ROCK HILL, S.C. — The group BreakSk8 flips, twirls and busts innovative dance moves in its high-powered routines—all on roller skates.

Now the break-dancing group will bring its talents to Winthrop University Friday night with a performance at 8 p.m. in Tillman Auditorium.

BreakSk8 formed in 2000 by session skaters in an Indiana skating rink. Bored with simply skating around the same rink, the group began traveling to rinks across the country and showing its skills. BreakSk8's first official show was in Orangeburg, S.C., and the group has since performed at home games for the National Basketball Association's Indiana Pacers and made appearances on "America's Got Talent" and MTV's "America's Best Dance Crew."

More recently, the group toured with singer Mariah Carey and embarked upon its own world tour.

"BreakSk8 is the biggest show outside of Welcome Week that DSU has ever brought," said Tevin Brown, special events chair for the DiGiorgio Student Union (DSU). "It will be a show that will keep the audience entertained from start to finish. The more people in the audience, the better the energy for the crew."

Tickets are $5 with a Winthrop ID, $10 to the public or free with a DSU Fall 2012 pass. It is a cultural event.
