THE BIG SHOWS ARE COMING

Metropolitan Shows to be at Fair—Surrounding Counties Are Interested in Chester Fair—New Exhibits Will Give Up Possible Speakers To Be Here.

(By The Chamber of Commerce.) With the abundant yield of crops in this section this year and the increased interest in live stock raising, the exhibits of agriculture, cattle, hogs, etc., at the Chester fair will not only exceed by far those of previous years but will be such scope as to contain any exhibit of this character anywhere in this part of the state. Unusual interest is being shown this year in the coming fair not only in this county but the surrounding counties, and after a tour of a large part of an adjoining county last week, Secretary Flood recommended the opening of the premium list for cattle, wine and sheep to the entire section instead of to this county alone.
 A number of counties had previously been made for this county from other counties and the establishment of a fair would secure the largest display of cattle, wine and sheep ever seen in this section.

Death of Mr. W. W. Coogler.

It was sad news to the many friends of Mr. W. W. Coogler to learn of his death which occurred at his home on Saluda street, Sunday at noon, after a short illness of about a week. The interment was made in Evergreen cemetery yesterday after services at the First Baptist church by the pastor, Rev. A.
 Bagby, D. D. at which a large concourse of friends were present.

That a number of people in Chester county are violating the quarantine law is believed by the general public. Whether or not this fact can be established is another matter altogether. However, the fact will never be established unless an effort is made toward that end.

It is a sad condition of affairs that when a law is passed on the books that law should be enforced and if it is not going to be enforced, it should be repealed.

The law states that a person must file an affidavit to the effect that the liquor wanted is for medicinal purposes. We do not believe that half the whiskey now coming into Chester is for medicinal purposes. If we are wrong in our opinion then it can be admitted that Chester county is one of the most unwholesome in the world.

Effective in England, November first, motoring for pleasure is prohibited by law under a heavy penalty.

A few people in this country are beginning to wonder if the same law is going to be taken by our government. There is a large probability that within a few months you will not be allowed to take out that automobile for a joy-ride. The government of the United States has already twice called the attention of the public to the matter of joy-riding. Gamble is not as pleasant as it was some years ago, and then it is absolutely necessary that the war departments have a large supply of this fuel for various purposes, especially for the airplanes.

Notwithstanding the fact that the government has a large supply of owners attention to joy-riding, there has been no indication that there has been any let up in the pleasure riding. Every fellow appears to be waiting for the other fellow to be gun.

At the present time the government is issuing warnings and unless we obey these warnings, within a few months we are going to be doing things we have never dreamed of in the past.

CREAMERY MEETING NEXT MONDAY.

The stockholders of the Chester Creamery Company were called to meet at the office of the Chester Chamber of Commerce on last Monday morning, but owing to an unavoidable delay in the mailing out of the notice of the meeting only a few were present and the meeting adjourned until next Monday at the same hour and place.

A majority of the stock has been placed and the notice of the meeting is to elect officers, and to attend to such matters as are necessary to get the business under way.
 Last week Mr. E. B. Calvert went to Columbia as a representative of the Chester Creamery and together with representatives of the Orange, burg and Darlington Creameries and Dr. W. W. Lane of the Agricultural Department of the United States Government organized the Palmetto Cooperative Creameries with a capital stock of $10,000.00. The company will be the selling agent of the three creameries named. Mr. Camp Jackson, and will manufacture the milk to be furnished by the three creameries into ice cream for the soldiers at Camp Jackson. This will make the Chester Creamery a successful business from the beginning. If you are a subscriber to the Chester Creamery, be sure to attend the meeting next Monday at the Chamber of Commerce at 31½ North Main street, and if you are not a subscriber to this important new enterprise, see one of the proprietors at once and get in line. It means more and better cows to Chester County, it means "better lands" to Chester County, it means more money for the farmers and merchants of Chester County.

SOLDIER KILLS SELF AT GREENVILLE CAMP

Rufus Kearney, whose home was in Dillon, takes his own life at camp.

Greenville, Oct. 22.—Rufus Kearney, Company F, One Hundred and Nineteenth Infantry, whose home is in Dillon, committed suicide this morning at Camp Greer by cutting his throat with a razor.

Kearney appeared at roll call this morning, and also at mess, though he "rested" that he was sick and did not do anything. He was found about an hour after mess in a dying condition. He resided in the National Guards July 23, his age at that time being given as 28. His only living relative is his mother, Mrs.
 Sarah G. Kearney, whose home is in Dillon. Mental derangement is given as the cause of the act, Kearney having been under observation on this account for some time.

RUSSIA'S POSITION SHAKY.

London, Oct. 21.—The parliamentary correspondent of The Sunday Express writes that the position of Russia is becoming increasingly precarious. The Russian government has been unable to raise the necessary money to meet its expenses. The Russian people are becoming more and more discontented with the government. The Russian army is suffering from lack of food and clothing. The Russian navy is also suffering from lack of supplies. The Russian government is in a very difficult position.

DORT

Facts that Count

The mastery performance of the Dort engine is achieved at a cost so low as to challenge comparison under any condition.

That fact has been proved by official competitive tests—very well as by every-day-in-service records.

Dort popularity is due largely to this fact—without waste and to the flexibility, reliability and smooth, quiet running of its capable motor.

The looks, comfort, convenience, simplicity and driving qualities of the Dort are equally gratifying.

We are requested to state that the Civic League will meet at the Chamber of Commerce Thursday afternoon 7 o'clock. Members are urged to be present.

Private—Earl Babby, of Camp Jackson, spent Sunday in Chester with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Babby.

Private—W. K. Sanders, of Camp Jackson, spent the week-end in the city with relatives.

Mr. J. M. Spach has purchased the No. 12 house on Ponce street, and will move into same this week.

Mr. C. K. Kraft, Wagner admiral, was on vacation at the Chester Sanatorium yesterday morning and his many friends will be pleased to meet him in the morning at the sanatorium.

In speaking of the barbecue at the Baldwin Mills Saturday, a well-known farmer of the county stated that he had been to twenty picnics and barbecues but that he had never seen anything that would equal the one at the Baldwin Mills Saturday. "They certainly did make a fellow feel at home," he said.

A record breaking crowd was in town Saturday and trade with the merchants is reported as most excellent. Cotton brought from 28 to 28 1/4 cents and about 350 bales were sold on the local market. The farmers of the county appear to be satisfied with the present. Chester is a market, which is one of the best in the State.

F. A. Moxley and his wife of the Wylie Mill section of Chester county were here Saturday with cotton. Mr. Moxley reports the cotton crop short in his section, but more food stuff than ever.—Rock Hill Record.

A reporter for The News saw a new whiskey price list a few days ago, and take it from us, the war prices on whiskey are worse than those on shoes and hats. In some cases, the whiskey dealers are dipping the use of the mills for distributing their surplus. They are certainly filling the liquor cauldrons with advertising matter.

The United States government advises that it is in need of ten thousand stenographers, typewriters, and clerks ranging from $1,000 to $1,200 per year. Those in this community who might be interested should see Mr. Oberdorf, at the local post-office.

Mr. G. A. Dobbin, 56 Rock Hill who was injured at the Seaboard Air Line Railway crossing at the Barns-Cotton Mill, several months ago, has succeeded in reversing the verdict that was rendered against him by a York county jury last December. The Supreme court has sent the case back for another trial.

Saturday Sheriff Anderson received a telephone message to the lock-out for six soldiers who had deserted Camp Hancock, near Augusta, Ga., and who had stolen an automobile and were headed this way. The sheriff, of Fairfield county, had also been notified about the soldiers but they had passed Wintomb by that time, however, a few miles this side of Wintomb the car broke down and upon learning of the fact Sheriff Maizey, of Wintomb, caught the men and arrested them. The soldiers were members of a Pennsylvania regiment.

Telegraphic orders Saturday to all manufacturers and distributors of sugar to cease selling the commodity to confectioners and syrup and luxury manufacturers have been issued by Administrator Hoover in an effort to reduce consumption in the plant area south of Savannah and west of Pittsburgh and expedite the arrival of sufficient quantities of beet sugar into the sections of the country which now face famine. It is estimated that 45 per cent of the sugar of the country has gone into so-called luxuries, including candy, soft drinks, cake frosting, etc.

The new iron bridge between here and Fort Mill is being pushed to completion as rapidly as possible. All of the piers have been completed except the one on the Fort Mill side, which will be built, as soon as the iron spans are placed, which is now being done. The change is being made on this side of the bridge from the abutment up to the Cherry road. The superintendent of construction at the bridge says he is handicapped by inability to secure sufficient laborers.—Rock Hill Record.

Maybe there are some people who do not think serious of a court martial but it is certainly calculated to lame a fellow down. A few days ago a soldier in the Spartanburg, S. C., military police, in Spartanburg, was drunk and proceeded to use his first name as a civilian. He was duly tried and the sentence he received is as follows: "To be confined at hard labor at such place as the reviewing authority may direct. He may not go to or forfeit two-thirds of his pay for one month for a like period."

Mr. C. E. Wagner, manager of Dreamland Theatre, announces that owing to the war law he will be forced to raise the price of admission to the theatre on November 1st. The present prices of five and ten cents will, after the above date, be ten and fifteen cents. With each new cent admission the theatre owners pay the government one cent and with a fifteen cent admission the government gets two cents.

There will be no special trains operated to the State Fair in Columbia this year owing to the supply of coaches being used by the government in the handling of troops. However, we understand the regular trains in and out of Columbia will have extra coaches but just how many we are unable to state. It will also be recalled that no special rates have been listed by the railroads for this year, as is the usual custom.

There are many long faces around the Southern Express office lately. The price of old "hoops" has gone out of sight and apparently a number of Chester artists are not yet familiar with the fact, hence in ordering their suits they remark the usual amount and instead of receiving a quart they get a pint for the old price. About the cheapest liquor a fellow can get these days is $1.00 per quart and when you add the express and cost of certificate to make the "five-trip" cost $2.10 per quart. One fellow ordered a quart Saturday and stated that if it was not for sickness he certainly would be a doctor. The next time he has any sickness in the family "I'm sure going to try something else."

Be warned—You are not John A. Peay before you sell your beef cattle, hogs, hides etc. Will pay best market prices. Fr.

The Palmist Book Club will meet with Mr. T. G. Phillips Friday afternoon at four o'clock.

All parties in Haswood township, who have subscribed to the Red Cross fund are requested to leave their subscriptions at Mr. W. A. Olanahan's store this week.

Among those who are attending a meeting of Bethel Presbytery, at old Birch church, in Lancaster county, tonight are Rev. W. E. Brown, Rev. W. S. Hamilton, W. L. McCroskey, P. Boyd and Jas. W. Bankhead.

Special Notice—We have moved to the Citizens National Bank stand, in the Agura building, near the Chester Drug Store, where we will be located pending the erection of our new building, and where we will be glad for our friends and patrons to call. The National Exchange

THOMAS-JONES

One of the prettiest weddings of the autumn season was celebrated at noon Saturday, at the home of Mrs. S. D. Scarborough, when her niece, Miss Hazel Thomas, became the bride of S. P. Jones.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. T. W. Walsh, rector of St. Marks Episcopal church, of this city, in the presence of a large coterie of friends and relatives of the young couple.

The home was decorated throughout the ceremony room being in bridal white and green, tall ferns and growing plants forming a back ground of green against which quantities of white roses in tall vases and numerous burning candles in tall candelabra, unadorned, cast a soft glow over the room. In one corner of the room an arch had been arranged of southern smilax and white roses under which the bride and groom stood for the ceremony.

Mrs. H. V. Knight, on the piano and Mrs. E. E. Moby on the violin rendered "Al Dawning", just before the ceremony. At the appointed hour the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin Wagner, played by the above named, heralded the approach of the wedding party. Miss Lucile Caswell, of Chester, and Sallie Burris, of Wilmington, N. C. in white tulle dresses were the bridesmaids, carrying shepherd crooks with boxes of pink tulle and pink carnations. They were first to enter and opened the gates. Those who followed the other bridesmaids, Misses Nettie Edin and Dorothy Beery, of Wilmington, S. C. carried the bride, wearing costumes of pink tulle and tulle veil and carried the bride's train with the pink tulle and pink carnations. They were followed by the groomsmen, Will A. Lattimer, of Chester, and Harry King, of Portsmouth, Va. They came Mary Ellen Davis, a dainty little tot in white net wearing a tiny white veil and carrying a dainty white basket in which the wedding ring was hidden among white rose petals. The room and the best man, M. M. Brev, entered from the side door at the same time the bride on the arm of her maid of honor, her sister, Miss Annie Thomas, of Wilmington, N. C. came in and the bride and groom taking their places before the officiating minister. Where the beautiful ring ceremony was performed during which time "To A Wild Rose" McDowell, was softly played.

The bride wore a handsome gown of white crepe meteor, with court train of georgette crepe embroidered in pearl and pink. Her tulle veil was fashioned of egg style and was held in place with orange blossoms and pearls worn by her mother and aunt in their wedding day. To complete his lovely costume a shower bouquet of bride's roses abounded with valleys of pink and green. The maid of honor was handsomely gowned in green tulle over pink, wearing a short green veil of tulle and carried in immense bouquet of pink Kentucky rosebuds.

Immediately after the ceremony a delightful reception was held. In the hall Mesdames E. P. Calhoun and H. S. Heyman received. The hall was very attractive in its decorations of pink and green. Food plates were arranged with pretty effect and intermingled with tall vases of pink cut flowers. The dining room was charming in white and pink. Here Mesdames J. W. Fletcher, F. M. Lashburn, A. W. Davis and Mrs. W. Dove, presided. A two course luncheon was served by Misses Marie Hutton, Ovey Corlick, Bonnie Laid, and Mrs. Mary Jones. Dainty accessories of cups were given the guests.

The gift room, which was rich in its decorations of autumn flowers, was a popular resort, for there were many and elegant gifts to be seen. Receiving here were Mesdames T. M. Douglas and Joe Terry.

Mrs. Jones wore a traveling suit of taupe, with hats, shoes and gloves to match. The young couple slipped away for a wedding-trip and on Tuesday will be in Wilmington, N. C. where Miss Annie Thomas, the bride's sister, who was her maid of honor, will be married to Harry King, of Portsmouth, Va., and Mrs. Jones will be her sister-in-law, wearing her wedding dress.

Mrs. Jones is a daughter of Mrs. H. C. Harrison, Bassom; R. 4. She has had her home with her aunt, Mrs. S. D. Scarborough for the past few years, and is one of Chester's most attractive and popular young ladies.
