Mrs. Marion Gay and two children, left Saturday night for Bartonsville, where they will join Mr. Guy, who has been there for several months.

When asked as to the temperature this morning Mr. J. C. Cornwell, in charge of the local weather bureau station, stated that the thermometer this morning registered twenty degrees, which is decidedly the coldest morning of the season.

Deputy J. A. Walker, assisted by J. M. Foster and others, destroyed a 100 gallon copper still last night about six miles from Lockhart, on Turkey creek. Eleven barrels of mash was also found at the still. The still is said to have been "modern" in all details and of large capacity. Officers state that they saw five men at the still but that they all made their escape, however, they say they will probably be some arrested later. Another 100 gallon still and six barrels of mash was destroyed by Sheriff Howze, and Deputies Caldwell and Patrick, on Broad river about three miles from Lockhart, Sunday. No one was captured at the latter still, it being evident that they "got wind" of the coming of the officers.

A team from the Chester Evangelistic Club consisting of W. C. McKinnis, John M. Bell and J. E. Nunamy will conduct services at the Bibbburg Presbyterian Church next Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. The Evangelistic Quartet consisting of G. W. Byers, S. B. McCullough, W. P. Stroud and R. N. Spingarn will also be present and render some special music.

The Game Tomorrow.

The Rock Hill Herald of yesterday afternoon says: Rock Hill Bears will meet their ancient foe on Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock, when they stack up against the Chester Hill football team on the gridiron at Chester fair grounds.

Rock Hill will be outwitted by a good margin but the local lads are determined to make up for this shortage by a fighting spirit which cannot be subdued. "Buster" Matthews, quarterback of the local eleven is still on the injured list, but it is hoped that he will be able to get in this, the last game of his high school football career.

Captain Holt Tipton is pinned for the fray and expects to play his best game of the season. Big "Foy" Talley has just now got the football fever and he is determined to equal or exceed the performance of the season. Big "Foy" Talley has just now got the football fever and he is determined to equal or exceed the performance of the season.

Mary, the three-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hope died at the home on West Lory Street Saturday afternoon and funeral services were held Sunday afternoon by Dr. Paul Pressly and interment was in Evergreen Cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Hope have the sympathy of many friends.

Thanksgiving services will be held in Chester on Thursday morning at ten o'clock in the First Baptist church. Dr. Floyoy Shepperson, pastor of First Baptist church, will preach the sermon. The services are being held at ten o'clock in order to give those who attend an opportunity to fill any other engagements for the day.

There will be no prayer meetings at the Presbyterian church tomorrow evening on account of the Thanksgiving services at the First Baptist church Sunday morning.

Judge Simpkins, who held court in Chester last week, became ill Friday night and was unable to hold court Saturday.

Attention is again called to the game of football to be played in Chester tomorrow afternoon at the Chester Fair Grounds, between Chester and Rock Hill. The game will be called at three o'clock and indications are that a large crowd will be present to witness the game.

TRESPASS NOTICE. All persons are hereby warned not to hunt, fish, allow cattle to run at large or otherwise trespass on the lands owned or controlled by the undersigned.

first down over them and the two ends say they will drive the plays to the inside. A good game is expected and a large number of loyal rooters are expected to accompany the team of Chester.

Auto Hit By Train. Henry Archer, Archie Green and Azelle Barber, all colored, the two former being men and the latter a woman, were brought to the Chester Sanatorium Sunday afternoon suffering from injuries received when the Dodge sedan they were riding in was struck and almost completely demolished by a southbound freight train on the Southern Railway at a grade crossing near Nazarene colored church, about three and one-half miles south of Rock Hill.

It is said that the car was almost directly upon the trucks when struck by the engine. The engine caught the car in the rear and hurled it against a "Stop, Look and Listen" sign and the fact that the passengers were in the front seat probably saved their lives.

Henry Archer is said to be suffering from a sprained back and other injuries. Archie Green has a dislocated hip and other injuries and the woman, Azelle Barber, has a fractured hip, dislocated shoulder and other injuries and is the most seriously injured of the three.

All three of the injured were placed in a box car and brought to Chester by the crew of the freight train.

Tie at Great Falls. Great Falls, Nov. 20.—Wednesday afternoon, November 18, Great Falls and Lockhart battled to a scoreless tie here. While this is the first year that either school has had a football team they played like veterans. Great Falls threatened Lockhart's goal twice, once in the second quarter and again in the fourth, the second time the ball being placed with one year of the goal, to be lost on a fumble. The teams were evenly matched, as is shown by not only the score but by the number of first downs made by each. Both teams used the forward pass effectively.

Dollars always look the biggest in paying old debts. One floating mill is worth an eternity of grouches. Never mistake a hunting license as a permit to hunt trouble. It won't be long now until cotton begins to put things off. It's twice as hard to become respectable as it is to become a pig.

The next thing to do is build a cage for the dove of peace in Europe. Hunters who climb fences with loaded guns are hounding accidents. An artistic temperament won't buy any machine or any many garage boys.

Those who drive from the top are certain to hit the bottom sooner or later. Hunting a new way to do nothing seems to be the aim of many folk in life.

Those who can't live without drinking bootleg liquor can't live if they drink it. When a crowd gathers, you can generally find most of the innocents in town there.

A man who is called a "nut" at home is sometimes regarded as a genius abroad. After some man give you a handbike like they were cranking a Ford, you understand better why Fords sometimes kick.

BAD COLDS The season of the year is here when bad colds are very much in vogue. We call them bad colds for no reason, for all are bad enough.

A cold is a hot, feverish condition of the patient's lining. It may be any part of the lining. When it's the lung, they call it pneumonia. This is cold in the third degree.

The direct cause of pneumonia is infection of the lung tissue with microscopic vegetable germs known as the pneumococcus. Anything with such a name should be deadly, but the patient generally recovers.

It sounds more than its first cousin, a bad cold, but the latter produces such a train of coughs, wheezes, sneezes, gasps, red eyes and swollen noses, that it can scarcely be equaled as a troublemaker.

If a cold caused the victim to cough and turn into a icicle, it would probably be less contagious. The poorer, weaker, are always the brightest students of English. People do not contract colds or other contagious diseases or develop them as they do appendicitis. They take them. A cold is the most common ailment in the world to take. If one didn't have a thing and had nothing to take but a cold, he would be better off by leaving it alone.

In spite of all this evidence against a cold, millions are taken every day. When one has taken a cold, he is usually as sorry as if he had contracted with Europe to end war. The cold gallops through his system and makes him feel like the last rose of summer.

His throat becomes raw. His nose gets red hot as the life goes on and ceases to function. His lungs become clogged. His bronchial tubes corrode and his palate feels like a hot stove lid. Colds as such are never so distressing but they are frequently changed by their dangerousness for pneumonia and other cold transmits to the tomb. If a cold has no serious intentions, it has usually in a few days the wreck of the person who took it.

Colds are caused by microbes and the doctors say that the virus is handed out sample packages to everyone near them, as if they were campaign cards. Physicians say that people with colds should be quarantined, the results would be obtained at the work of the world would be so badly crippled.

The famous Yonge Street, Toronto, originated in 1793 as a road from Lake Simcoe to the west from the North end of the road through Detroit, when the plan was taken over by the United States.

Lesson For Officers.

Officers of the law may well appropriate to themselves the lesson arising from the case of Policeman Wyszog of Raleigh, who shot and killed Stephen S. Holt, the Spithfield attorney, an innocent man whom the officer mistook to be riding in a car suspected of bootlegger connections.

The jury found that the officer acted in a reckless and wanton manner in firing so precipitately, and so imprudently, and he stands convicted of being a murderer.

We have an immense amount of sympathy for officers of the law who, in these days of prohibition enforcement hazards, are often called upon to sacrifice almost super-human patience in dealing with thugs and cutthroats and outlaws who are engaged in running the peril of taking the life of an innocent man is so imminent that they must be guided by exceptional prudence in effecting arrests, lest not only they may kill somebody who is not offending, but kill those even who may be guilty.

The officers are not within their rights in shooting and killing men who are engaged in bootlegging. The only time the law gives them a right to kill is when their own lives are in jeopardy. The main liberty that any other man is allowed in the premises.—Spartanburg Journal.

Proposes Old Age Pensions

A special committee appointed by Governor Cox of Massachusetts for a year "to study and investigate the question of old age pensions for that state has made its report, the majority of the committee approving the proposition that a division of old age assistance be created in the State Department of Public Welfare with district boards in various parts of the state to provide for the payment of an old age assistance not to exceed $7 per week to needy citizens 70 years of age and over who have incomes of less than $1 a day and whose property does not exceed $3,000 in value. The cost for providing such aid to the aged and needy, the report estimates, would require a total of $6,000,000 per year and to provide this sum recommends an additional poll tax levy of $2 on all men and women of the state of Massachusetts Legislature.

Who are engaged in bootlegging.

Warden C. T. Nix, of the Missouri State Penitentiary, has named an underlying cause of the crimes of youth that is neither very startling nor very suggestive of remedies for the social disease. It is lack of money, says Mr. Nix. Lacking money, large numbers of young men go forth to commit holdups and robberies. The prison records show, he avers, that lack of money is sending more to prison than anything else.

It is quite true that "many youths want money for luxuries and fast living, fast automobiles and other pleasures" and are not at all squeamish about the means selected to obtain them. But it is generally the matter, lack of inclination to work, however, is the cause of crime, or it is to be found in after moral makeup.

The underlying cause of the crimes of youth is certainly not lack of money, although that is generally the matter. Lack of inclination to work, however, is the cause of crime, or it is to be found in after moral makeup.

This question of old age pensions sooner or later is going to be a big problem confronting the Legislatures of all the states. It is a problem confronting the Legislatures of all the states. It is a problem confronting the Legislatures of all the states.

Do You Owe One Doctor And Call Another?

No law can force you to stick to any one doctor. You can change as often as you wish—or as often as you feel that a change is desirable. Of course, you will not switch physicians without a substantial reason.

But the meanest trick of which a human being is capable is that of transferring from one doctor to another to avoid paying a bill.

The doctors know what is going on. Both the one you left and the one you went to, know why you did it. They have seen it happen before.

But honest folks don't do it—until they have paid the first doctor—in full.

They realize that the physician they first called has done his best, regardless.

And honest folks have the courage to tell their present doctor the truth about their financial condition—they have the moral courage to come out with facts.

They do not resort to tricks—switch doctors to avoid paying. Remember, your doctor comes when you want him. He drops everything and rushes to you or your dear ones when danger threatens.

He expects his pay, just as the butcher or grocer expect their pay.

But when you play the sneak—to another physician—and avoid the first doctor—you are not a man.

The new doctor you engage is in touch with all other doctors—and the new one you engage is going to fear that you will play the same "hiding" game on him.

Be square, straightforward and courageous. Tell the truth. Your doctor will respect you for it.

Every Doctor in Town will See This As You Read It. If You Pay them what You Owe, they will know You are Honest. If You Do Not, You Know What They Will Think.

Shooting Accused Robbed Man.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 20.—Harvey Bruesseau, 18 years old, and his brother, Richard, Jr., 17, were shot and killed and their mother, Mrs. Bruesseau, 35 years old, was probably fatally wounded at their home today. The shooting, Mrs. Bruesseau said, was done by her husband, Richard, who is sought.

The shooting followed a quarrel, Clifford, 16 years old, another son, told the police. "Ever since she had different mother since she had her hair bobbed" he said.
