A BOND CONFERENCE IN WASHINGTON.

A bond conference in Washington this week of representatives of agricultural interests of all sections of the country, decided on a holding movement. While the idea is for a more orderly marketing of farm products generally throughout the year, instead of crowding them at any one season, the main idea is to stabilize prices.

By Frank Crane

Recently I have met three real books.

To meet a real book is a much more advantageous and a thrill to meet a real man; perhaps a real woman. Books soar from the presses of the modern world like the waters that come down at Lodore. No human being can keep track of the wild and boundless waste of literature.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that the Assessment Rolls for street paving and improvement on Pinckney Street, beginning at the end of 24 foot pavement at J. S. White property, to the City Bldg., showing amounts assessed on abutments in this office, and open for inspection.

Any objections to said assessment and rolls must be filed in writing in my office within one week from publication of this notice.

DEMOCRATIC ALIGNMENT.

Little Rock, Ark.—Arkansas held to its solid Democratic alignment in Tuesday's election, according to returns which indicated that in the third congressional district, the only contest in which the election of the Democratic nominee was not conceded in advance, the majority in favor of Representative John H. Tillman, democrat, over his republican opponent, Worth Logue, would be 1,560 or more. Thomas C. McRae, democratic candidate for governor, and other state

DEATH PROMPTED ILLNESS

Sulphur Springs, Tex.—D. C. Clark late president of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, died here Saturday of heart disease brought on by a callback from his last illness. Mr. Clark was one of the best known and most influential Baptist leaders in the South. He was ordained to the ministry at the age of 23 and has been a far more influential Baptist leader in the South. He was a graduate of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary and received his doctorate from the University of Virginia.

As sure as you are a foot-high you will like this Camel Turkish and Domestic blend

Camel Cigarettes

You never got such cigarette contentment as Camels have to offer. Camel quality and expert blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic Tobaccos make this blend possible and make you prefer this Camel blend to either kind of tobacco smoked right.

Camels mellow mildness is a revelation! Smoke them with freedom without tiring your taste. They leave no unpleasant aftertaste nor unpleasant cigarette odor.

Give Camels every test — then compare them puff-for-puff with any cigarette in the world.
