CONSIDERING HISTORY.
Supt. Hand lectured at the Greensville Institute on history. The audience, I am told, were highly satisfied with the treatment of this subject. Mr. Hand's remarks, as far as I can remember, were of a most stimulating nature. He pointed out the importance of history in the education of youth and emphasized the necessity of being well versed in the great events of the past. Mr. Hand is sure to be a pleasure to those who attend his lectures.

WAR AFFAIRS.
Martina Fallon, Agricola, First, B.G., was charged with desertion.
