"What We Live By"

By ALICE RAY

The letter was written before the students went to the Woodstock music festival. The students were very excited about the festival and were looking forward to seeing their favorite bands perform.

The letter is a personal account of the author's experience at the festival and how it impacted her. She describes the energy and atmosphere of the festival and how it brought people together.

The letter also touches on the significance of the festival as a cultural event and its impact on the music industry. It is a reflection on the power of music and how it can bring people together and create change.

The letter ends with a personal message to the recipient, expressing gratitude and love and signing off with "lots of love from Alice."
Dr. Gilbreth and Miss London Are Selected As Favorite Teachers By Class Of 1955

By SARAH FRANCES CARTY
Dr. Harold Gilbreth, head of the Division of Industrial Engineering at Miss Roberts London, of the 54,000 students enrolled at the University of Pennsylvania, was selected "Favorite Teacher" by the Class of 1955.

The honors were given in a contest which included 700 candidates, and with working with on the senior class "Senior Student Survey," Mrs. Gilbreth has been known to students in all areas of knowledge.

Miss London's advisory hours are from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m. Monday through Thursday in her office, and with students who have

Dr. Harold Gilbreth has been invited to address the University's Senior Class at the annual Senior Banquet. Mrs. Gilbreth has been selected "Favorite Teacher" by the Class of 1955.

Senior Banquet Marks 20th Anniversary

The annual Senior Banquet recognition, which this year celebrates the 20th anniversary, was held Monday night at Alumni Hall. The banquet is sponsored by the Class of 1955.

Among the guests were students, faculty members, and members of the Class of 1955.

"Class of 1955, as has been earned through experience. Experience, Mrs. Gilbreth has been described as a "great teacher" by those who have taken her courses.

"I heard she had been selected favorite teacher of the Class of 1955," said one of the students.

"Dr. Gilbreth has been known to students in all areas of knowledge. He has been invited to address the University's Senior Class at the annual Senior Banquet.""
