cut down joy riding.
As devised by the refiners the rationing plan would be a voluntary one by dealers in which the government would have no hand. It would mean that gasoline would be doled out to dealers under a fixed quota for each state or locality.
California now is on gasoline rationing.
Gas now is selling from 31 to 33 cents a gallon. Consumption is now reported by refiners as 18,000,000 gallons a day. Production is 2,000,000 less or 11,000,000 gallons a day. Reserve stocks therefore are being drawn on at the rate of about 50,000,000 gallons a month, according to producers' figures.
Refiners say it is impossible to increase production. They say oil is being produced faster than ever before.

WIRELESS TELEPHONIC CONVERSATION IS HELD WITH SHIP IN MID-OCEAN.
St. John, N. F., July 27.—Wireless telephonic communication between the signal hill station here and the steamer Victorian in mid-ocean was established for the first time today. Conversation was maintained for several consecutive minutes.
Voice transmission was perfect. Experts were making no adjustments of apparatus and communication was possible several times. The management of the wireless telephonic company would make no official statement pending permanent establishment and maintenance of telephonic communication, which it was believed, would be effected within a few hours.

There was no confirmation for the statement that the human voice had been heard over the wireless telephone across the Atlantic ocean yesterday.

Are You Laying Anything Up?

Are you putting anything by for the almost inevitable rainy day? Are you preparing for the reverses that come to almost all of us somewhere in life? Are you providing for misfortune, or butterfly-like do you expect the days always to be filled with brightness, joy and gladness? The wiser plan is to make allowance for probable illness, or a lay-off from work for some other cause, and lay a portion of your earnings aside.

Next pay day why don't you bring your pay check down to the bank and get it cashed, and, first of all, start a SAVINGS ACCOUNT, if but with ONE DOLLAR? Then try keeping this up each pay day for a while and when, later on, you get a raise, try to pay the amount of that raise to yourself in addition. Try to add to your SAVINGS ACCOUNT.

A Savings Account is never idle. Rain or shine, night and day, the interest continues to accumulate. We pay you 4 per cent, compounded quarterly, on your savings.

Thousands have won their way to financial independence by the petty savings plan. Try it. We are glad to handle your account, no matter how small.

PASSES WORTHLESS CHECKS AND GETS INTO JAIL.
Sumter, July 27.—A young man giving the name of James M. Moss and stating that he was from Wall-halla was arrested last night on the charge of passing worthless checks. The local police had a wire from the sheriff of Oconee county asking them to be on the lookout for a young man with an impediment in his speech, who was passing bad checks. The police found Moss at a local hotel, and when arrested he was found to have nearly 75 checks already made out and signed with various names. Moss says that he tried to pass one check at a local garage, but was not successful. The State today carried a description of a check forger working in Columbia Wednesday. Moss' registered in Sumter Wednesday evening and says he was not in Columbia Wednesday or Thursday.

Sergeant Klutz has served his country in various capacities and has also seen much of the world. He has not yet decided his plans for the future but it is hoped that he will locate in "Good Old Chester."

Yesterday afternoon the little three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marshall, while playing around an open well near the home on Center street, fell into same and was thought to have been drowned. The child along with some other children were playing together and when the little one fell into the well the other children were quickly given and a colored man entered the well and the child was brought out. When the child was first brought to the surface it was thought to be dying but physicians quickly summoned revived it and with the exception of a few bruises it is now thought to be in good health. It is stated that there is considerable water in the well and it is a miracle that the child was not drowned.

AUTOMOBILE WRECK

ON SALUDA ROAD. The expected happened yesterday evening about eight o'clock when a Studebaker automobile, containing six negroes, plunged over the embankment at the bridge on the Saluda road which crosses the tracks of the Southern Railway a few hundred yards beyond the home of Mr. Worth.

From information obtainable the negroes were from Columbia and were on route home when the accident happened. Those who happened to be in the neighborhood at the time of the accident state that the automobile must have been running around 45 miles per hour and it was evident that the driver was not familiar with the curve leading up to the bridge. The driver evidently got onto the bridge but struck the side of same. He then righted this machine and the next move it planned down the embankment, the rear wheel of the automobile almost touching the railroad cross ties when it landed. The car was badly damaged.

Of the six negroes in the car five were hurt, three of whom are seriously injured, and another one died from the effects of his injuries this morning about 3 o'clock. We understand that two of those injured will probably die. Little hope being entertained for their recovery. All of those injured were brought to Chester and placed in the Chester Sanatorium.

It seems that the car which plunged into the cut was one of three or four cars which were making the trip to Columbia. A Buick car in front managed to make the bridge, but the Studebaker, which was following went over the embankment.

This bridge is a very dangerous one, especially to people who are not familiar with the Saluda road, and it will be recalled that Railroad Commissioner Casler was in Chester a short time ago for the purpose of inspecting same and recommended that it be allowed to stand as it is. Mr. Casler's recommendation to the other members of the commission was published in a recent issue of the News.

While, from information obtainable, it appears that the negroes were enjoying a high rate of speed on this, in the opinion of the News, does not alone account for the accident.

NOTICE OF FINAL RETURN.

On August 27, 1920, I will make my final return to A. W. Wise, Probate Judge, and Administratrix of the Estate of W. P. McCullough, Jr., deceased, and will also apply for my discharge.

REV. PURCELL CALLED TO WILMINGTON

The following article from The Wilmington Star will be of interest to many Chester people, especially the members of Parity Presbyterian church: Richmond, P. D. The congregation of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church yesterday extended a call to the Rev. J. Edward Purcell, pastor of Parity church, Chester, S. C.

Following a brief address by W. H. Sprunt, head of the committee which recently heard Mr. Purcell in Chester, members of the church voted practically/unanimously in favor of the call. Officers of the church had previously intimated him. Mr. Purcell has already been approached on the subject, and at that time intimated to the committee that he would look with favor on such a call if the church saw fit to extend it. A definite answer is expected within the next few days.

MAY LEAVE CHESTER COUNTY

A meeting of citizens in the extreme northeastern section of Landford township was held yesterday at Rowells in reference to annexing the section east of Fishing Creek, in Landford, and a small portion in Rossville townships to York county.

Some 75 citizens of the township were present and while they were apparently willing to sign the petition, which requires one-third of the freeholders to call an election, the sentiment was divided as to how they would vote in this matter. A large number of them expressed themselves as being opposed to leaving Chester county until the proposed annexation had received further consideration.

Mr. Arthur G. Westbrook was chairman of the meeting, and York county interests were represented by Mr. Black Wilson, of Rock Hill, A. L. Gaston, Esq., at the suggestion of some of those present, gave an explanation of how the funds introduced to the Chester Highway Commission had been expended in improving the roads of Chester county, stating that the original plan to build 200 miles of road with the bond issue of $450,000 had of necessity been decreased on account of the greatly increased expense in doing this work. He also told of a conference at Chester some time ago in which the township supervisor of Landford had attended, to discuss whether or not it would be practical to have the Chester Highway Commission take over the roads of the township for the purpose of or to discontinue until conditions were nearer normal. It was the sense of the meeting that the Commission continue the work as long as the money within the next few days. Mr. Purcell is a native of Red Springs, and a graduate of Davidson College and the Union Theological Seminary at Richmond. Prior to his call to Chester two years ago he was pastor of the Presbyterian church at Mt. Carmel, Va. He has also done special work at the Bible School. He is ranked as a forceful and eloquent speaker, and an excellent personal worker.

Since the death of the Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure several months ago, St. Andrew's has been without a pastor. The Rev. J. J. Murray, who conducted services at St. Andrew's yesterday presided over the congregational meeting as moderator.

Most of those present were in favor of signing the petition, but were not satisfied as to the advisability of this proposed change. It is evident that they will investigate the matter carefully and get more data on the subject before they are willing to go over to York.

Mr. Black Wilson, in the course of his remarks, told of a plan that the Board of Rock Hill had for the formation of a new county with Rock Hill as the county seat and explained that this was one reason they sought additional territory in that section. He also stated that the citizens in a portion of the northwestern section of York county were planning to be annexed to Chester; citizenship of Mr. Wilson had the petition ready and explained in detail the legal steps necessary to succeed "from Chester county." He made no promise as to what York county would do for this section in the way of improved roads or otherwise. He suggested that in the event the election was favorable that they need not become a part of Catawba township but suggested that they form their own township in order not to lose any of the independence of this township.

Most of those present were in favor of signing the petition, but were not satisfied as to the advisability of this proposed change. It is evident that they will investigate the matter carefully and get more data on the subject before they are willing to go over to York.

Good Roads Leads to Good Towns

Estimated Trucks and Road Made by U. S. Army. Millions. Columbia, July 26.—Some where in the neighborhood of a million dollars worth of material has been furnished by the federal government, for the improvement of the state highways of South Carolina, to date, and the latest addition to the list is a solid carload of motor trucks parts. The State Highway Department is today in receipt of a carload of trucks for Graham-Herstein trucks. These parts will be kept in the department's garage and warehouses in Columbia and distributed to the counties for the upkeep of the state highways.

The highway department of also just in receipt of three steam hoisting engine was recently received and sent to Marlboro county for use on bridges.

The highway department is also receiving additional motorcycles, from Camp Jasp. Of the original allotment of 200 motor trucks for use on South Carolina highways, the bureau of roads at Washington has already delivered more than 200 of them. The only cost to the state of this material is the freight and upkeep, together with repairs in some cases.

The following telegram was sent Mr. James Casler, at Columbia, this morning and has been handed The News for publication: "James Casler, Railroad Commissioner, Columbia, S. C. Overhead bridge inspected by you between Chester and Rock Hill, S. C., on July 26th. The bridge is in good condition and the automobile demolished and three Columbia negroes killed and four seriously injured last evening. Ready information, former Chester supporter."

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT ELECTRIC RANGES

I am an enthusiastic user of electricity for cooking purposes, and I have no doubt that this method of cooking will finally supersede the older methods by virtue of its greater cleanliness, efficiency, economy, simplicity, safety, comfort and reliability. The use of electric cooking ranges will make cookery a more exact science than it is at present.

NEGRO CONFESSES SEVEN MURDERS

Tells California Sheriff of Many Crimes—Moss Gibson Says "Although He Has Committed 'Thousands' of Burglaries"

Los Angeles, July 23.—California authorities tonight were conferring with Florida and Louisiana officials in an effort to assist in confirming the confession of Moss Gibson, negro, that he had murdered seven persons during the last few years, including a woman at Orange City Junction, Fla., killed in November, 1919. Gibson is under sentence to hang for the murder of Roy Trapp, a Pullerton, Calif., rancher, and, according to Sheriff Cline, and Los Angeles county, was implicated in the killings to Sheriff Jackson, of Santa Ana county.

Sheriff Jackson, in a message today to Sheriff Cline, said Gibson had confessed also to having killed J. R. Reavis of Baton Rouge, La., about ten years ago; a woman at Express mill at Gramerich, La., in November, 1916, and a stockpiper at Wagner, La., also in November, 1916.

Gibson, since his sentence, had been under investigation in connection with the murder of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Erhart, and several other killings here the night of June 6. Sheriff Jackson has just returned from making Gibson the pentecostary at San Quentin.

Admission that he committed "thousands" of burglaries, obtaining some from a few cents to 100—was made by Gibson, according to the sheriff.

Gibson was arrested at Topoca, Ariz., for the murder of Trapp. He was brought here, pleaded guilty to the murder charge and sentenced to hang September 24. Reavis killed most of his victims with a hammer, he accepted. Mr. and Mrs. Erhart were killed according to the confession, and the negro had served a jail sentence at Douglas, Ariz. He said he killed the couple to obtain money. Reavis also was killed for money.

Two of the burglaries were committed in one night in June, 1918, in Omaha, Neb., the sheriff said. Gibson was arrested after the first, and, although handcuffed, made his escape. He committed the second robbery with the manacles still on his hands.

FINDS CAR IN CONWAY.

Machine Stolen After Driver Had Been Drugged.

Conway, July 23.—Press Curry, who operates a trucker at Mullins, and who was overpowered and put to sleep with ether by three men whom he was taking to Fair Bluff last Monday, the men then taking him to Conway yesterday to identify his car, which was found on Laurel street near the tobacco warehouses. The by the sheriff and chief of police.

As soon as the news was received here the officers were on the lookout for the men and they were apprehended Wednesday morning that a local transfer driver took three men, answering to the description given by Mr. Curry, to Georgetown Tuesday. The officers here have held out programs to all nearby towns, giving the description of these men. Mr. Curry left with his car for his home at Mullins this afternoon.

CHARGED WITH MURDER OF COLUMBUS WOLAN.

Columbus, Ga., July 24.—G. L. Gray late yesterday was arrested by local police authorities on a charge of murder in connection with the killing of Mrs. Z. Wells, a local farmer's wife. The woman, about 50 years of age, was found dead in her home in the northern part of the city here ten days ago, with her head badly beaten up and a large rock, wrapped in a handkerchief, lying by covered in blood. Her man-sy was gone, and the police expressed the belief that robbery was the motive. Gray is alleged to have been seen at the house by negroes of the vicinity before the tragedy. His lawyers he is innocent of any connection with the crime.

A preliminary hearing may be had Monday in police court. It was announced today. Meantime Gray will be held in the city barracks.

ORGANIZE YOUR LIFE.

(By H. Addington Bruce.)

All over the land young men at this moment are beginning business or professional careers. They have done with school and colleges. They have taken a short vacation after the strenuous period of final examinations.

Now they are about to start making their own way in the land. Few of those among them who will not make the start with hopes high.

For youth is essentially optimistic youth is fundamentally self-confident. In his bright lexicon there is no such word as failure. Youth's success is the one thing certain.

But youth too often forgets that success depends on many things, and too often youth forgets that it depends largely on the determination of a young man's aim and the vigor with which he organizes his life with that aim in view.

No man can drift to success. No young man can possibly succeed if he lets the power that is in him be wasted, or if he scatters it in foolish activities. Every young man who would win must energize himself by concentration.

Recently I have seen one draw a little word picture especially significant to young men starting out for the world. Here it is:

"A pile of steel filings and shavings lying on the floor of a foundry may be fine in quality, they may weigh a ton when put upon the scales, but if reorganized they have little value."

"Organize and weld them into a shaft, attach one end of the shaft to an engine and the other to a screw propeller, and it will send a mighty liner from New York to Liverpool in five days."

"In like manner a mind, a heart, a soul, is nothing more than a confused heap of thoughts and wishes, impulses and desires, longings and aspirations, until by the power of a purpose all these are brought into unity and made effective in their strides toward some worthy, fruitful end."

"This is what every young man needs to do—he needs to organize his life."

And he cannot too soon begin the task of organizing it. For if he delays, habits which may make life so exciting difficult, if not impossible to get rid of, fasten on him.

The habit of energy waste, the habit of contentment with the mediocre, the habit of amusement craving once gripped by these he will never be freed. As since the first peopling of the world, millions of men have demonstrated by the faculty of their lives.

Clearly the winners are those who always recognize that life is for accomplishment of a worth while sort, and, inspired by the recognition, subordinate everything else to accomplishment.

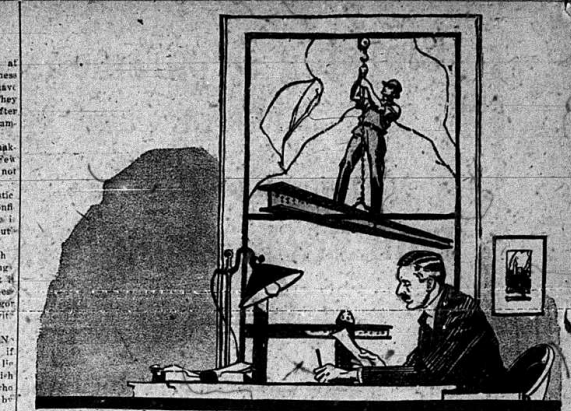

They may not win fame, they may not win wealth. But they are sure to win and hold self-respect, the esteem of others, self-satisfaction, happiness.

And, incidentally, they may into the bargain win both fame and wealth.

SCHE FARM.—To the man who wants a small farm, with all modern farm improvements thereon, we have it for him. Seven miles of Chester, two miles of Lowryville, in sight of main road and railroad. Nice six-room cottage, newly painted inside and out, an engine and other to suit outbuildings; 100 acres of fine land. This is an opportunity seldom offered and if you are in the market for it call on Pegram and Cassels.
