Anonymous Gift from Rock Hill Couple Donated to Winthrop

Quick Facts

- As an unrestricted gift, the commitment is not designated for any particular program or scholarship.
- This unrestricted support will continue to allow Winthrop University to be nimble and purposeful in providing a keenly focused, excellent educational experience to each student.

ROCK HILL, S.C. - An anonymous Rock Hill couple has committed $100,000 in unrestricted support to Winthrop University. The donors cited Winthrop's commitment to excellence as the reason for such a generous gift.

Though the gift is unrestricted, the donors want to make sure students are supported, saying "If it helps one student get through, then we're happy."

As an unrestricted gift, the commitment is not designated for any particular program or scholarship. Rather, it can be used for key, current priorities of Winthrop University. This unrestricted support will continue to allow Winthrop University to be nimble and purposeful in providing a keenly focused, excellent educational experience to each student.

If you are interested in making a gift, call the Office of Development at 803/323-2150.
