Opening its program with the Overture to "The Marriage of Figaro" by Mozart, the National Symphony orchestra, under the baton of Hans Kindler, will play at Winthrop college at 8 o'clock tonight in the new auditorium.

The remainder of the concert, the seventh in Winthrop's artists course series for this year, will include "Symphony in D minor" by Cesar Franck, Suite from the ballet "Gayaneh" by Khachaturyan, and "Capriccio Espagnol" by Rimsky-Korsakov.

The National Symphony orchestra, now in its 16th season, will make its first appearance here tonight since before the war. Tickets will be on sale at the box office.
