Wofford Lecturer To Speak On Art

Mrs. Constance Dean Avery, artist, of Wofford College, will be the guest of the Johnsonian this month. The painting of the collection she will make are in the Adams Art Studio Program and is one of the young women of our arts and crafts movement.

Mrs. Avery is a graduate of Wofford College art history. She has been teaching at the University of Georgia. She received her B.A. degree in art history from the University of Georgia in 1930. She has been teaching art at the University of Georgia in Athens, and has recently returned to the University of Georgia in Athens.

She has decided to give her time to the University of Georgia in Athens, and has recently returned to the University of Georgia in Athens.

Beaufort Alumni To Meet Tomorrow

The Beaufort Alumni Association has announced that it will meet tomorrow at 11 a.m. in the Alumni Hall on the Wofford College campus.

The meeting will be held in the Alumni Hall on the Wofford College campus.

Wofford Theatre

Wofford Theatre presents "The Last Word," a play by James Baldwin. The play will be performed on Tuesday, May 2, at 8 p.m. in the Wofford Theatre.

The play is a powerful commentary on the lives of African Americans and their experiences in the United States. It deals with themes such as race, identity, and the struggle for equality.

The cast is comprised of a diverse group of actors, including Wofford students and alumni. The production is directed by Dr. John Wilson, a professor of theatre at Wofford College.

Tickets are available at the door, and the show is open to the public. For more information, please contact the Wofford Theatre office.

SGA Begins Work For Coming Year

The Student Executive Council of Wofford College has begun their work for the coming year. The council met on Monday, April 11, at 7:30 p.m. with a large attendance.

They will meet at least once a week to discuss and take action on matters affecting the college.

The council is made up of students from all classes and years, and is open to all members of the college community.

The council meets weekly to discuss matters affecting the college.

Wofford's oldest student, the senior class, has been asked to choose a theme for the next year. The theme will be announced at the end of this month.

The council will work hard to ensure that the needs of the students are met, and that the college continues to provide a quality education for all.

Foreign Students To Speak On U.S.

The Foreign Students Association will hold a formal dinner and reception for new students on Thursday, April 14, at 7 p.m. in the Wofford College dining hall.

The students will have the opportunity to meet and greet each other, as well as to learn more about American culture and traditions.

The dinner will feature a variety of American dishes, and will be followed by a reception where students can socialize and get to know one another.

The Foreign Students Association invites all members of the Wofford community to attend the dinner and reception, and to get to know our new students.
Open Invitations To Theft

Recently we've been receiving complaints about the unattended classes and the fact that of both petty and not-so petty theft. Although the problem of theft is not new, it can seem to reach a peak during the high season of vacations. We are able to compete against the high standards of many institutions in other sections of the country against the students who have been provided with a better educational background.

This is particularly evident in the competition for the big property enterprises of governmental agencies. Generally we find that Sothern students do not have the ability to read and understand their books and articles but then I come back discouraged by the midnight ice before ballroom week. Another is Julia Caesar with a new chapter in which I can see no one whimper, much less shout without being located. I have not heard of Southern students. There are some who have been provided with some amount of ability to learn, but there are many others who cannot even think to take such knowledge to the future.

Grass Disappearing

That exhilarating, fascinating time of year has arrived once again and everywhere there is a green lawn. The grass is growing! But there is still some doubt in many of our own grassy expanses of earth marred by ugly brown paths marred frequently by feet and dormitory.

It is definitely several steps shorter to cut across the green instead of following the cement walkway. It will probably save one at least a minute and a half--enough to finish off that last cigarette. But, by the time 800 students have taken this short cut, there would be a cut across for about a week; an un neatly1 landscaped lawn has been added to our otherwise beautiful campus.

The greatest deal of money has been spent on landscaping this year. All of us were very aware of the cutting down of many large trees on campus and the trimming of certain other old ones.

Many students campaigning for office are promoting plans of their platform to promote do everything possible to keep the grass green but even these ardent student-activist students-circulated petitions admit any effort in making the campus green is to promote a "bear's lawn.

Yet these same people (read frequently across the grass giving absolutely no thought to the effect that the footstamps of over 2,000 students would have to do the pace of our campus lawn)

Why should we not recognize the same alld effect on campus if we put them into the trees in the same way we do to our dormitory?

CAMPUS CALENDAR

Writer Protests South's Apathy

Test Shows What WC Students Admire, Seek In Famous Men

Special is to 12

In the average Winthrop freshman there are a "pop-art". Does he have a cash register or does his wallet contain enough for a half-hour's time? I U. Temple's many cashes are to be found in your wallet.

It is possible that the answer is yes at a large percentage of the freshmen. However there are many other problems. In fact there are some who think that the freshmen can be caught up in the trend. But if we are to succeed in the world, we will have to study these problems and attempt to do something about them.

"What I want to have is, my friends, is that we can do more than sit and wait for everything to be placed in our laps. We can search for education and begin to break loose from a limited world. We can discuss what we find and learn the ideas of others on current thought.

Even with the creation of an artificial intelligence in college, the student has much more to learn about the realities of the South.

The sources of more serious fighting, longevity, is known to have a hard time to bear the future. But the only way to find the source of a measure is to keep telling me.

We may be a few steps farther to the door of the leafed books before you get in the cacti;

"I am not an insult to your next door neighbor to lock your door," he said today. "You may open those doors to those who want to go out several days before we get here."

Grass Disappearing

That exhilarating, fascinating time of year has arrived once again and everywhere there is a green lawn. The grass is growing! But there is still some doubt in many of our own grassy expanses of earth marred by ugly brown paths marred frequently by feet and dormitory.

It is definitely several steps shorter to cut across the green instead of following the cement walkway. It will probably save one at least a minute and a half--enough to finish off that last cigarette. But, by the time 800 students have taken this short cut, there would be a cut across for about a week; an un neatly1 landscaped lawn has been added to our otherwise beautiful campus.

The greatest deal of money has been spent on landscaping this year. All of us were very aware of the cutting down of many large trees on campus and the trimming of certain other old ones.

Many students campaigning for office are promoting plans of their platform to promote do everything possible to keep the grass green but even these ardent student-activist students-circulated petitions admit any effort in making the campus green is to promote a "bear's lawn.

Yet these same people (read frequently across the grass giving absolutely no thought to the effect that the footstamps of over 2,000 students would have to do the pace of our campus lawn)

Why should we not recognize the same alld effect on campus if we put them into the trees in the same way we do to our dormitory?

CAMPUS CALENDAR

Writer Protests South's Apathy

Test Shows What WC Students Admire, Seek In Famous Men

Special is to 12

In the average Winthrop freshman there are a "pop-art". Does he have a cash register or does his wallet contain enough for a half-hour's time? I U. Temple's many cashes are to be found in your wallet.

It is possible that the answer is yes at a large percentage of the freshmen. However there are many other problems. In fact there are some who think that the freshmen can be caught up in the trend. But if we are to succeed in the world, we will have to study these problems and attempt to do something about them.

"What I want to have is, my friends, is that we can do more than sit and wait for everything to be placed in our laps. We can search for education and begin to break loose from a limited world. We can discuss what we find and learn the ideas of others on current thought.

Even with the creation of an artificial intelligence in college, the student has much more to learn about the realities of the South.

The sources of more serious fighting, longevity, is known to have a hard time to bear the future. But the only way to find the source of a measure is to keep telling me. We may be a few steps farther to the door of the leafed books before you get in the cacti;

"I am not an insult to your next door neighbor to lock your door," he said today. "You may open those doors to those who want to go out several days before we get here."
Joynes Hall To Be Converted Into Ninth Student Dormitory

Beginning in September, Winthrop's Joynes Hall, which has been recently acquired by the college and has been used as a dormitory for approximately 150 students, will be converted into a ninth student dormitory.

Morgan, Ostrow Given Music Study Grants

Riley Morgan, senior music major, and Edward Ostrow, junior music major, have been granted music study grants for the academic year.

Even the faculty was represented. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cluvinage and William Gray had their luncheon in the sun.

"TRAVELERS"

Actually the weather was perfect, but this would be delightful for Joan Anderson and the 750 students who will attend the conference.

On Sewing Experiments, Secrets

The experiment was continued on the following day by the students, with the following results:

Music Groups To Tape Film

The Junior Class at Winthrop and the Singers was recently announced by Dr. Harold B. Allen, chairman of the Music Department, as the first group in the state to tape their musical performances for the benefit of the college.

وطاه•f • April 23, 1983

Also, Dale Hayes, Gnutclum /lol, is so much, Mallan Swuill, John Voss, Allen Biddle, Sheldon Deni, Harold Remus, Donald Urmo, Eleanor Kitison and Sullivan Greene.

Campus Chatter

by ANNE BRADLEY and DAVE HAYES

Congratulations are in order for Margaret Jackson, who has been selected as the winner of the annual picnic contest.

New Buys Styles

Several Winthrop girls are reporting the latest styles in clothing, among them being a blue dress worn by a student at the beach.

BUSY GRADUATES

Emily Penfield and Renee Wade, who graduated from Winthrop this past spring, are planning to marry next year. Renee is presently teaching in Cayuga, Ga., and will appear in the Tomorrow's Teacher exhibition in Atlanta.

Also, Peggy Cox, who received a diamond from Mr. Self, a student at the university of South Carolina.

4th Place in Easter Egg Hunt

Recently held at Winthrop, the Easter egg hunt was attended by Easter egg hunters from all over the state.

8 Receive Prizes in Easter Egg Hunt

The annual Easter egg hunt at Winthrop was held on Sunday, April 23, and was attended by Easter egg hunters from all over the state.

Representatives To Attend Annual USGSA Conference

Two representatives from Winthrop will attend the annual USGSA conference in Cambridge, Mass., this weekend.

IN THE FOOD - THAT'S RIGHT

You'll love good food, you won't like bad food.

Arlington House Motel & Red Coach Inn

Call 921-2111 for Reservation

10% Off

ALL Brushes

Red Sable

Camel Hair

Light & Dark Hair

ALL Sizes

10c to $10.00

Town 'N Country Paint Center

If, York Ave.

EXCELLENT SERVICE AND REASONABLE PRICES

Charlotte Jimmy

CharloUe H•T • 21 Rock Hill

"Parker Inr Grilli

Restaurant

And

RESTAURANT

Featuring:

* STEAKS

* CHOPS

* FRIED CHICKEN

* HAMBURGERS

EXCELLENT SERVICE AND REASONABLE PRICES

PARK INN GRILL

And

RESTAURANT

Featuring:

* STEAKS

* CHOPS

* FRIED CHICKEN

* HAMBURGERS

EXCELLENT SERVICE AND REASONABLE PRICES
Recent Mass Exodus Stuns, Surprises Remaining Souls

by Judy Fischer

Friday, April 23, 1981

Goldiggers at WC

"Contrasted from Page Two"

THE JOHN SOMM

Recent Mass Exodus Stuns, Surprises Remaining Souls

by Judy Fischer

Friday, April 23, 1981

Goldiggers at WC

"Contrasted from Page Two"

THE JOHN SOMM