

Winthrop News 1947

Winthrop News and Events Archive

2-12-1947

Masquers Dramatic Club, Feb. 12, 1947

Winthrop News Service

(Feb. 12, 1947)

Winthrop College News Service
February 12, 1947

for THURSDAY

M. A. L.

Masquers, dramatic club at Winthrop college, presented three one-act plays last night in the Main auditorium.

"The Case of the Weird Sisters", a psychological mystery, was the first presentation, directed by Margaret Rallings, junior of Pageland. The cast included Rita Ness, Denmark; Virginia Fouche, Charleston; Dettie Austin, Seneca; Betty Jordan, Nixonville; and Lillian Adams, Seneca.

Hilda Proctor of Rock Hill, a member of the junior class, directed the second play, a comedy ~~unbanned~~ entitled "Woman's Page(Uncensored)". The cast included Mary Carson Tinney, Birmingham, Ala.; June Smith, Charleston; Emily Baird, York; Miriam Sowell, Chesterfield; Mary Elizabeth Dillard, Seneca; Nancy Pittman, Great Falls; Alta Randall, Rock Hill; Frances Gamble, Kingstree; and Jane Young, Fort Mill.

~~XX~~

Jean Carson Brown of Charlotte, N. C., ~~was~~ directed and played ~~an~~ a role in "The Woman in the Freight Car", a drama. Others in the cast were Jean Crouch, Elko; Elwanda Truesdale, Bishopville; and Mary Ellen Jackson, Florence.

RA Herald