Winnies Have Become Television Fiends; They Enjoy Murders And Comedies Alike

By NANCY DOSHER

"Red Nor Darl's - now here are some real treats in the way of home entertainment. For one day of the week, Murder and Comedy are only a push of the button away. And at the end of the week, Murder and Comedy are etched in our minds..."

"Red Nor Darl's is our real treat for all the week's troubles...

The program of the week is a mystery, a comedy, or a situation comedy, depending on what the producer decides for the night.

The producer, who is always a mystery to the audience, plans the program to suit the mood of the audience. He chooses the type of program to suit the audience, and the audience chooses the type of program to suit their mood.

The producer's name is never told to the audience, and the audience never knows the producer's name. The audience is left to their own devices to choose the type of program they want to see.
