SITUATION IN CUBA SERIOUS.

Rumors, the Intertransport Leader, of 4th of June 1898.

Washington, August 20. — As the result of interviews and a "serious examination" of the situation in Cuba, it is announced that the United States Govemment is about to adopt an energetic policy in the event of hiatation on the part of the revolutionists in the territory of Santiago de Cuba. The "serious examination" was conducted by Hall and Woodruff, the United States ministers at Havana.

Mr. Preston's Complaint.

York, S. C., Aug. 22. — In accordance with the wishes of Mr. Preston, we enclose him a day's worth of the Tribune, which he requested.

His appeals have been confined to the people of South Carolina, and also for the people of the Southern States, for the protection of theGUARDIANSHIP of the Southern States.
