Young Men, call and see the new Kuppenheimer sport suits they are showing at The S. M. Jones Co.

Apparently the shophmen went out on strike at Hickory, N. C., at the same time the strike was called on other railroads throughout the country, have lost their fight. It will be recalled that the Hickory shophmen who work for the Carolina & North-Western Railway, were not affected by the ruling of the labor board's decision but acted in accordance with the wishes of other striking shophmen. New men were secured by the Carolina & North-Western management and the New Western stands, that none of the old men have as yet been taken back on the job. Some of them have left Hickory, while others have returned to their company. It is stated that the railway company has a full force of men.

Remember—Next Monday night, at the Chester Opera House, Chester shophmen will have an opportunity to see "The Bat," one of the greatest plays of the day. A part of the cast coming to Chester is the original New York cast. The show is absolutely refined and is drawing large crowds in all the cities in which it plays. The admission for the lower boxes: Gallery $1.00; Dress Circle $1.50; Orchestra $2.00, plus war tax.

Mr. John Walker, who recently went to Hickory to work in the Carolina & North-Western Railway has decided to move his family to Hickory.

Let Us See Your Family. We can save you money. Wylie & Co.

About the happiest person. The News reporter has run across in many moons is Joe Jackson, colored, who has been farming on Mr. R. E. Haffner's plantation in the past year. Joe was in The S. M. Jones Company yesterday afternoon selling cotton and when he settled and was handed his money he proceeded to demonstrate his happiness by what one might term a "whooting spell," and he never jumped the fence. He said until he lost his wind and cooled down.

A decided success was the Rally Day at Bethel M. E. church in Church, S. C. This attendance was 527 and a special collection amounted to $255. This money was for the new school building fund, which now amounts to about $4,000, which has been secured from various sources in the church. The school at Bethel has become so large that a new building is almost a necessity and it is hoped that a sufficient amount will be received soon which will enable those in charge to go ahead with the erection of the building, which will join the present church building.

Miss Lucie Cassels spent the weekend in Charlotte with Mrs. B. S. Cassels.

Talk Of The Town: that line of dresses at Wylie's.

Mr. J. L. Simmons, who is very much interested in the Chester County municipality building, has received a check for $100 from Hon. Wm. D. Melton, president of the University of S. Carolina and who was elected as Moderator of the Presbyterian Synod of South Carolina at the special meeting in Chester recently. Mr. Melton is a former resident of Chester and when a young man was in the employ of Mr. Simmons, who took the matter of a contribution to the Community Building up with Mr. Melton personally last week, with the result that a handsome check came forward.

The rest sale for "The Bat" which will be shown at the Chester Opera House next Monday evening, October 16th, will be placed on sale next Friday morning at the Chester Drug Store. This play is decidedly the best that has been to Chester in a long time and it is sure that is being seen by packed houses in the leading cities throughout the country. The company only plays four towns in South Carolina. Greenville, Chester, Columbia and Charleston.

Buy That Boy's winter suit at Wylie's, two pair of pants, it will suit you to see them.

What yesterday appeared to be a "political battle" over the office of local Magistrate has quieted down and it is all probably over. We will now go to Mr. Z. V. Davidson when Magistrate H. H. Shannon's resignation becomes effective. November first. Several names had been suggested for the place and yesterday a "battle" between Mr. Davidson and Mr. S. Churchill Carter was apparently approaching. However, The News understands that Mr. Carter withdrew from the fight leaving the matter to Mr. Davidson. His appointment has already been taken up with Governor Harvey and word from that source is now being looked for.

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination to be held at Chester on November 11th, 1922, to fill the position of rural carrier at Fort Lawn. The minimum salary for carriers is $1,800 per year. The examination is open only to citizens who are actually domiciled in the territory of the postoffice where the vacancy exists. Those who may be called on can secure particulars by writing to Mr. Robt. H. Clowney, at the Chester office.

Many Chester friends and acquaintances learned with sorrow of the death of Colonel J. Rice Smith, father of Mrs. E. P. Calhoun, of Chester, which occurred at Augusta, Ga., this morning at five o'clock. Col. Smith became ill at an o'clock this morning and at five o'clock he passed into the life beyond. He will be pleasantly remembered in Chester as having made an address here at the Confederate Soldiers' Reunion. He was seventy-six years of age. Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Calhoun, Rice Estes and Sarah Goss, grand children of Mr. Smith, left this morning for Augusta to attend the funeral.

Stronger Than the Law shows best work shops on earth. Do not accept a substitute. They can only be had at Wylie's.

The Russian Symphony Orchestra of New York City will be heard at the Chester Opera House tonight under the auspices of the Women's Council of the Chester Chamber of Commerce. The orchestra, consisting of forty-five pieces, will play the music of the past year. Joe was in The S. M. Jones Company yesterday afternoon selling cotton and when he settled and was handed his money he proceeded to demonstrate his happiness by what one might term a "whooting spell," and he never jumped the fence. He said until he lost his wind and cooled down.

A marriage which came as a surprise to many friends was that of Miss Ollie Crowder and Mr. Hugh D. Cochran, which was solemnized at Purly-Prebyterian manse, Sunday morning at six-forty-five o'clock. Dr. Brown, Superintendent of the manse, Mr. Cochran is former manager of Dreamland Theatre and is one of Chester's most popular young men. Mr. Cochran, whose home is in Rome, Ga., has been in Chester for the past year as manager of the Theatre. The wedding party included many friends who came here. Mr. and Mrs. Cochran will go home with Mrs. Kirkland, on Monday.

Mr. William H. Gladden has returned to Asheville after spending two weeks in Chester with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Ghadon, who have been in the city on account of illness.

We Are Having the best Dress Business in our history. Why? Wylie & Co.

Many Chester people are of the opinion that Judge Peurifoy gave notice of the various prohibition cases which were tried before Judge Sease in Picken county last week. In the majority of cases, and there were many, the cases were decided in favor of the bootleggers to the extent of the fine of $1,000.

Mr. W. F. Marion, cotton statistician for Chester county, reported at a meeting in Chester recently that the Chester county had gained 5,620 bales of cotton as compared with 5,350 for the same period last year.

Dr. W. E. Wallace, of Chester, has been elected a member of the State Board of Health to succeed the late Dr. Walker, of York.

Cats, Suits and dresses arriving on every train. We are ready to wear. Wylie & Co. will be pleased to see them.

The H-Y is again in session. At the last meeting the new officers were elected as follows: Vice-President, Colman Hill, Rice-Präsident, Chalmers Davidson, Secretary, James T. Hester. This organization is making a study of the Old Testament characters under the competent management of Mr. Rufus Morgan. It asks for the prayers of the Christian parents.

Great Falls News Items

Great Falls, S. C., Oct. 9.—Little Elizabeth Blackwell, eighteen months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ross Lyon, died of pneumonia Saturday morning. The funeral and burial services were conducted by Rev. J. E. Brown at Roseville Sunday afternoon. We extend to the bereaved family our deepest sympathy.

The Young Woman's Club of Chester will hold its regular monthly meeting on Thursday evening, October 12th, at eight o'clock, in the school on the gridiron. It is hoped that Chester will be well represented at the game and lend their hearty support to the local boys, who showed up exceptionally well in the game with Porter Military Academy, of Charleston, which they met on the local grounds last Friday and in which the score was 25 to 0 in favor of Chester.

TEACHERS' EXAMINATION. The next Teachers' examination for certificates to teach will be held in the Court House First Friday and Saturday in November 1922, the first of which is for the State Board of Education.

W. D. KNOX, Co. Sup't. Education. 10-17.

CARD OF THANKS. We desire to express our heartfelt thanks and appreciation to our neighbors and kind friends (also our colored friends) for their kindness shown us during our sad bereavement. May the good God bless and sustain you in our daily prayers.

CANCELLATION ALLIED DEBTS IS PROPOSED.

Washington, Oct. 9.—Cancellation of allied debts in the United States was proposed unanimously today by three senators, McKinley, republican, Illinois; Spencer, republican, Missouri; and Hester, democrat, Illinois, in discussing their proposals of an extensive tour of Europe where they were American delegates to the Inter-Parliamentary Peace union.

All three agreed on their arrival that there was much suffering and distress in Europe, but that the American government should make no more loans there. They urged on the United States should not seek herself out of her present difficulties.

As the league of nations, the two republican senators differed somewhat from their democratic colleagues. Senators McKinley and Spencer declared that the United States should not be in the league, but Senator Hester said affairs both in Europe and America would be better today if America had become a member at the start.

MANLY TO GANG.

Judge Peurifoy Sends Bootleggers to the Road—Some of Them Got Off With Fines—Much Interest Displayed.

The court house was crowded practically all of last week by many who were anxious to hear the sentences that Judge Peurifoy was to give the various bootleggers, some of which plead guilty and others who were convicted.

The sentences were held over until Friday afternoon and it was then that those in the dock knew just how much time was coming their way.

Those who were caught before August first were allowed to pay a fine in accordance with the agreement made by the Solicitor, but those who were caught after that date were given no alternative and were sent to the roads.

Those sentenced were as follows, all of them being charged with bootlegging:

John Wallace—6 months, or fine of $100.00.
Boss Drummer—6 months, or fine of $100.00.
Carl Wilks—One year, six months, suspended during good behavior.
John McDonald—One year, three months to be suspended during good behavior.
J. H. Featherstone, one year, nine months, suspended.
Howard Hay, six months, or fine of $100.00.
Thomas Young, one year, six months, suspended.
Joe Walker, one year, six months, suspended.

Lizzie Woodward, six months, or fine of $100.00.
John Cornwall, six months, or fine of $100.00.
W. F. Barron and James Paul, one year, six months suspended for former, one year, six months suspended for latter during good behavior.

Gill Robinson, one year, six months, suspended.
Harvey McCullough, six months, or fine of $100.00.
Mattie Hardin, six months, or fine of $100.00.

John McCullough, six months, or fine of $100.00.
Will Coleman, six months, or fine of $100.00.

Those sentenced for other offenses than violation of the prohibition law are as follows:

Gusie Belle Johnson, bigamy, six months, or fine of $500.
Frank Harbin, assault and battery with intent to kill, six months, or fine of $200.
Samuel Moore, assault and battery with intent to kill, eighteen months, or fine of $500.

A sealed copy of the 15-reel motion picture of the life and time of the United States Government and the National Lincoln Memorial Commission for deposit in Washington until the 50th anniversary of Lincoln's birth, February 12, 1909. With the film is offered a motion-picture machine, with full instructions how to operate it, the entire gift to be sealed in a steel vault. Directions are necessary because of the changes certain to come in projection practice.

Creo-pine Shingles Show a Smaller Upkeep Cost than any other form of Roofing

Wooden shingles when properly treated are the ideal roofing material.

By the high power hydraulic process of creosoting Creo-pine shingles the undiluted creosote oil thoroughly penetrates the pores of the wood. Moisture, rains, frost, or sun cannot cause decay or rot.

Nails driven into untreated shingles rust and wear loose causing leaks in the roof. Nails driven in Creo-pine shingles do not rust and hold firmly for many years.

Roofs of Creo-pine shingles have been in service for fifteen years with no upkeep whatever, and at the end of that time were in good condition.

Creo-pine shingles are very little, if any, higher than heart pine shingles, cheaper than red cedar shingles and composition roofing and last much longer. They are cleaner to handle than dipped shingles and make a neat, attractive slate roof appearance.

Call on us and let us tell you all about the Creo-Pine Shingles.

Twenty-eight years in South Carolina—23 years of value giving to the public—23 years of fair and square dealing—Mr. Schlosberg invites the public to attend Chester's greatest merchandising triumph.

Schlosberg Staging Great Merchandising Sensation

H. L. SCHLOSBERG is launching one of the best and biggest sales of up-to-date, reasonable merchandise for men, women and children, ever known here. Mr. Schlosberg, proprietor of this well-known store, and who enjoys the patronage of people from Chester and all surrounding territory, wishes to state to the public that this is truly a wonderful saving event and he cordially invites the public to come and inspect the wonderful values to be offered during this Carnival of Bargains.

Mr. Schlosberg has been very fortunate in securing such big concessions on high grade merchandise, and that's why this sale is possible. The public will receive the benefit of our lucky purchases from the big wholesalers and manufacturers. And Mr. Schlosberg wishes to state again that the same policy that has always been carried by this store will prevail throughout the sale. Any unsatisfactory purchases will be adjusted to satisfy the customer. Fair and square dealing is the motto of this store, regardless of sale or no sale. We do not conduct sales to the public unless we have got the merchandise to back it, and at the latest styles, fashions and fads, and at prices that are the lowest ever offered here.

We expect very large crowds from Chester, and we certainly expect our out-of-town customers and friends to come and visit our greatest showing of bargains since our establishment in this city.

The arrangement and decorations and displays of the beautiful lines of wearing apparel is under the direction of an expert decorator, and will be worth coming miles, to see. This event will be long remembered after the final curtains are drawn. Please give this sale your closest consideration, and note the many values advertised in the advertisement. There is no obligation for visiting the sale, so be sure to come and see for yourself. Thank you. H. L. SCHLOSBERG.

Glad Chester Pastor Has Accepted

It was our privilege to preach for our first church people in Charlotte last Sabbath and be present at the rally and promotion day exercises in the Sabbath school. It had twelve elders and quite a number of deacons. The people are delighted that Dr. Phillips has accepted their call and will take up the work about the first of November. Rev. E. F. Griffith will moderate the call next Sabbath. There will also be an orchestra and installation of deacons on that day. The officers of this church have a beautiful custom of assembling in the pastor's study a few minutes before the beginning of each service and invoking the divine blessing upon the minister and the service about to be held. We commend this custom to other sessions. Their pastors will preach better—Associate Reform Presbyterian.

INVITE GREEK ARMY TO EVACUATE THRACE

London, Oct. 7.—An official communique was issued late tonight after a full cabinet meeting, recommending at 9:30 o'clock to consider a long dispatch from Lord Curzon at Paris.

"Mr. Poincare and Lord Curzon reached an agreement this afternoon that the Greek army should be invited to evacuate eastern Thrace on the understanding that the allies should occupy the evacuated territory for a period of 30 days from the date of the completion of the evacuation of the Greek forces, in order to guarantee the safety of the non Turkish population.

"This agreement now must be presented to the Turkish representative at Madania on the understanding that effect thereto will only be given if the Turkish representative accept the remaining conditions laid down in the allied note of September 23, particularly respecting the Bosporus on both sides of the Bosphorus and the Dardanelles."

TUCKER HELD IN ABDUCTION CASE

Charged With Complicity With Jenkins in Whipping King, He Holds Trial in Florida and Is Transferred to Auditor for Charles Broadway House.

Winston-Salem, Oct. 7.—F. A. Tucker, credit man and traveling auditor for Charles Broadway House, of New York city, whose home is at Palatka, Fla., is in jail here in default of a $5,000 bond, charged with complicity with S. L. Jenkins, of this city, in the recent Taylorville assault and kidnapping case, in which Margaret Jones, alias "Ma", Charles E. Webb and Jenkins were taken from an automobile and the girl given violent treatment.

Evidence implicating Tucker in the conspiracy was secured a day or two ago by J. C. Gold, acting for the Ku Klux Klan national organization, which is actively prosecuting a thorough investigation of the affair because the perpetrators adopted the regalia of the Klan to further their scheme.

The warrant upon which Tucker was arrested was issued from Alexander county.

It is reported that an inventor after 13 years of experimenting has succeeded in producing unbreakable glass. Some of the tests are throwing plates from a height of 30 feet to the ground, raising a temperature of 750 degrees and driving a nail into wood with a cup. This means the saving of thousands of dollars each year in hotel equipment.

TO THOSE INTERESTED IN RADIO

The approaching six months will probably bring with them favorable weather for the reception of the extensive radio programs that are being constantly broadcasted all over our great country of ours, and they are free to all those who are equipped for their reception.

Just think of it being possible to sit around your own fireside and hear the foremost musicians, speakers and other entertainments such as market reports, sporting news and a little more ballistics or you can buy your set already made and installed in your parlor or sitting room. In either case it will pay you in dollars and cents to consult someone who has had actual experience along that line and not pay too much attention to the propaganda that is being constantly dished out to the public.

If you are going to buy outright buy a standard make of apparatus that you can rely on or any standard parts from a carefully prepared list; in other words standard apparatus whether already assembled or not will only save you money but will reduce your possibilities of failure to the minimum.

About a year ago like thousands of others became intensely interested in the subject and have used every available means to post myself and as thoroughly as possible and since then have had considerable experience from both a theoretical and practical standpoint and the information that I have gained is for the benefit of any who may be interested. I am an authorized dealer in this locality for several of the most popular lines of Radio apparatus on the market in both equipped apparatus and parts.

I will be glad to give any reasonable demonstration either in your own home or at some accessible point in your neighborhood where there is sufficient interest expressed. Provided that it does not interfere with my regular duties.

I will appreciate a liberal share of your patronage.

Yours for service,
J. M. BELL.

SHIPS MUST STOP HAULING LIQUOR

Washington, Oct. 7.—The government today drew up regulations providing in effect that General Daugherty's ruling that American ships can neither sell nor transport liquor anywhere, and that the same prohibition applies to foreign vessels within the three-mile limit.

At the same time Albert D. Lasker, chairman of the shipping board and Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, acting by direction of President Harding, took preliminary steps to enforce the regulations. Lasker notified the operators of all shipping board vessels that the sale of liquor on board must be stopped immediately, while Secretary Mellon notified owners and operators of other American vessels.

Secretary Mellon also notified foreign shipping interests of the decision which, by order of the President, will not become effective in their case until October 15.

Will Sorghum Poison Livestock?

A Reader asks: "Will orange cane or sorghum kill or injure horses or cattle in any way?"

Under certain conditions the sorghums sometimes develop a deadly (or even acid) in such quantities to kill livestock that set even a small quantity of the plants. It is also claimed that Sudan grass and Johnson grass, which are non-saccharine (not sweet) sorghums, also sometimes develop this poison, that is, they probably say to state that the sweet sorghums more frequently develop the poison than do the non-saccharine sorghums, although it is comparatively rare that any of them poison livestock.

The poison seems more likely to develop in the second growth, especially if this second growth is stunted by dry weather or other causes. In fact, a stunted growth, or injury of the growth from any cause, seems to favor the development of the poison. It is rare, if it ever occurs, that it is fatal to any animal when it makes a free, or rapid, or natural growth.

There is no record, so far as we can find, of sorghum made into hay or silage injuring livestock in this way.

It is so rare that poison develops in sorghums that it is doubtful if this should lessen the growth or use of this excellent forage crop for the South. But when the growth is stunted and especially when the second growth which comes on after it has been cut once is stunted in any way, care should be exercised in grazing such stunted growth while it is green. It should not be grazed under such conditions unless first tried out with an animal of little value. Possibly the best plan is not to pasture at all, but to cut the sorghum and wait until it starts growing freely again or to make it into hay.—The Progressive Farmer.

ORANGEBURG NEGRO DIES FROM WOUNDS

Cornor's Jury Absolves Officers Who Shot Negro—(A.P.)

Orangeburg, Oct. 8.—John Gover, negro bricklayer, died of wounds inflicted last Sunday by George W. Dukes and J. W. Spears, local officers, when they played fast and loose in the New Brookland suburb of Orangeburg. Gover had been drunk all day Sunday, provoking his community by shooting his pistol, refusing to let some negroes go to church, took a foreign matter was carried into the streets, tried to enter some of a woman who was hit, pulled the trigger of his pistol while he pointed it at a negro, but it had been fired out. As the sign was beyond the city limits Magistrate Blackston, Constable Dukes and Special Officer Spears went to the home of Gover, called to him to come out, telling him who they were and Gover came out with his double barrel gun and levelled it at the officers. About the time Officer Dukes fired a load of buckshot from his Officer, Spears fired a pistol ball through the fleshy part of the stomach.

The wounds were not in themselves sufficient to cause death, but some foreign matter was carried into the body by a bullet, which developed an infection, and caused death. The coroner's jury found that the negro came to his death from wounds inflicted by Officers Dukes and Spears in the discharge of their duty.

COURT RESTRAINS MARRIAGE FARMER

Must Sell Cotton Through Co-operative Body. Injunction Granted Yesterday by Judge T. J. Mauldin at Columbia.

Columbia, S. C.—An injunction restraining John R. Pope of Marlboro county from disposing of any of his cotton except through the South Carolina Cotton Growers' Co-operative association was served upon Mr. Pope at this home, some eight miles from Charleston, yesterday, it was announced last night by officials of the South Carolina Cotton Growers' Co-operative association.

The injunction was granted by Judge T. J. Mauldin in Columbia yesterday on a preliminary filed by Duane McKay, state counsel of the co-operative association, alleging that Mr. Pope had disposed of some cotton, which, it was alleged, he had contracted to sell through the association. The complaint alleged that Mr. Pope had sold some cotton at Charleston to J. E. Evans of Bennettsville is associated with Mr. McKay in the case.

Officials of the association stated last night that Mr. Pope was the only member out of the over 17,000 members of the association that it has been forced to bring legal proceedings against. "Get another allegation of violation of the contract has been made," it was said.

Under the provisions of the special act passed at the 1921 session of the general assembly any member of the association violating the contract is liable to a penalty of five cents a pound on all cotton sold outside of the association.

"A great majority of the farmers who signed the contract did so because of misleading features," said Harry K. Cochran, president and general manager of the association, last night. "There is practically a unanimous sentiment among the members that the association vigorously enforce the contract and that every provision of the special act be taken advantage of in its enforcement. This we propose to do."

In Oklahoma cases were recently brought against several local producers of the contract. One of the members has voluntarily paid the five cents a pound penalty and all of them have been restrained from selling any cotton except through the association. Arkansas has reported the violation of the contract and Georgia one.

PSYCHOLOGY

By H. Addington Bruce. Many people, I find, are narrowly identifying psychotherapy with psychoanalysis. This is, perhaps not surprising, in view of the extent to which public attention is being focused on psychoanalysis nowadays. But it is important to recognize that psychoanalysis is actually only one mode or method of psychotherapy, which may briefly yet sufficiently be defined as the treatment of disease by mental means. Such treatment, it is not amiss to add, is far and away the oldest form of medicine.

It was practiced by primitive man long before treatment of disease by surgery was dreamed of. To our earliest ancestral sickness was an affliction imposed by angry or malevolent spiritual beings. We placate them, or to invoke the aid of well-disposed spirits; various ceremonial rites were developed, and magic was made by the tribal "medicine man."

This was psychotherapy in its first crudest phase. When it "worked," as psychologists nowadays know well, it was practiced by the impressionist who produced in the minds of those for whose benefit it was undertaken, their belief in its efficacy liberating them in their energy adequate to overcome the disease by which they had been attacked. The same holds true as regards the various "faith cures" of modern psychotherapy in its vague, unscientific phase. When it "worked," as psychologists nowadays know well, it was practiced by the impressionist who produced in the minds of those for whose benefit it was undertaken, their belief in its efficacy liberating them in their energy adequate to overcome the disease by which they had been attacked. The same holds true as regards the various "faith cures" of modern psychotherapy in its vague, unscientific phase.

It is too genuinely useful to be completely ousted. But there undoubtedly will come, as there should, clearer appreciation of the types of patients for whom it is appropriate and the types that will best respond to the more erudite methods of the psychoanalyst and their scientific kin. This is the pathway of real progress in the psychoneurotic field.

"Slimy Taste"

"When I first stopped, got constipated, or bilious, I take a good dose or two of Black-Draught and it sets me straight," writes Mr. George Halstead, of R. F. D. 2, Columbia, S. C. "It cleanses the liver and I feel all right, and have not used any other medicine as I do not see the need of it. I am a guard at the State Reformatory, and have been for three or more years. When I first heard of

BLACK-DRAUGHT

Liver Medicine

and the good medicine it was, I had been having a tired feeling when I'd get up in the morning. I would be stiff and sore, and had a slimy, bad taste in my mouth, but didn't think so much of it till I began to feel sluggish and didn't feel like eating. Then I knew I needed medicine. It was then I began Black-Draught, and I felt all made over, ready for any kind of work, ready to eat and sleep. So, for any return of this trouble, I take Black-Draught, and for 25 years it has been my medicine, and I wouldn't be without it at all. My work is constant. I am on my feet a lot. I am not 50 years, and fresh air and Black-Draught are all the medicines I need. I recommend it to others for I know it is good."
