Entered at the Postoffice at Chester, S. C. as a second-class matter requested for the abatement of the franchise which would allow the farmers to pay part of their 1920 taxes in January and the remainder later in the year, the postponement being desired because of the financial situation due to the low price of cotton.

COOPER WILL NOT CALL SPECIAL SESSION

Neither Will He Issue Proclamation Calling on Farmers to Close Down For Thirty Days

Columbia, Oct. 28.—Governor Cooper today stated that he would not call a special session of the legislature, as requested in a resolution adopted by the cotton association here yesterday, and he also stated that he would not issue a proclamation calling on the farmers to close down for a period of 30 days. The special session of the legislature requested for the abatement of the franchise which would allow the
farmers to pay part of their 1920 taxes
in January and the remainder later in the year, the postponement being desired
to the low price of cotton.

Rock Hill Herald. It was unusually quiet in police circles, considering the big crowds of yesterday. There was little or no disorderly conduct, and this was not a pleasant surprise, as it was generally expected that the big crowds of yesterday would require the aid of the police. The numerous friends of Rock Hill will be glad to hear that the state government is being transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference, has been sent to the pastor of the Tryon Street Methodist church, Charlotte. This is one of the most important changes in the conference. Her many friends will rejoice to learn that Mrs. David Hutchinson, who has been ill for ten days, will soon be at home, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. McKewen, continues quiet with little fever at the family residence on Hampton street. Yorkville Enquirer. R. E. Steele has declined appointment as a policeman on the force here to which he was elected in a meeting of the town council several weeks ago. Mr. Steele, who is now a member of the Charlotte police force has been elected Chief of Police. J. Cal Steele has been elected to the place here because of the fact that he prefers his present work to night duty. It is expected that he should be here soon. The police department of the town will make further efforts to get another officer bringing up "Burr" Parr, former transfer driver of Rock Hill, arrested several days ago and lodged in jail here charged with bigamy. He has been released by Magistrate Nicholson at Camden. On bond in the sum of $1,000. Parr who has a wife and child, a young woman of Kershaw county this summer while she was a student at the summer school for boys at Winthrop College. He was later arrested after he had joined the United States Navy and was brought to jail at York. From the jail at Camden. York county Methodist ministers will preach their final sermons. The present church at Rock Hill is being prepared for the meeting of the Upper South Carolina Conference which is to be held in November next week. Rev. J. E. Mahaffey, of York, and Rev. H. W. Whitton, of Clover will on Sunday conclude four years' service at their respective churches and their tales of the conference cannot be returned to their present parishes. A bonus of 40 per cent was announced by the Cannon Manufacturing Company last Friday by the management, the reduction in effect November 30. The bonus closed at present because of market conditions, suspension of operation dating from last Friday for a period of ten days. Employees estimate that the bonus reduction of 40 per cent amounts to a straight wage reduction of about 20 per cent. E. A. Stevenson, of York No. 6, was paid $100 for his services at the York county fair at Rock Hill when a horse which he was driving on his race track there fell upon him. His race track there fell upon him. Injuries were not of a serious nature. Mr. J. Donson Witherspoon, formerly of York county and now a resident of Westminster, Decease resident, was a visitor here last week. Mr. Witherspoon was carrying a broken arm, the result of injuries sustained while cracking a Ford, "lained while cracking a Ford."

Conditions Among Churches in Europe Told by Rev. Mr. Good—Synod in Session.

Winchester, Va., Oct. 27.—The theological association, an auxiliary of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed Church, in session here today reported that through its efforts salaries of about sixty pastors of the church have been increased, the advance actually aggregating $17,020 annually.

of the court house door the two tracts of land formerly owned by A. B. Oxford, deceased, containing 151 1/2 acres, more or less, at an upset price of $40 per acre. Falling in offering a sale of the whole tract at that price, he will offer tract 1, 151 1/2 acres, more or less, at an upset price of $40 per acre, containing 84 acres at an upset price of not less than $35.00 per acre, and tract 2 containing 67 1/2 acres at an upset price of not less than $50.00 an acre.

This is a fine proposition, and under ordinary conditions the property would sell for double the amount both tracts join and are divided by the Wilkburg and Lowryville public ways. It is seven miles from Chester, and one mile south of the Great Cross Roads near Armenia, Chester. It is a fine farm in a fine community; lies well for cultivation, and the land owned has a six-room house, big barn, well and other improvements on it, which is worth more than the purchase price. The first tract has a house, well and other improvements, and both have fine orchards. The crops that are now standing on the land shows that they are to a fine state of cultivation.

The terms of sale are $200 payable to the Clerk when the bid is received and the balance within three days. The title is good, and the sale is for partition among the heirs.

This is a business proposition worth investigating. For further information see the Clerk of Court, or W. H. Newbold, attorney for plaintiffs; Glenn, Glenn & Glenn and H. L. Hughes, attorneys for defendants.
