from now to inform them of your satisfaction.

If the person you are considering your coffee date is satisfied with what you are considering a coffee date, please wait until they tell you themselves and do not harass them for information, as we do not condone harassment.

If both parties consider this a coffee date and are satisfied with their experience, please consider a second date.

If a second date is shared between the returning parties, please consider a further relationship.

If a further relationship is explored between the returning parties, please consider marriage.

If a further relationship is only considered by one party, please do not harass the opposing party, as we do not condone harassment.

Careful, the beverage you are about to enjoy is extremely hot. Enjoy!
