Notices were released to the following journals and catalogs: NUCMC on November 3, 1976 and Women's History Sources Survey on November 3, 1976. (See collection control file for any additional notices or publicity.)

Scope and Content Note: The collection consists of Dr. Powell's professional and organizational files and includes correspondence, drafts and revisions of her speeches and dissertation, biographical data, teaching notes with reference material. The collection pertains to Dr. Powell's work as a Winthrop faculty member, scholar and specialist in family and child development and her involvement with such organizations as the Christians Children's Fund and the Southeastern Council on Family Relations. The material extends from Dr. Powell's days as a student and young wife in Florida (1940-1959), with most of the substantive material extending from 1960-1976. The researcher should also see Dr. Powell's official files located in Child and Family Development Office sub-group of the School of Home Economics record group. The collection is arranged alphabetically by subject and, thereafter, they are in chronological order.

Transfer of Items: Dr. Powell's publications were transferred to the Archives Faculty Publication file and other publications were transferred to the Acquisition department of the library for review. (See disposition record in the collection control file for a more complete list of transfers.)
