EXCURSIONS IN THOUGHT

Some Things Move Marcus Aurelius Was Thankful For.
R. N. Allen.
How rarely most of us come to see that after all the worthwhile things of life are really the simple things, the most satisfactory of life are the very same that the millionaire and the bod-carrier. Nature has provided a way whereby the lot of each of her creatures shall not be vastly different from each other. Most of the values of life are really trifling. We mistake pinbecks for gold. We are dazzled by the glittering times and the showy trappings of the rank-and-file pinbecker around us. The simple things are the things that shadow for the substance. The famous Victoria diamond is worth $250,000 but we can get a very fine imitation for a few dollars. A child could see no difference between the two. It takes the eye of a seer to distinguish value from the true values of life. No wonder so many of us amateurs in the game of life are cheated of our brights!

FONZI ON TRIAL.

TWELVE INDICTMENTS

Boston, Oct. 23.—Charles Fonzi, whose scheme of quick riches for all invested in an inspirational coupons two years ago resulted in a federal sentence for using the mails to defraud, became a defendant in superior court today on indictments alleging larceny and conspiracy.
Fonzi came into court with an arm full of books and paper and declared that he would conduct his own case.
Fonzi, who is serving his five year federal sentence at the Plymouth jail, will spend each night in his cell.

Five of the dapper financier's 100 railroads are being returned to the state by the coupons were placed on trial with him, charged with larceny and with being accessories before the fact of larceny.

MANY STILL ON STRIKE

Washington, Oct. 24.—Approximately 200,000 of the 400,000 railroad shopmen, who went on strike July 1 in a protest against the reduced wages offered by the United States Railroad Labor Board, are still on strike. The strike today by headquarters of the International Association of Machinists.

Left a Baby On Steps.

Anderson, S. C., Oct. 24.—Trucked securely in a drummer's sample case, a two month old baby girl, possessing a glorious pair of brown eyes and a shock of raven hair which causes a mother's heart to flutter, was found by a passer-by on the steps of a building last night as the village crowd tumbled the midnight hour, adorned the front porch of Mr. J. E. Martin, a prominent farmer, residing at High Point, some six miles below Belton. The hurried swing of a woman's hand to meet the infant, and an address, the rhythmic purring of a mother's tongue, and a woman, which had assumed the form of a woman wearing a number two size of mink, obviously a suggestion as to the tactics of the youngster, Mr. and Mrs. Martin were roused by the noise of the automobile and hurried to the scene. There they saw the car disappear in the darkness. Mrs. Martin is not in the least perturbed by the unexpected loss as she is certain she is as lost as a mouse as to a course of action, on the contrary, she appears greatly distressed, and it is only in the hope that it will be her very own Mr. Martin is a prominent farmer of Anderson county and was formerly chief of police of Belton.

Adjoining County News.

Frank Caldwell, a member of the Yorkville high football eleven is walking on crutches as the result of an injury to his knee received in a football game at Lancaster last Friday. Mr. Robert McClain, of Yorkville, is critically ill at his home in the Lockmore Mill village. He is suffering from pneumonia and other complications and little hope is entertained for his recovery. "New" Johnson was fatally hurt on October 14, when an automobile in which he was traveling with President Edgar for the Yorkville, who was in the "Overhead Bridge" near Yorkville, will probably recover from his hurts.

JUDGE PRINCE DECIDES AGAINST GOV. HARVEY

Anderson, S. C., Oct. 24.—Reed Harvey, whose parole from the state penitentiary was revoked by Governor Harvey is today a free man. He was released from custody when Judge Prince rendered his decision at the latest court proceedings heard this morning, deciding in favor of the petitioner. The decision of Judge Prince is a bold far reaching importance and will likely affect similar cases in both this state and other states.
Judge Prince granted the order upon two grounds:
First, he declared that Governor Harvey has no authority to revoke a parole, especially so without a hearing of the defendant.
Second, there was a distinction between a conditional pardon and a parole, numerous authorities in the state holding that the time a convict is out on a conditional pardon is suspended and does not run. But, in the case of a parole, the prisoner is released from service and his sentence continues to run the same as if he were serving the time in the penitentiary.

TOBACCO GROWERS WILL POOL THEIR RESOURCES

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 23.—Co-operative associations of tobacco growers throughout the United States are pooling their strength and resources in a meeting here today of representatives of growers' associations from every producing section of the association.
The temporary organization was formed and it was expected that a permanent body of a commission to negotiate with the European distributing agencies in the event that allied growers' associations of all co-operative tobacco associations was determined upon and a committee to keep in touch with the tax authorities as it applies to growers so as to supervise such campaigns as may be necessary to answer anti-tobacco movements that may be started in the York county fair at Rock Hill and proceeded to ferry

A REASONABLE DOUBT.

I fear sometimes that womankind will never reach the loftier heights of her noble nature. Louise is lovely and refined. And free, I think from petty spites. But I'm afraid the sphere is small. Whether the female sex excel; She doesn't seem to care at all. Who operates the Dardanells. I try to make her understand. The obligations we should face. How clear her destiny has planned. That we shall be the ruling race. But when I speak of Russia's shame I find she listens to me with a frown. I thought my wand would be a flame I find in a hovel down the street.

I fear she never cares which team Can claim the batters who are men. When Dempsey speaks she doesn't seem To feel the slightest interest; 'Tis clear she'd rather rub her eyes to glance. With pity to some injured pug. I think I've got my head in a spin. I just sometimes that woman's mind Is childish in its narrowness; Louise is lovely, but I find That still her father's sister is there. She checks her pale children here and there. And when she looks where women serve; Her word is small; she doesn't care A host about the Dardanells.
The rich. Any fool was with money, but money after all is 'filthy lucre.' Money can't buy the BEST things for they've laid 'em out. The money doesn't buy 'em out.

about the unpleasant experience of the afternoon.—Yorkville Enquirer.

Miss Lillie McManus, who recently underwent an operation in Charlotte for the removal of her tonsils, is at home recuperating before returning to Winthrop. Mrs. L. L. Blackmon, who has been in the hospital for some time visiting relatives, left Sunday for her home at Cordale, Ga., accompanied by Mrs. Est. Blackmon, who will spend a while in Cordale and Atlanta, Ga. before returning home. Mr. and Mrs. John M. Madra left Sunday for Charlotte, their new home, where Mr. Madra will be with Hicks & Williams, cotton broker, carrying with them many good wishes from their friends in Lancaster. Mrs. Madra will be with Hicks & Williams, cotton broker, carrying with them many good wishes from their friends in Lancaster. Mrs. Madra will be with Hicks & Williams, cotton broker, carrying with them many good wishes from their friends in Lancaster.

Under the second ground on which the decision was based, Shaw's sentence expired long ago.

Judge Prince's decision releases Harvey and causes the year and five months of parole in this case which Governor Harvey held to be void.

Solicitor L. W. Harris represented Governor Harvey at the habeas corpus proceedings and demurred. His demurrer decided that:
First, that the parole and revocation of parole in this case were both in the discretionary powers of the chief executive of the state of South Carolina and that this court is without power to review the proceedings.
Second, that the petition shows on its face that even if the defendant is entitled to his one-month time off, he has now served the remaining nine months of the sentence. That in addition to the foregoing it is urged that the one-month time off for good behavior is now a matter of course but the court must show he is entitled to same which he has not done.
The sheriff and solicitor made affidavits in relation to the habeas corpus proceedings of the most dangerous and violent men in the county. The sheriff further contended that Shaw has not kept the conditions of his parole, he having many charges against him now pending in the courts of general sessions for Anderson county for violations of the criminal laws of the state, the demurrer declared.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 27

CHESTER MEN ELECTED
HEAD OF ASSOCIATION

Columbia, Oct. 25.—The South Carolina Guernsey Breeders Association met in annual session at the fair grounds today, enjoyed a luncheon on the grounds, and adjourned from dinner to the new grand stand where the meeting of the association was held at which time officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: E. B. Caldwell of Chester, president; C. S. McCall of Bennettsville, T. J. Henry of Beaufort, W. B. Stringfellow of Chester and J. C. Gambrell of Ware Shoals, vice presidents; K. M. James, secretary and treasurer.

The chief topic of discussion was the matter of combining county herds for show purposes as a means of increasing interest in the Guernsey in the state, the exchange of grade bulls for scrubs by members for the benefit of the state association, and the discussion relative to a state sale of Guernseys at a central point by members of the association.

Addresses were made by J. L. Mc-

Intosh of Dovesville, retiring president of the association, who remarked upon the phenomenal growth of the growth of interest in Guernseys in this state; by W. A. Woodbury of Burlington, Vermont, who likened the association to a fraternity, and stressed the added fertility of the soil where cattle, particularly Guernseys are raised in numbers for commercial purposes, or for their milk yielding capacity, and by W. W. Fitzpatrick, field representative of the American Guernsey Cattle Club, who urged a state sale as a means of educating the citizens of the state in general and the farming class in particular to the advantages of Guernseys.

Sentiment was expressed by the members in attendance in favor of the sale of cattle for breeding purposes, President R. M. Cooper of the fair association, led the discussion of the matter which resulted in the naming of a committee of five who will make preparations for the sale and will announce the date. The sale of the sale of cattle for breeding purposes, President R. M. Cooper of the fair association, led the discussion of the matter which resulted in the naming of a committee of five who will make preparations for the sale and will announce the date. The sale of the sale of cattle for breeding purposes, President R. M. Cooper of the fair association, led the discussion of the matter which resulted in the naming of a committee of five who will make preparations for the sale and will announce the date.

The meeting was attended by approximately 40 members of the association, and included in the program were men and women from Massachusetts, Washington and Wisconsin who have come to South Carolina for the purpose of entering the field of raising and breeding Guernseys on a large scale.

Mr. Fitzpatrick, who asked how his cattle show in Columbia compared with other shows of a similar nature in the south, stated that without a doubt, there were as many of raising and breeding Guernseys in the south this season. Mr. Fitzpatrick is well pleased with the growth that has marked the development in Guernseys in the state, and was loud in his praise of the South Carolina State Fair officials.

WOMEN PLAY ROLES IN NINE TRAGEDIES
NOW IN LIMELIGHT

In Nearly Every Case the "Eternal Triangle" is Involved.
Chicago, Oct. 24.—Nine tragedies stand out as dramatic spectacles in the news of America today all of them presenting women in leading roles. In nearly all involving the "eternal triangle" in different twists and variations. Six sensational murder trials, five with women as defendants, are in various stages of trial, while one woman tried for murder won her freedom at a preliminary hearing last week and another last night from a jury and a seventh faces her third trial on the same charge.

Presenting an unusual variant, it was announced, at Fresno, Calif., a man who killed his young wife when he found her with a young man of his own age, will be tried for manslaughter.

Mrs. Helen McNally, accused by her husband of having made away with twin babies, was freed at a preliminary hearing last week, when the state failed to prove the infants were other than sawdust stuffed dolls, made up to gratify the whim of the husband, Frank McNally, to appear as a father.

Briefly, the nine cases now attracting attention, with their sites, are:
Kansas City—Marie F. (Peggy) Beal, young divorcee, stepped out to freedom, acquitted last night after a short trial on a charge of murdering her lover, Frank Warren Anderson who she said promised marriage; they refused and boasting of having broken hearts of 80 women.
Los Angeles—Arthur C. Bark, of Evanston, Ill., faces his third trial on a charge of killing J. Belton Kennedy in a conspiracy with Madalynne Obenhausen, who swine her third trial on the same charge. Eight women and four men constitute the jury.
Los Angeles—The jury to try Mrs. Clara Phillips accused of beating Mrs. Alberta Meadows to death with a hammer, was tentatively completed. Mrs. Meadows, a young widow, was found to have been

a Smaller Upkeep Cost than any other form of Roofing

Wooden shingles when properly treated are the ideal roofing material.

By the high power hydraulic process of creosoting Creo-pine shingles the undiluted creosote oil thoroughly penetrates the pores of the wood, making them impervious to moisture, rain, frost, or sun cannot cause decay or rot.

Nails driven into untreated shingles rust and wear loose causing leaks in the roof. Nails driven in Creo-pine shingles do not rust and hold firmly for many years.

Roofs of Creo-pine shingles have been in service for fifteen years with no upkeep whatever, and at the end of that time were in good condition.

Creo-pine shingles are very little, if any, higher than heart pine shingles, cheaper than red cedar shingles and composition roofing and last much longer. They are cleaner to handle than dipped shingles and make a neat, attractive slate roof appearance.

Call on us and let us tell you all about the Creo-Pine Shingles.

Mr. H. J. Hoffman, manager of The Booterie, states that hundreds of those attending the big sale are surprised at the bargain being offered in reasonable shoes. While they noticed the large advertising means being run about the sale, and the prices offered they were surprised to find the quality of the shoes offered. This stock of shoes represents several stocks which were bought at bargain prices and which are offered to Chester for the people of this section. Many of the shoes offered are well known brands and are being sold at less than one-half the regular price. Mr. Hoffman says the shoes are on the racks and the public is invited to look them over and see the bargains offered. A large ad giving some of the prices offered appears in this issue of The News.

Scores of Chester people were in Columbia yesterday to witness the annual gridiron game between Carolina and Clemson, which was won by Clemson, the score being 3 to 0. The game was won by a dropkick in the last quarter, made by Robinson of Wintboro.

We Guarantee our "always good" self-rising flour to give perfect satisfaction. Try a sack. Chester Cash and Carry Grocery Co.

Chester is without a football game this afternoon due to the fact that yesterday Wintboro-Training school was scheduled to play Chester today, called and stated that they would forfeit the game and would not be here. The Training school team is considerably weaker this year than last and while it was realized that they would have no chance against Chester it was hoped that they would come down and furnish some football for the local III and also for the Chester fans. They were told that if they would come that some of the playing would be done by Chester's substitutes, but this was apparently no inducement and today we are without a football game on the local field. The next game on the schedule is for next Friday at which time Chester will meet the Clinton team on the local grounds.

We Stand Back of every pair of shoes we sell so well, as you will see.

"Pete" White Another Chester Star. Special to The News.

George E. White, better known to his townsmen and schoolmates as "Pete," Captain and quarter-back of the Citadel team this year, is making a name for himself in South Carolina football. His stellar work at quarter has been largely responsible for the two Citadel victories this season, and his work in the Furman game at Florence last week, was of a high order, his generalship, and all-round playing being in no small measure responsible for the low score. Great things are expected of him in the remaining games.

Not only in football does he star, for as Chester fans well know, he is a baseball player of no mean ability. He made the varsity last year, fielded his position without a miscue, and was at all times a dangerous hitter. He was elected basebal manager for the coming season, but resigned in order to play for the team.

"Pete" also stands high in military and academic work at the Citadel, being a first lieutenant in Company "B," and standing far from the bottom of his class.

Children's Shoes, greatest line in Chester, at Wylie's.

Citizens of Harrah, Oklahoma, protest the ringing of the 9 o'clock curfew, because it disturbs their slumbers. Every night after a good lull has settled down for a good rest and the lights are turned out, the clanging of the curfew rouses the citizenry from their slumbers and the situation is becoming well-nigh unbearable, according to the delegation that registered a complaint with the county attorney.

NOTICE. I am very glad to say that my examination proved satisfactory and I have passed the Embalmers' Board of S. C. I am now in position to serve the public in the funeral line completely and at reasonable prices.

J. E. SPANN, Undertaker and Licensed Embalmer. Chester, S. C., Oct. 26, 1922. 11

SPECIAL NOTICE. The Sunday school Rally which was planned for the fifth Sunday, at the Blackstock Baptist church, in honor of Woodward Sunday school, has been postponed until a later date.
