Rock Hill, Jan. 24--Four actor-singers of the Metropolitan Opera company will sing, in costume, scenes from great operas at Winthrop college on January 31, at 8 p.m., in the fifth concert of the 1946-47 Winthrop artists course series.

The Metropolitan ensemble will include Jarmila Novotna, soprano; Herta Glaz, contralto; Raoul Jobin, tenor; and Martial Singher, baritone.

The program will include scenes from "La Traviata", "Samson and Dalila", "The Barber of Seville", "Manon", "Boris Godounoff", "The Merry Wives of Windsor", and "Martha".

Pianist Jan K. Behr will play the accompaniment.
