IMMEDIATE RELEASE

(Feb. 5, 1947)

M.P.

Rock Hill, Feb. 5--A series of reviews and ~~xxxx~~ discussions of books dealing with international problems, presented by the International Relations committee of the Rock Hill American Association of University Women, will begin with a review by Pres. Henry R. Sims of Winthrop college, at 8 p.m., Tuesday, February 11 in the auditorium of Johnsonian hall.

President Sims will review Leland Stowe's "While Time Remains". Mr. Stowe is a newspaperman and Pulitzer Prize winner. Of his book, the Saturday Review of Literature says, "...a book which every literate American over the age of 16 should read very soon..."

Mrs. Austin Venable, chairman of the International Relations committee, announced that books for all the programs, to which the ~~public~~ public is invited, have been selected with the help of outstanding specialists in the field.

Reviewers for future weekly meetings will include Dr. ~~xxxx~~ Hampton Jarroll, of the college English department; Mrs. R. E. Barron, Jr., of Rock Hill; Mrs. Dorothy Forsythe of the college home economics department; Miss Margaret Gregg of the English department; Miss Theima Albright of Queens college, Charlotte, N. C.; and Dr. Harold Wolfe of Winthrop's history department.

Miss Ruth ~~xx~~ Roettinger is president of the A.A.U.W.
