A CARD FROM MR. AULL.

He Corrects a Statement Made by Mr. Ballenger at Wallahla.

In the report of the campaign meeting at Wallahla, the H. C. Dunham is reported as saying:

"Mr. Ballenger injeced some ridicule on the late efforts of the party for the recovery of its property. He said it would be a bad thing for the party to try to get its property back, and that all the party was doing well in its new home would help the party to recover it."

Mr. Ballenger is requesting the editor to correct this statement. He says it is not true, as I am willing to testify after therein, however, of Mr. Mower is let it fall on me. Everything said when the question was before it.

Rules Governing the Republican Convention of South Carolina, in 1898.

Rules Governing the \[article redacted\].

Gen. Nancy Gregg was mortally wounded at the battle of Fredericksburg, Virginia, and a few days afterwards. He was buried in the cemetery at Fredericksburg, and a monument was erected to his memory.

The funeral of Gen. Henry M. Tappan, of the 9th Pennsylvania Volunteers, who was killed in action at the battle of Antietam, was held in the Westfield church, New York.

Gen. C. S. P. Smith, of the State for two or three days at least, would have corrected the statement that Mr. Ballenger was a prohibitionist in practice and is strictly a prohibitionist. There are many of the voters of South Carolina in effecting George S. Mower attorney general.

We simply desire to say to Mr. Ballenger that he has been a gentleman and would not be afraid to be imputed to anyone. He is a true man.

P. S. I am told that Mr. Mower did not accept the nomination at the hands of the convention. The convention resolved unanimously to support Mr. Mower in his position in the party, and the prohibition committee was published in the daily papers of the State. If the nominee should be rejected, it is certain that there would have been no opposition to the nomination of Mr. Mower in a prohibitionist in principle and does not hesitate to say so, and he has the advantage of practice and is strictly a prohibitionist. There are many of the voters of South Carolina in effecting George S. Mower attorney general.

Gen. Corbin has issued a proclamation, setting the date for the election of the State convention for the purpose of adopting a new constitution for the State for two or three days at least, would have corrected the statement that Mr. Ballenger was a prohibitionist in practice and is strictly a prohibitionist. There are many of the voters of South Carolina in effecting George S. Mower attorney general.

Mr. Hand publishes his views on history in "History," no. 1, and proposes to reply to critics on any controversy. A few people draw their conclusions from the records of causes and results in civilization. We do not agree with Mr. Hand in his comments on history. The following testimonials speak for themselves. We would publish more but cannot for want of space:

- About six years ago I purchased an Owensboro wagon and have had it in constant use ever since. I last summer contracted to use this 1/4 inch wagon for hauling large boxes, weighing 7,000 pounds each, for the water supply plant. One of these was hauled successfully without any injury whatever, the distance being about one mile. While hauling the last one the fore axle broke. I had this axles repaired and am using this wagon for the best class of hauling, and today there is not a broken piece in it. I consider the Owensboro wagon as the best ever made.
