Literary Rights: For information concerning literary rights please contact the Louise Pettus Archives & Special Collections at Winthrop University.

Scope And Content: Jean Faut (1925-) was a pitcher for the All American Girls Professional Baseball League, and historians and baseball followers argue that she was the best over-hand pitcher in the league. The Jean Faut collection consists of newspaper clippings from her time with the AAGPBL and the movie A League of Their Own, which commemorated the league as well. Also included in this collection are numerous artifacts from her time in the league, photographs from the AAGPBL reunions, and correspondence from former players in the league, as well as official correspondence from the reunion committees throughout the years. The papers also consist of Ms. Faut's contracts for the years she was in the league, as well as fan mail that she received over the years.

Related Manuscript Collections: Accession 992, M434 (485): Elizabeth B. Mahon Papers; Accession 1215: Elizabeth B. Mahon Papers; Accession 1365, M680 (735): Jean Faut Baseball Card (transferred to Accession 1369); Accession 1385, M686 (742): All American Girls Professional Baseball League Home Movies; Accession 1389: AAGPBL Collection.

BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION

JEAN FAUT

Jean Faut was born November 17, 1925, in East Greenville, Pennsylvania. She was a member of the All American Girls Professional Baseball League from 1946 until the league disbanded in 1953. Jean Faut is considered one of the best players in the league and many historians claim that she was the best over-handed pitcher in the league. Jean was a four-time All-star (1949, 1950, 1951, 1953) and two-time Player of the Year Award recipient (1951, 1953). She threw two perfect games and two no-hitters in her career, and is the All-time leader in ERA (1.23) among other records. She played for the South Bend Blue Sox her entire career from 1946-1953. Jean lived in Rock Hill, SC and died on February 28, 2023.

*for more about Jean Faut see Jim Sargent's article "Jean Faut" at the Society for American Research (SABR) website (link).
