INDIANS AT RESERVATION STAGE A BLOODY AFFAIR
Saturday night at the Indian reservation, two Catawbas, Walter Harris and Ephraim George, seem to have gone on the warpath and the result is that George is minus one hand and one eye. The report goes that George and Harris, who live in Rock Hill, went to the reservation here, went down Saturday night and about 1 o'clock Sunday morning visited the home of David Ayers and threatened to beat him up. If he would only open his door, so they could get to him. Davis is an old Indian and of course did not care to be beaten up by them, and said he had been to protect himself. He stated that they then went to the home of Ben F. Harris and started a row with Robert Harris, son of Ben, and the father went to the rescue. While he was in a tussle with them, Robert secured a shotgun and while George was scuffling with him the gun was discharged, taking off the left hand of George and shooting out the left eye.—Rock Hill Record.

MR. HENRY SAMUELS DIED IN NEW YORK THIS MORNING

A message received this morning advised of the death of Mr. Henry Samuels, of Chester, at a hospital in New York City, this morning at seven o'clock. Mr. Samuels was taken to New York for treatment last week. After arriving in New York he developed pneumonia. In addition to his other troubles. Yesterday a message was received stating that he was then unacquainted. It was realized by those acquainted with the case that the end was not far off.

Mr. Samuels had been ill for a couple of weeks and was a patient at the Pryor Hospital in Chester. Relatives decided to take him to New York to a specialist and last week, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Gruessel and a trained nurse, Mr. Samuels left for New York.

Mr. Samuels was a native of Pennsylvania and came to Chester with his parents when a boy of about ten years of age. He spent about thirty-three years of age and had been a resident of Chester for more than fifty years. For a number of years he was engaged in the mercantile business in Chester and was very successful. Several years ago he took an active part in the political life of the town and served as Alderman and also as Mayor of Chester. At the time of his death he was a Director in The National Exchange Bank.

Mr. Samuels will be sorely missed in Chester, especially by a large number of people in poor financial condition, as he was a very charitable man. One of his best traits was the fact that he was a man of his word.

At this writing no announcement has been made as to the funeral but it is very probable that the funeral will be made in New York where both his father and mother are buried.

Upon receipt of the message yesterday advising of his official conduct of his brother, Mr. Louis Samuels, left for New York but not in time to arrive before his death.

"You wouldn't know me for the same weak invalid I was before I took it. At my age I had to keep off my feet and could not fall. I couldn't do my housework, and just got where I'm most to be best in living. Some one told my husband of Cardui. He got it for me and I took three bottles before I stopped—then off on for the last three years just as a look. I saw a decided improvement after my first bottle. I need the three, and am able to do my work with ease, and even I can go on my feet and do my housework, and am feeling fine, and strong and well. Take Cardui! It may be just the medicine you need.
