Army Officer Dies for Liberty

World: Heroes Thousand

Washington, D.C., Feb. 4.—Another hero dies for Liberty. Captain Charles L. Root was killed February 2 in Camp Jackson, while performing duty in the Army. Captain Root was a graduate of the U. S. Military Academy. He was operating a telephone station on the border, after the conclusion of the American Telephone Company. The young man among the best of his class at the Military Academy, he was commissioned as a second lieutenant and assigned to the Camp Milla.

The wedding ceremony over the long distance telephone was announced by friends of the wedding. The bride was Miss Adeline Pennington, of the House of B. J. Bridge, Ga., to whom he was married. During three years, he served at Camp Milla, after he learned that he was about to be stationed to the border. He was dressed in the army suit, and the long train hung gracefully from his handsome row. The table had a center of white roses and ferns.

MAYOR SMITH HELD ON CONTEMPT CHARGE

Philadelphia Refuses to Produce Arrest Warrant

Philadelphia, Oct. 6.—Governor Smith today held on contempt of court charges, in connection with the closing of the Central Park, in the District Court of Philadelphia. It was charged that the Central Park, in violation of an order of the court, had continued to sell beer and other alcoholic beverages to patrons of the park. The court had ordered the Central Park to cease the sale of alcoholic beverages, and the governor was held on contempt of court charges for failing to comply with the order.
