REMARKABLE SHOWING

MADE ALONG SOUTHERN AND M. & O. RAILWAYS

New Manufacturing Enterprises Industries Started and to be Started.

The showing made in the fiscal year, ending June 30th last, of the new industries, additions to established industries and the expenditures for improvements of various kinds in the cities and towns of the Southern Railway and the Mobile & Ohio railroad, is a remarkable one, when it is considered that the period covered includes the last half of the year 1908 and the first half of the year 1909.

It is estimated that there will be produced in Alabama, this year, 20,000,000 bushels of wheat, and that the western half of Saakatchewan will do at least as well.

At a recent competition in Paris recently, sixty nine entirely new varieties of roses were exhibited.

MORE ABOUT SUBSOILING

Mr. Editor, I will make another suggestion, for it is not too late yet to try it. Select some good well drained land with red clay subsoil.

Others on this week's sterling bill are the Daning Delacoste, Florence Wilson and her famous "Wind Mill Mill" Mardell A. Bond, in their portrayals of grand opera; Carrie Snedley, a novelty musician; Carrie McManis, Colorado's Jenny Lind; and Mrs. Wm. Boylston, in her grand pictures, and Dr. Grunberger's augmented orchestra.

Washington, Nov. 22.—The census report shows that 8,109,787 bales of cotton, counting round bales as half bales, were ginned from the growth of 1909 to November 14.

Cotton ginned to November 14, 1909, compared with the same date in 1908 was as follows:

State 1909 1908 Florida..... 61,635 61,497 Georgia..... 1,409,611 1,404,097 North Carolina..... 499,613 418,454 South Carolina..... 513,647 528,928

Distribution of the Sea Island cotton for 1909 by states is: Florida 23,700; Georgia 39,043; South Carolina 197,000; North Carolina 24,900.

Statistics in this report for 1909 are subject to slight corrections when checked against the individual reports of the ginners being transmitted by mail.

The corrected statistics of the quantity of cotton ginned this season to November 1, are 7,017,849 bales.

ANOTHER METHOD OF PEARING LAND

"Old Farmer" Gives a Proved and valuable Suggestion

16 YEARS AGO

16 years ago, I'll be glad to recall the old days and the old friends.

Others on this week's sterling bill are the Daning Delacoste, Florence Wilson and her famous "Wind Mill Mill" Mardell A. Bond, in their portrayals of grand opera; Carrie Snedley, a novelty musician; Carrie McManis, Colorado's Jenny Lind; and Mrs. Wm. Boylston, in her grand pictures, and Dr. Grunberger's augmented orchestra.

The bill this week is good, but it is something of a rarity to have a son of nobility on the program which is the case with Little Lex Nee, the clever miniature edition of duke of Edinburgh July in his uproarious farce, "The Baron, Jr.—Pueblo, Colo., Chief."

Ma, what are the folks in our church patten' up a subscription for? To send our minister on a vacation trip to Europe?

Won't there be no church service on his ears? No, he's got $1.23 in my bank. Can I give that?

EMPTIED LOAD IN LEFT HIP

White Man Shot by Negro, First Accident of Thanksgiving

While hunting yesterday Holmes Robinson, white, was accidentally shot by Dudley Burns, colored. The shot entered the left hip and made a great gaping wound, leaving a pretty good sized hole in the bone. Dr. H. B. Malone was called and dressed the wound and it is thought that Mr. Robinson will get all right.

The accident happened just a few miles below old Parly church yesterday afternoon. The party was hunting birds and negro was standing just in the rear of Robinson. Just as the birds flew up the negro discharged his gun, the entire load lodging in Robinson's hip. The negro was standing about ten feet in the rear of Robinson and hence the entire effect of the load was obtained. The negro was badly frightened and lost no time in coming to town for a doctor.

This was the first of Thanksgiving accidents reported from Chester County and fortunately it was no worse.

Defaulter Will Be Tried

Columbia.—Solicitor Henry has knoed into a cocked hat the project started at Rock Hill to pay Charles May, the defaulting treasurer of the town, out of trouble, and the embroilment case against him will come up for trial at Yorkville this week.

Although nothing has been published in the Rock Hill papers about this latest move in the May case friends of his family raised a fund of $4,500 with which they felt sure they would be able to compromise the case. So sure was May and his friends that the absence would work that he made preparation to get employment; but when a committee of the subscribers to fund went down to Chester to see Solicitor Hemphill about the matter he promptly informed the committee that he could not consider a proposition to not proceed in the case for a husband as it would surprise that such a proposition should be made.

It is felt in Rock Hill that Mr. May was always acknowledged his shorthats, will gladly quit and throw himself on the mercy of the court.

Slaughter Pen Situation

Here is the latest development in the slaughter pen situation, this paper having been served on the parties by Sheriff Colvin:

To E. M. Atkinson and Co., M. A. Elliott, J. A. Hall, J. A. Klutz, Joe T. Peay, Art and Bert Brown, and to each and every butcher in or near the city of Chester:

Whereas, there has been great complaint to the County Board of Commissioners, and to the Grand Jury of Chester County, in regard to the offensive odors and refuse about and near the pen, located near the Columbia public road, and just beyond the city limit; And, Whereas, certain persons who live near this slaughter pen complain that the same is not only very disagreeable, but is also causing sickness and travelers on the Columbia road complain that the odor of this pen is offensive to them, and the property owners on the stream below this slaughter pen state that the refuse matter brought down the stream and the odor of the same is causing their property to depreciate in value.

Therefore, We, the County Board of Commissioners, respectfully ask that you sign a petition to the County Board of Commissioners, and that you use the use of the same be discontinued as soon; and that another place be secured for slaughtering, at a reasonable distance from any dwelling or public road.

And you are hereby notified that if the use of the present slaughter pen is not discontinued by the tenth day of December, 1909, the Board will proceed according to law to compel the discontinuance of this slaughter pen.

But you will please obey the wishes of the people, without further process. Douglas and Wise, Attorneys for the County. Chester, S. C., Nov. 24, 1909.

OPERA HOUSE

Magnate Adelaide Thurston will show you her best hair. In 87 years this talented actress has won for herself a foremost position as a star and it is safe to say there are few players who have more admirers than Miss Thurston. For this season she has had her manager, Francis X. Hope, select "Contrary Mary" a comedy by Edith Ellis, whose plays are being given in the little role in which she is appearing. Miss Thurston has in the little role in which she is appearing. Miss Thurston has in the little role in which she is appearing.

An excellent paste for getting grease from carpets is made by mixing flour's earth with ammonia and water. Apply the mixture with a brush overnight, then remove with a stiff brush. The ammonia may be omitted if the colors on the carpets are delicate. After the grease is out the carpet may be freshened by sweeping with moist suds.

Little Muriel fell into the house and dashed and burst.

"Oh, mother, she cried, 'don't scold me for being late to school, for I've had such a disappointment. A leg of fell down, and they said that they were going to send for a horse doctor, so of course I had to stay. And after she called me 'late'—I've come now, oh mother, what do you think? wasn't a horse doctor at all. It was only a man!"
