

Winthrop News 1947

Winthrop News and Events Archive

2-7-1947

Winthrop Young Women's Christian Association, Feb. 7, 1947

Winthrop News Service

Winthrop College News Service
February 7, 1947

IMMEDIATE

RELEASE

(Feb. 7, 1947)

Handwritten initials: W.P.

Rock Hill, Feb. 7¹⁹⁴⁷—With a large number of students, faculty members, and visiting speakers actively engaged in the program, the seventh annual Religious Emphasis week at Winthrop college will be held February 16-20, on the general theme, "That I May Serve".

The Winthrop Young Women's Christian association and the denominational groups have invited out-of-town speakers to conduct services. They include the Rev. C. Leslie Glenn, St. John's church, Washington, the YWCA representative; the Rev. William E. Denham, First Baptist church, Macon, Ga.; the Rev. Warner Hall, Second Presbyterian church, Charlotte, N. C.; Miss Carol Jackson, ~~Integrity~~ Integrity Publishing company, New York City, the Catholic representative; the Rev. M. George Henry, Christ Episcopal church, Charlotte, N. C., and the Rev. Paul Hardin, Wesley Memorial Methodist, church, High Point, N. C.

The week's schedule will include daily morning watch services, noon convocations, afternoon seminars, vesper services, faculty forums, and dormitory parleys. Local ministers and denominational student workers will assist as advisers and parley leaders.

Dr. Herman L. Frick, ~~of the Winthrop faculty~~ director of teacher education at Winthrop, will be the faculty chairman for the week. Betty Leathers, senior of Roanoke Rapids, N. C., will be the student chairman.

Student committee heads who have helped formulate plans for Religious Emphasis week are Helen Alexander, Bishopville; Catherine Roof, Vale, N. C.; Mary Georgia Lewis, Fairfax; Sarah Hardin, Greenville; Jean Fair, ~~Orangeburg~~ Orangeburg; Helen Hogue, Rock Hill; Lillian Dukes, Orangeburg; Dell Eady, Hemingway; and Jane Gardiner, Florence.

Handwritten note: (over)