"If at First You Don't Succeed, Try, Try Again"

It is a mighty appropriate motto for us, for we've undoubtedly had our "ups and downs" during the recent business depression of our country. And, at one time, we believed the Bull Weevil had us. But we've managed to take care of our debts (and more especially our Debtors), and I am particularly pleased to be able now to say to my valued patrons and friends that I am back in business.

At the Same Old Stand

Now, will YOU—by a fair portion of your kind patronage—confirm our belief that Chester is a good town in which to settle—"hard times" to the contrary, notwithstanding! We will be mighty glad to see you.

EVANED BY GIRL YOUTH TAKES POISON

Entered into Home, Young Woman Flees After Fight With Boy in Millenary Colony.

Los Angeles, Cal., August 16.—Robert Thomas, a 19-year-old Pasadena youth, took his own life when he failed in an alleged attempt to drug Miss Arlene Alcorn, a pretty 20-year-old stenographer, at a house in East Green Street. Thomas was the son of Mrs. Frank T. Quinn, of Pasadena.

The young woman, according to the police, had been summoned by Thomas from an employment agency on the pretext that his mother needed a stenographer.

According to the girl's story she met at the door by Thomas, who invited her in, saying his mother was not at home. As she entered the door she alleges Thomas seized her and attempted to force an oral coitus upon her.

She struggled the girl freed herself and fled. The police were notified and when they reached the house they found Thomas' body with a vial of poison lying nearby.

EXPLOSION IN YARDS

Men Narrowly Escape Injury in Roanoke.

Roanoke, Va., Aug. 17.—Shortly before midnight three explosions occurred in the west end yards of the Norfolk & Western railway here. Shortly after the third explosion five pistol shots were heard.

Several men, including the yard crew and workmen in the planing mill, narrowly escaped injury. Directly across the corner from his first explosion a large number of

700 BALES GINNED IN IRWIN; PICKING DELAYED

Ocala, Ga., August 16.—Seven hundred bales of cotton have been ginned in Irwin County. The staple has opened more rapidly this year than formerly, and indications are that most of the crop will be ginned in 30 days. Unfavorable weather is interfering with picking. Rain has fallen every day for ten days, and the weevil is destroying all the top crop. Irwin County will produce more cotton than last year by two or three thousand bales.

did not be settled, in an orderly lawful way, and without the interruptions of service which cost us no dear.

But the various groups in this order for strong arm methods, the farmer can reduce his production to his own needs, and can follow the example of some others and refuse to sell what he produced.

"But he does not believe in that sort of thing. He knows that such a policy would bring about in this great republic exactly the same sort of conditions that exist in Russia."

WEEKLY CROP REPORT

Sullivan Reviews Condition for Last Seven Days

The following crop report for the week ending Wednesday was issued by R. H. Sullivan, meteorologist.

"Temperatures have been rather too low for best crop development, and heavy local rains in many sections have been attended by overflow and land washing. Corn is in good to excellent condition generally, and field truck, peanuts, late gardens and forest have made good growth. Corn fodder yielding is in progress. Sweet potatoes have grown rather too luxuriantly for satisfactory tuber development; some of the early crop has appeared on market. Watermelons, peaches and vegetables continue plentiful. Tobacco is in fair condition, and curing continues. The week's weather has been generally very discouraging as to cotton on account of considerable rainfall and the rapid increase in boll weevil number and ravages, and serious inroads have been made in the young crop in all sections outside the upper Piedmont; the crop has been blooming and fruiting well, but weevil are now more numerous than ever before known in the eastern, central and southern counties, and infestation has extended to good sized bolls; the early crop is opening slowly in the southern counties, and the first bale was ginned at Bamberg, directly around the corner from the ally delayed by the rains. All crops need dry weather."

The Price of Tobacco.

"If Co-operative Marketing did not run up the price of tobacco—what did it? The big companies have never been in the habit of paying high prices, just to see farmers prosper, and this is a motive behind the high prices now being paid. That motive is to create dissatisfaction among farmers who have joined the association. It is our candid opinion that if there was no co-operative marketing association in 1922 the South Carolina crop would not average 10 cents a pound. If our farmers weaken now they are very foolish. The new system is at least a wedge with which to drive the manufacturer to fair prices, and to destroy that wedge would be a vital mistake.—Market Star."

ONE WEEK'S MURDER RECORD.

Seven homicides in six days was the murder record in South Carolina last week; seven killings of white people by white people; three in Greenville county, two in Barnwell county, one in Greenwood county, one in Aiken county and one in Beaufort county. Lessor was at the bottom of three of these killings, or had some part at least in bringing them about, but apparently liquor cannot be held responsible for the others. They illustrate rather—as all seven of the killings do for that matter—the disposition of the American life in this State and country. There is no other country in the world with any claim to call itself civilized which displays so much of a little account that it can be shed with the freedom which we tolerate here. Last year, according to figures produced by the Department of the American Bar Association in San Francisco, there were 9,600 "unlawful homicides" in the United States. In 10 years 10,000 persons have been killed as large as that of a city like Charleston—have been killed by poison, by the knife, by the gun, or some other deadly instrument.

In the presence of such statistics Americans should stand appalled. Homicide is a crime in South Carolina would shock and horrify any people except a people whose sensibility to the meaning of such a crime is at a low ebb, and in South Carolina this is indeed the worst part of it. It is brought home to us now by the fact that in a State with a white population of considerably less than a million the lives of seven white men can be snuffed out by violence in less than a week, and the public anxiety remains virtually undisturbed and its tranquility virtually untroubled.

Are we continuing in South Carolina to accept savagery as a matter of course?—News and Courier.

ENGINE RUNS OFF AFTER COLLISION

Finally Overcome After Escaping Race. Engineer Crotch of Columbia Slightly Injured in Week Near Charleston.

Rock Hill, Aug. 17.—Eighteen times in local railroad circles today followed a collision between a south-bound freight and a local work train near Carhart station, four miles north of Rock Hill, when the engine and caboose of the work train ran away and dashed through Rock Hill at a speed of 40 miles an hour. A local shifting crew in the city yards took after the runaway and captured it, the iron monster, a couple of miles south of the city.

Across The Continent On FIRESTONE TIRES

McCoy Corkill and Robert Davidson, of Chester, Henry Massey, of Waxhaw, N. C., and John Parish, of Greenwood, Miss., have returned from their automobile trip across the continent to California.

The trip was made in a Ford, four FIRESTONE tires being used on the entire route without a single blow-out. The tires are still on the car and apparently are good for from three to five thousand miles yet. The distance covered was about 8,000 miles. Some of the roads encountered on the trip were good; some of them were bad; and some of them were very bad and very rocky.

Why speculate in buying automobile tires when you can get FIRESTONE tires from us.

FEW RESPOND TO THE SOUTHERN'S APPEAL

Columbia, Aug. 17.—The advertisement of the Southern Railway for machinists, boiler-makers, blacksmiths, car repairmen, metal workers and electrical workers to take the place of strikers met with only a limited response in Columbia yesterday, according to railway men. J. H. Fetzer, master mechanic of the Southern shops, said not many men had applied for work. He said the shops had been picked over and that the pickets, by permission, tried to keep men away from the shops, but said it was done in a quiet way. J. O. Johnson, general foreman of the Southern, said a few men had come to work. He said negro workmen had been coming one or two at a time, for several days, but that there had been no return in groups. The shops had been picked since the strike went into effect several weeks ago, he said.

It is natural under boll weevil conditions that farmers and others discuss crop plans from cotton from time to time, and at present we often hear the matter of tobacco raising in Chester county discussed. Only this week we heard a man say that he knew a farmer in Chester county, who lives on Turkey creek, who has his regular patch of tobacco every year and has no trouble in growing an excellent weed. From what one hears there is no question but that tobacco can be raised on many farms in Chester county. As a market were created there is no doubt but that people of this section could do just as well with tobacco as those in other sections of the state.

It begins to look as if Chester county will get assistance from the federal government for the erection of a bridge over Catawba river near Fort Leno. If built the bridge will be operated between Chester and Lancaster counties and the federal government. With a bridge over the river and one at Fort Leno, Chester county will have her outlets in good shape so far as rivers are concerned. (Unfortunately Chester county has two river boundaries—Broad and Catawba.)

South Carolina Shriners recently read with profound interest an interview given out by Henry Adams, secretary of the board of trustees of the Shriners' hospital for crippled children maintained at Denton, Ga. Mr. Adams was talking with newspapermen of South Carolina, and pointing out the reasons why the Shriners in South Carolina should establish a hospital for crippled children in South, as 46 of the 199 crippled children waiting admission into the institution in Georgia are South Carolinians. The hospital goes outside fraternal order circles in its care of patients. Ninety Georgia children are awaiting admission into the hospital, Mr. Adams said.

Colored residents of East Chester are being annoyed by "The Holy Rollers," so The News is informed. We understand that they have been erected in the neighborhood of Loomis street and when it comes to making noise with drums, etc., they have a brass band out-landed. It is also rumored that the "Rollers" are advising the colored people not to destroy the boll weevil, a lot of other foolishness. The News hears that the better class of colored citizens are getting somewhat tired of the "Rollers."

FERGUSON-RODDEY.

Great Falls, Aug. 17—Of wide interest to their many friends was the wedding of Miss Louise Ferguson and Francis Marion Roddey. The ceremony was performed at 5 o'clock on the afternoon of August the fifteenth by Rev. J. E. Brown, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Ella S. Ferguson.

The ceremony was simple there being no attendants. Only relatives and a few friends were present.

The bride was lovely in a traveling suit of blue tulle with gray accessories. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses and orange blossoms. Immediately after the wedding the guests were invited into the dining room where delicious refreshments were served, while Miss Blesker, Beaumont of Glover, who had played the wedding march rendered more beautiful music from the piano.

After the reception the young couple left by motor for New York, Washington and other northern points.

Mrs. Roddey is unusually attractive and during her residence in Great Falls has made a large number of friends who are glad that her marriage will not take her away from this town. Mrs. Roddey is a graduate of Wintrop College and for the past two years has taught the fifth grade in the Great Falls school.

Mrs. Roddey is a prominent young business man of Great Falls and for the past few years has been connected with the Kleister Co. at this place. A man of fine personality, he has scores of friends who are interested in the announcement of this marriage.

PRICE CONTROL.

FOR COAL NEAR

Washington, D. C. August 17.—Legal control of the price and distribution of coal—both especially the price-boosted appreciably nearer Thursday as a result of a general agreement of the "fair price" scale by producing operators.

"The voluntary fair price" plan has broken down under the impact of a general market, and is selling for prices that range from $6.50 a ton to $13.50, as against the $15.00 agreement established by the Federal Coal Commission.

Present Harding may make the subject of coal regulation the subject of a special message to Congress, for regardless of the settlement reached at Cleveland, it is generally admitted that the country will go through the winter on short rations.

DYNAMITE ON TRACK.

Third Attempt Made in Alabama.

Say Officials. Birmingham, Aug. 17.—A third attempt to dynamite the tracks of the Louisville & Nashville railroad was made this afternoon when a charge was exploded between the ties and under one of the rails of the road near Grace, Ala., six miles from Birmingham, according to officials of the road. Two attempts were made yesterday, the local officials declared.

"Apparently a notice was responsible for the deed, it was said, as the charge was misplaced and only small damage done the rail. Sup. W. E. Smith of the local division reported a report of the attempt this afternoon and immediately sent railroad detectives to investigate the matter. No arrests have been made.

DO YOU EAT ENOUGH?

By Helen Hilden, M. D.
The physical and intellectual efficiency of the human race is lessened wherever undernutrition exists. The ability to do manual labor is interfered with as a first result. Fatigue comes more rapidly than it normally would.

Even people leading sedentary lives are markedly weakened when undernourished as regards the muscular activities necessary for the purposes of life. The love of sport and of teaming, about as lost, children cease to play, and a person avoids as far as possible all bodily exertion.

Through the power of the will, or by reason of some extraordinary inspiration, undernourished individuals may overcome the sensation of fatigue for a certain length of time in order to accomplish a definite result, as exemplified by military exploits. But the accomplishment of work in the dull, monotonous grind of civilian life is a very different matter.

The ability to do mental work finally suffers. Under ordinary circumstances the assimilation of food and the expenditure of muscular energy are increased by the love of accomplishment, the power of performance, and the note of personal initiative, but when there is undernourishment these phenomena are absent. There is such listlessness that an intellectual worker may have to perform his tasks in bed.

Malnutrition is known to be widespread among children and adults alike, and poverty is by no means the only cause of this condition. Undernourishment has been noted by Blunt and Bauer, of the University of Chicago among college students, and Emerson, of Boston, has observed it very frequently among the children of the rich.

The trouble with many thin, nervous, ambitious folks is that for one reason or another they are hardly eating enough for their daily needs, and certainly not enough for any marked gain in weight.

AFTER LONG HUNT

Warfield, Ky., August 14.—The Rev. Clarence S. Hall, who is a colonel on the staff of Governor Morrow, lawyer, school teacher and farmer, has been caught, after a chase of a year.

Hall is charged with having stolen the wife of the Rev. John Stevenson, a rival preacher, but close personal friends of Hall and the woman are alleged to have been found together in a Perry County mountain town, where they had been since they appeared together. Hall had been working as a railroad laborer.

Martin County officers, with the arrested husband and brothers of Mrs. Stevenson, had searched several states for the pair.

When Hall was brought back to Iowa, he went word to his wife, who lived several miles away. She hurried to him in jail, helped him arrange bond for appearance for trial, secured his release and they returned home together.

The Halls have several children. When Hall disappeared with Mrs. Stevenson he was being groomed for a place in the State Assembly.

For Torpid Liver

"Black-Draught is, in my opinion, the best liver medicine I have ever used," writes Mrs. H. H. White, of Columbia, S. C. "I had a pain in my chest after eating and was very uncomfortable and brought on headache. I was convinced that I had a torpid liver and I began the use of Black-Draught and in a few days I was feeling better and my liver was cured."

Thedford's BLACK-DRAUGHT

For over seventy years this purely vegetable preparation has been found beneficial by thousands of persons suffering from effects of a torpid, or slow-acting liver. Indigestion, biliousness, cold, coated tongue, dizziness, constipation, bitter taste, sleeplessness, lack of energy, pale complexion, puffiness under the eyes—any or all of these symptoms often indicate that there is something the matter with your liver. You can't be too sure about the medicine you take. Be sure that the name, "Thedford's Black-Draught," is on the package. As all druggists.

TARIFF MEASURE MOVING FORWARD

Only Two Important Amendments Remain. Democrats Lead Fight to Reduce Aluminum Rates Led by Senator Dial.

Washington, Aug. 16.—With two exceptions all important amendments to the administration tariff bill offered today by individual senators were approved by the senate. Senator Harold (Republican) of Oklahoma lost his fight to impose tariffs on crude petroleum and fuel oil and Democrats were unsuccessful in efforts to reduce the rates on aluminum.

All remaining individual amendments will be acted upon before the senate recesses tomorrow. Senate leaders hope that after the final vote late Saturday the measure can be sent to conference immediately. Chairman McCumber and Senators Watson of Indiana and Curtis of Kansas (Republicans of the finance committee) discussed the question with President Harding tonight at the White House. They said afterward that they hoped the bill could be ready for the president early in September.

The aluminum and oil questions furnished the hot spots in the senate debate today. The name of Secretary Mellon was brought into the aluminum discussion as a large stockholder in what was declared to be the "aluminum trust," the aluminum company of America, while a statement by Senator Harold that he had no financial interest in it was followed by renewed debates as to whether senators should vote on duties which might favorably affect their properties.

Discussing the aluminum duties, Senator Reed (Democrat) of Missouri charged that the tariff bill "was tainted" with the self-interest of officers of the federal government. He said "everyone knows the measure had been prepared by the experts of the treasury department and asserted that the federal officer who helped to prepare a bill 'to put money into his own pockets ought to be impeached'."

Senator McCumber denied vigorously that the treasury department had a hand in preparing the tariff measure. He asserted that the experts relied upon by the finance committee in making the duties were attached to the tariff commission, which he declared, was in no way connected with the treasury department.

By a vote of 35 to 10, the senate rejected an amendment by Senator Dial (Democrat) of South Carolina,

It Takes Money
It takes money to operate a printing plant. It takes money to operate a mercantile business. In fact, it takes money to operate any business—even a Ford business.
Printing is our business. We must have printing to do business and when we do printing we must make money in order to continue to do business. No business can operate long unless it makes a profit on the business done. Every sensible business man knows that and should be willing to allow the other fellow a reasonable profit.
The News has long since quit guessing at printing prices—we have the price figured out, right ready for you when you offer the job to us, and on every job we do a profit is figured. We are in the printing business to make money just like you are in the mercantile business to make money.
Some printers still hang on to the old style of guessing at every job of printing brought to them. John Smith brings them a job and they guess less than cost and give him a cheap job. Tom Jones brings in a job and they guess 100 per cent too high and John helps pay for the Smith job. That's not right. Every man should pay for his own job. That's the way The News charges for printing. It lets every fellow pay for his own job.
There is no need of your sending a job of printing out of Chester. The News can and will give you as reasonable a price on your work as any printer who does printing in a business way.
The News is a Home Establishment and every dollar you spend with us stays right in your town, to help the town grow. In fact, the employees of The News spend more money in Chester each year than the total business received from Chester business houses. If it were not for "The News" business The News would have to move its plant out of Chester. Looks funny, but the figures prove it.
Don't send your printing out of town. You might be able to get a cheaper price somewhere but there is no printing house in the country which can do printing as a whole, cheaper than The News and stay in business very long.
We not only want you to buy your printing at home but we want you to buy everything else at home. That's the way we must all do if we want to see Chester grow.
