

10-23-1936

The Johnsonian October 23, 1936

Winthrop University

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.winthrop.edu/thejohnsonian1930s>

Recommended Citation

Winthrop University, "The Johnsonian October 23, 1936" (1936). The Johnsonian 1930-1939. 147.
<https://digitalcommons.winthrop.edu/thejohnsonian1930s/147>

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the The Johnsonian at Digital Commons @ Winthrop University. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Johnsonian 1930-1939 by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Winthrop University. For more information, please contact bramed@winthrop.edu.

The Johnsonian

THE OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF THE STUDENT BODY OF WINTHROP COLLEGE

VOL. 14, NO. 8

ROCK HILL, SOUTH CAROLINA, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1936

SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00 A YEAR

Featured Facts

A number of last year's graduating girls seem to be continuing their hard studying. A number of students have commented on the new spirit of earnest working that we noted recently.

Aside from the interval of club rushing, girls seem to be continuing their hard studying. A number of students have commented on the new spirit of earnest working that we noted recently.

There is no place in the college where a girl can be alone. Solitude is necessary occasionally, but Winthrop girls must do without it. What can be suggested as a remedy?

One of the faculty members frequently declares with emphasis that the attitudes of the student body are fixed by the attitudes of seniors; that seniors can make of the college what they will. Underclassmen will ape their actions.

The number of seniors who go on the annual trips to the State Fair and Washington decreases each year. Perhaps the reason is that there are so many more places than formerly where students may go for week-end holidays.

A northern visitor on the campus who has been to numbers of colleges said that Johnson Hall is the most beautiful of any of the student activity buildings he has seen.

Phi Upsilon Omicron Sends Seven Bids

Four seniors and three juniors received bids to Phi Upsilon Omicron, home economics fraternity, last week. Those receiving bids were: Sarah Harper, Andrews; Sarah Kiehl, Edgemoor; Lella Evans, Charleston; Ruby Louise Houston, Bennettsville; Katrina P. A. U. U. Alken; Hilda Thernburg, Bishopville; and Vivia Crow, Fairforest.

The pledges will be initiated and entertained at a formal banquet, November 14, when last year's members of the fraternity will return. The present members of Phi Upsilon Omicron are: Mary Wright, Christie Russell, Bobby Lane, Margaret McCallahan, Sue Flowers, Dorothy Frew, Mary Donald, Emma Lee Thomason, Beulah Mae Baker, Martha Owen, and Miss Craigwell, honor ary member.

WILL SPEAK AT VESPERS

Dr. William Way, of Charleston, will speak at vespers Sunday, October 19, in Johnson Hall. Dr. Way is an Episcopal minister.

Noel Overwhelms Goggans In Fierce Battle Of Words

"After listening to the perorations, periphrastics, and— I might say— periphrastics of these two, I am quite convinced that Master Thomas has defeated Sade, although I believe he didn't mean a word he said!" Thus spoke Dr. Elizabeth Johnson as she delivered the verdict upon the classic battle of words on the query, "Resolved: That man is more intelligent than woman." Sade (Miss Goggans) affirmed, upholding the ill-starred affirmative side of the query, attempted to prove her side objectively and scientifically. Miss Goggans used the following points in her valiant effort to

TRAINING SCHOOL PLANS EXCHANGE

Winthrop Schedules Fall Transfers For Week Of November 16-22

SEMI-ANNUAL PROGRAM

Graduates Of Any College May Take Part In This Project

The Fall Teacher Exchange Program of Winthrop Training School is scheduled for the week of November 16-22, according to the announcement of Mr. O. M. Mitchell, superintendent of Winthrop Training School.

This year graduates of any institution may participate in the exchange, as was the case last year when one hundred and seventy-six teachers took part.

The purpose of the exchange program is to acquaint the student teacher with the problems found in the field and to offer to the teachers the best opportunity of checking their work with the methods, materials, and techniques used in Winthrop Training School.

Seniors majoring on the three lines—Primary, Intermediate, and High School—will be in special subjects—School Music, Physical Education, Home Economics, Commercial Science, and Art—participate in the exchange program.

The senior doing exchange teaching, reports to the school to which she has been assigned on Monday morning of exchange week and observes on that day the regular teacher who conducts the class.

The number of seniors who go on the annual trips to the State Fair and Washington decreases each year. Perhaps the reason is that there are so many more places than formerly where students may go for week-end holidays.

BOOK AND KEY CONDUCTS RITES

Alumnae Returns to Initiate New Members, Saturday, October 17.

Fourteen seniors were inducted into the membership of the Book and Key, honor society, Saturday night, October 17. Alumnae returning to conduct the initiation were Mrs. J. B. Harley, Jr. (Gladie Mae McGee), first president of the organization; Mrs. Pitts, second president; Mrs. Bob Snook (Catherine Hunt Pauling), Mabel Brown, and Mary Stuart Smith.

Following the initiation ritual, Mrs. J. W. McCain, Jr., served refreshments to the group.

Those initiated were as follows: Virginia McGee, president; Lilla Buck, vice-president; Gladys Guyton, secretary; Bobbie James, treasurer; Elizabeth Berry, Marguerite Zeigler, Laura Vance Martin, Alene McDaniell, Elizabeth Cochran, Rachael Kay, Annie Rosenbaum, Mary Caroline Upton, Mary O'Connell, and Martha Miller Moore. Dr. Donald Martin and Mr. J. W. McCain, Jr., are faculty advisors.

Master Thomas (Mr. Noel) to you! (Continued on Page Four)

Next Week at Winthrop

- Friday: 6:30—Johnson Hall—V-October Birthday Party.
- Saturday: 7:30—Main Auditorium—picture show.
- 9:30-11:00—Johnson Hall—Masquerade Dance.
- Sunday: 9:30-12:00—Churches of the City—Sunday school and Church services.
- 4:30—Johnson Hall—Vesper.
- Monday: 6:00—Olio Hall—Parliamentary Drill by Dr. Kettin.
- Tuesday: 7:30—Dormitory parlors—Morning Watch.
- 12:30—Johnson Hall—Knitting class.
- 5:00—Olio Hall—Parliamentary Drill.
- 5:00—Johnson Hall—V Cabinet Meeting.
- 7:30—Johnson Hall—Choral Society.
- Wednesday: 12:30—Main Auditorium—Hum-Cap exercises.
- 4:30—Johnson Hall—Delta Sigma Omega.
- 4:30—Olio Hall—Debate's League.
- 5:00—Olio Hall—Parliamentary Drill.
- 8:30—Johnson Hall—V Recognition Service.
- Thursday: 2:30—Johnson Hall—Knitting Class.
- 5:00—Olio Hall—Parliamentary Drill.

OBITUARY

Herbert Hilditch, the pet gold fish of Dr. Wheeler, passed away Saturday, October 17, after an illness of some weeks.

Afflicted with black mold in the early fall, Herberthilditch was reported, nevertheless, to have recovered sufficiently to be returned to the fish pond, where he had many friends and relatives, which he had a sudden relapse, and his death came Saturday-morning, October 17, and comit.

1936 Senior Order Members Return

Six of the 1936 Senior Order members returned last week-end for the installation of the new members, Louise Howe, Mary Stuart Mills, Doi Manning, Mrs. Bob Snook (Catherine Hunt Pauling), Evelyn Rhoads, and Mabel Brown, were the alumnae who were present for the initiation.

TWO STUDENTS PUBLISH POEMS

Emily Harrison and Margaret Blanton Receive Recognition for Poetry

Emily Harrison, junior of York, and Margaret Blanton, sophomore of Charleston, have recently received recognition for poems they have written.

Emily Harrison is one of the ten poets who received special mention in the October issue of Homebody Magazine for contributions containing original poems. Of the recognition she received, Emily says, "This is my first contribution to any publication; so I was glad to receive recognition. I don't know where the idea will strike me again."

Junior Forum Hears Dr. Helen Macdonald

Dr. Helen Macdonald spoke in the meeting of Junior Forum at the Hotel of Johnson Hall on Thursday, October 15. The New York Herald-Tribune Convention on Current Affairs, which Macdonald attended, was the subject of her talk. Coffee and sandwiches were served.

Social Worker

MISS MARY CALVERT, of the Political and Social Science department, who is directing the case work in social service.

DELEGATION VISITS FAIR

Ninety-Nine Seniors Make Annual Trip to Columbia

Ninety-nine Winthrop seniors, accompanied by a number of the officers of the college, attended the State Fair in Columbia yesterday.

Mrs. Kate G. Hardin, Miss Eva Bishop, Miss Gladys Smith, Mrs. Mary O. Matlyra, and Miss Lella Russell were with the group.

SIMS SPEAKS IN CHAPEL

Senator From Orangeburg Discusses Social Security

Mr. Henry P. Sims, Senator from Orangeburg, and chairman of the legislative committee on Social Security, in a speech at assembly Wednesday, October 15, told what was being done and what needed to be done in South Carolina to provide social security.

Social service activities provided in the federal act, include, according to Senator Sims, social security for dependents, including the aged, unemployed men and women, children who are orphans, and the physically handicapped.

Acts passed by the South Carolina legislature are not as inclusive. Senator Sims explained, as the Federal Act's security Act.

Miss Hoffman Visits Campus

Miss Lillian Hoffman, State Supervisor of Home Economics from the State Department of Education, visited the campus from Saturday, October 17 through Wednesday, October 19. While here she attended the Home Economics Conference for the Rock Hill District, held at Training School, Over Forty Home Economics Seniors were present at the conference.

Undergoing Improvements

McLAURIN, whose residents are setting a new pace in improving dormitory life.

SOCIAL CASE WORK BEGINS

Students Obtain Practical Experience By Work With Charlotte Group

MISS CALVERT DIRECTS

Family Service Association Welcomes Cooperation of Social Science Majors

Social case work by Winthrop students, under the direction of Miss Mary Calvert, began this week in Charlotte. The first two days were spent in reading case records and becoming acquainted with various Charlotte officials.

The class of six students goes to Charlotte on Monday and Wednesday afternoons to work in cooperation with the Family Service Association. The aim of the course is to give a comprehensive idea of what actual social case work is and what it includes in its scope.

Major Douglas, of Charlotte, welcomed Miss Calvert and the students to the City Hall Wednesday, where they were visiting the various public offices.

The Family Service Association is a member of the Family Welfare Association of America. Prior to 1921, it was known as the Associated Charities, which was founded in 1860. Eighteen to twenty thousand individuals are served yearly. Not only relief cases, but also unemployment are helped.

Senior Fearlessly Exhibits Ignorance

Can you spell the name of your college president?

There's a remarkable story going around about a senior who evidently couldn't.

Dr. Phelps had come to have his "taster" picture made. After the preliminary remarks, there was a silence while Dr. Phelps was properly composing himself and the girl in charge of the desk was filling out the information blanks. Suddenly she looked up and—four years of Winthrop notwithstanding—asked, "And how do you spell your first name, Dr. Phelps?"

"Inferiority Complex" Is Psychology Topic

"The Inferiority Complex" was the subject of discussion at the regular bi-monthly meeting of Alpha Psi Zeta, psychology fraternity, at 6 o'clock Thursday, October 15, in Johnson Hall.

South Makes Innovations To Improve Social Life

A kitchen with modern equipment, recreation room on each floor, a rest room, frequent dormitory tea, and all-girl dances are among the innovations South is making to improve the social life of the dormitory.

As one of the improvements, room 21 on first floor has been converted into a kitchen. An electric refrigerator and stove, a sink, and cabinets have already been installed. A breakfast nook has been added in one corner of the room. Numerous plugs for those who have electric hot plates will be put in.

Figures Show Increase In N. Y. A. Employment

Winthrop Casts Votes In National Election

Next Tuesday Winthrop will elect the president of the United States.

Students and faculty members will have the opportunity to vote by regular secret ballot on any of the presidential candidates. Electors will be chosen from the Winthrop student body.

Voting will take place in the halls in front of the post office, Tuesday, October 27.

DRAMATIC CLUB HAS TEA PARTY

Japanese Motif Features Event Of Alpha Psi Omega

Members of Alpha Psi Omega entertained The Masquers at a Japanese Tea, Tuesday afternoon at 4:45 in The Masquer Room. Miss Florence Mims, in Japanese dress, acted as hostess, and the old and new members of Alpha Psi Omega were in the rooming line.

Miss Mims talked very informally of Japanese customs and related several personal experiences she had while in Japan. She gave a brief account of Japan's national anthem. Following this account, Eva Fair sang the anthem in its native form.

"Y" COMMITTEES HOLD MEETING

Mina Neussmer, President of the "Y," Explains the Work of the Organization

At a joint meeting of all Y. W. O. A. committees in Johnson Hall, Tuesday, October 20, Mina Neussmer introduced the members of the advisory board and explained briefly the work of the "Y" and of the "Y" committee.

In speaking of the work of the "Y," Mina stated: "The primary function of an association like ours is to discover the real values of religion—the things that really matter and count—and get them things into our everyday lives. You, as committee members, will be the ones to do just this—to make our purpose a reality."

After the general meeting, the committees assembled separately to discuss their work. Nancy Bealy, chairman of the social committee, assisted by members of her committee, served cinnamon toast and tea.

Dr. Wheeler Returns After Short Illness

Dr. Paul M. Wheeler, head of the English department, has returned to his classroom after being ill with influenza last week.

Government Agency Enables Many to Attend College

178 ARE NOW WORKING

Workers Assist in Many Capacities at College and in Town

"An increase from 148 to 178 students employed by the N. Y. A. at Winthrop College has been made for the year 1936-37, due to the drought in South Carolina this past summer," announced Mr. Alex Gramham, Bureau, today.

Students receiving N. Y. A. work are chosen by a committee for eligibility of appointment which takes into consideration both the scholastic and financial standing of the applicant. The program at Winthrop means approximately this: that about 178 more girls have been permitted to attend college during the year 1936-37 than otherwise would have been permitted.

Many types of work are being done by those receiving N. Y. A. appointments. Two or more girls are conducting seasonal programs in each of five public high schools. One girl assists in the public library; two churches are given office assistance. There are approximately fifteen girls employed in the Training School, assisting in the various activities and departments, including library supervision.

A number of girls are employed in several departments of the college: namely, the library, and biology, chemistry, physics, home economics, English, French history and education departments.

Several dormitories have student (Continued on Page Four)

THE JOHNSONIAN

Issued Weekly During School Year Except Holiday Periods. During the Regular Session, The Official Organ of the Student Body of Winthrop College, The South Carolina College for Women.

Entered as second-class matter November 21, 1929, under the Act of March 3, 1879, at the postoffice in Rock Hill, S. C.

Member of South Carolina Press Association

Table with 3 columns: Name, Position, and Contact Information. Includes Editor-in-Chief, Business Manager, and Reporters.

CAN YOU STUDY?

One out of three Winthrop Freshmen failed in two or more subjects last year. These statistics are quoted in the discussion of many campus problems.

We believe that Freshmen, like many upperclassmen, simply do not know how to study. Too often we neglect during our high school years to form study habits.

In college we are required to make adjustments to a new kind of life, to tackle difficult subjects, and to work out each kind of method of study.

Freshmen advisers try to help students make these adjustments. We feel that something more is needed. Could there be worked out a series of lectures or group discussions on how to study?

Group discussions or study lectures would furnish for the Freshman who really wants to know how to study an opportunity to learn. In such discussions, upperclassmen could throw out some of their own problems.

Lectures or discussions of how to study may be, we feel, one step in solving the problem of student failures. The Johnsonian, beginning this issue, will attempt to offer definite suggestions on "How to Study" through the eyes of persons who ought to know.

"I GO TO WINTHROP"

When you say "I go to Winthrop," what is the reaction of your hearer? Does he think of a college where girls are developed into fine women? Where intellectual freedom is a principle of classroom work, and students make a use of these principles in meeting situations outside the classroom?

You can make Winthrop what you want it to be: Classes can become stimulating, for teachers grasp at the chance to conduct a class that is responsive. Dormitory life can be rid of hampering restrictions. Everyone realizes that rules in themselves are useless. No rule ever devised can make you do what you don't want to do.

Never before, we believe, has Winthrop been so ready for change. The administration is pleading with us to take matters into our own hands—to make of Winthrop an ideal college.

WORTHY OF MORE PRIVILEGES?

The privilege of having them is one which, as most of us know, is now under consideration by the student Senate. According to the opinion of most of us, the sooner we are permitted to have radios, the better off we shall be.

Each of us understands clearly that we are allowed only one light-cut per week. Yet, since we have been granted this privilege, how many of us have used only one light cut each week? Most of us have kept our lights on every night as long as we pleased, unless one in authority has happened to see them.

Through the efforts of the Senate, we have been permitted to accept rides to and from town. We, however, have gone beyond the point of accepting rides. We have engaged in the objectionable practice of soliciting rides; or, as we put it, "thumbing to town".

And despite the recent action taken in some dormitories, our conduct during quiet hour and our respect for "Do Not Disturb" signs are still very far from ideal.

By our disregard for these rules, we are showing the administration that we will not conform to the regulations which we now have; that we will not accept in the right spirit the privileges already granted. If the administration should permit us to have radios, what proof has it that we will use this privilege with reason and thought for those about us? Until we show ourselves worthy of new privileges because we regard the old rightly, can we expect to be given any further advantages?

If we are not "faithful in little things", can we expect to be made "ruler over many things"?

WINTHROP DAY BY DAY

The calendar pays tribute to the Seniors: on display there, now, is a bracelet, chain buttons and the college seal. Senior class mascot, you will recall, is the bulldog.

The social clubs on the campus have suddenly gone Rah-Rah. Joe Colberg, Betty Coed or you name it with their favors and place-cards at banquets.

Claret affords a grand opportunity for studying colfours. In the senior section, eight out of every ten have long hair, turned up in the back. This, combined with the uniformity of dress, tends to leave little opportunity for individuality.

Nursery rhymes are all right until they are repeated so often they sound just as good written than they are spoken.

Mary Lamb had a little fish she knew what fished as while and every went that Mary whore fier go was lamb to sure.

I have a little dog named Don I've had him since he was a little puzzy pup. He sits back on his hind legs and holds his little tail traps up. He tags his little wall and says Wew-wew.

Two of Winthrop's State Park delegation (they refuse to be mentioned) were invited to go on display in one of the Furniture booths Thursday, to add a collegiate atmosphere to its show window. The room, they say, was an ideal, not typical, one, and they feared lest they feel lost amidst foreign surroundings.

Miss Post is proud of her archery club—has increased in number this year... The ever popular bowling keeps students and faculty trim.

Ground-sticks... ground-sticks... ground-sticks... they're off down the field! Right now all eyes are turned to the hockey field.

Mr. Tutwiler, hostess of Bancroft Hall, has given her opinion on a question which is now being discussed.

Do you consider that the present system of government in the dormitories is satisfactory?

So far as the preservation of order and high standards of light ball are concerned, the present system with the faithful and tactful performance of house officers and the cooperation of student residents, can be made effective.

How do you think the relation between dormitory board members and the student residents could be improved?

With the maintenance of order and high standards as the chief objective, the position of house president might be broadened to include that of student hostess, which would involve a more vital interest in dormitory family life, promoting not only a spirit of family responsibility and obligation, but also one of good fellowship, aided by occasional social activities.

We read of light receiving-sets which are practically fool-proof. About eight feet away is the fool-proof microphone—Punch.

JUST LINES

Dear Mother, Six weeks' rest, work, and homesickness have filled the past week. This letter, therefore might take a philosophical turn.

The campus has been quite swifter this week-end with that year's graduates who came back for Senior Order and Book and Key initiation. I overheard one exclaiming that the fall even worse than a freshman. I don't quite know how to take that, but my heart goes out in sympathy.

I should end this with some cheery note of sunshine, but I'll only send Love, SALLY.

HOW TO STUDY

BY PROFESSOR WILLIS D. MAGGINS (Editor's Note: The Johnsonian, in an attempt to be of service to its readers, will run a series of columns on "How to Study," written each week by various persons qualified to give advice.)

- 1. Believe in yourself. You are able to do this task if you give yourself a fair chance. 2. MAKE and KEEP a study schedule... a study schedule is JUST AS IMPORTANT as a resolution schedule. 3. Have all necessary tools for work at hand... a Dictionary, Reference Books, paper, ink, etc., etc. 4. Make sure that you understand each assignment made by your teacher... assignments may add joy. The purpose for study is in the assignment. 5. Study to earn self-respect as well as teacher-respect.

About The Gym

Mixed around the gym: Misses Welton and Hammond, Mary Eason, Maurine Murray, Marjorie Mitchell, Myrtle McKelvin, and Mary Hilton—the the snobs... in Philadelphia and neighboring country seeing the international hockey tournaments.

Public Speech (Fossil), by Arnold Mackleish. Good, probably — engaging reading, certainly.

I Am the Fox, by Winifred Van Etten. A dreary book full of meanly, miserable people—no humor, thick, sticky sarcasm—was the $10.00 Atlantic pet.

"Birthdays" has changed from a literary to a popular magazine, not like the "Lady's Home Journal" but on the order of "Town and Country," with thick expensive paper and the advertisements in the front of the book.

Every month "Birthdays" has a story by a new writer, with illustrations by a new illustrator. This month the story is by Ben Seaman, by Leon McCachy, twenty-nine year old inmate of a Wisconsin prison.

WHY TEACHERS GET MARRIED Question: What are glaciars? Answer: Guys that fix windows when they are broken.

Q. What is a pantaloons? A. A bird that lives on icebergs. Q. What is a volcano? A. A mountain with a hole in the top. If you look down you can see the crater smoking.

Q. Why does a dog hang out its tongue while running? A. To balance its tail. Q. What is steel wool? A. The fleece of a hydraulic room.

Westminster Abbey. A. The seven wonders of the world are: The Mausoleum at Halicarnassus, The Hanging Gardens of Babylon, The Statue of Zeus at Olympia, The Phoenix of Alexandria, The Temple of Diana at Ephesus, The Colossus of Rhodes, The Great Pyramid.

I kissed her tripping lily lips An act quite diabolic For she stole those honored lips I have the painter's colic.

P. S. We wonder if he's read "Four Money's Worth" Our anxious thoughts for today happened to cross from several external observations. It's more of a hope, less than a mere thought!

According to The Boston Evening Transcript: "Women are going to pay more attention to their stockings this fall and winter, says Miss Edna Gray, home economics specialist, at University of Illinois, because the new style skirt 'will be shorter.' And analgesic

Here lies wife's left of Mary Jones. Underneath those polished stones. Her name is really Brown, not Jones. But Brown didn't rhyme with polished stones. So... Censored. College Humor.

Accord to The Boston Evening Transcript: "Women are going to pay more attention to their stockings this fall and winter, says Miss Edna Gray, home economics specialist, at University of Illinois, because the new style skirt 'will be shorter.' And analgesic

Why does a dog hang out its tongue while running? A. To balance its tail. Q. What is steel wool? A. The fleece of a hydraulic room.

Why does a dog hang out its tongue while running? A. To balance its tail. Q. What is steel wool? A. The fleece of a hydraulic room.

Personalities

Mary Seane... president of Athletic Association... senior... majoring in physical education... angular-looking... quiet... good disposition... on numerous teams... basketball... hockey... baseball... variety member of basketball and hockey teams... belongs to Senior Order... Beta Beta Beta... Porcupine and Scalpel... Physical Education Club... nicely distinguished student.

A scientist declares that fish are the only living creatures never troubled with influenza. This is because of the ample opportunities they have for gargling—Passing Show.

Canvassing Campuses

CO-ED CHEERLEADERS OF SAGA BARBARA ST. CHLIEGE. WERE PRESENTED WITH THIS ANIMATED HANGOVER MEASURING 22 INCHES IN DIAMETER. IT CONSISTS OF 45 POUNDS OF GRAND STEAK, 15 POUNDS OF CHEESE, 3 GALLONS OF MANDRAKINE, 3 QUARTS OF SALVE, 2 POUNDS OF SALT, 1 POUND OF PEPPER, AND 8 HEADS OF LETTUCE!

Perhaps it's getting a bit late to start teaching football etiquette, but we are rushing in—before the last and most important games—a few hints to football fans:

To Co-eds: 1. Dress carefully and remember that clothes make a football game. 2. Don't ask your escort why they're chasing the poor boy with the ball. But, on the contrary, don't display a technical knowledge of the game. No date likes a Ted Hunting. Just cheer with the rest of the crowd and you'll be safe. 3. Don't ever wear smoked glasses. They may be such a complete disguise that no one will realize you are the girl in the stunning new costume—and what a tragedy that would be!

To the Men: (The reason we print this part is obvious to you Winthropians, of course.) 1. You may dress carefully, too. If you wish, but it's just like a wedding—no one ever looks at the man. 2. Make bets on the game (one each way, if possible), and mention them. Men who take chances are always admired. 3. Get all the dope you can and then talk plenty about the game. Your girl friend may know more about it than you, but if she has read Rule 2, to Co-eds, she'll play dumb and let you talk.

To Both: Come a few minutes late and stop over other people's feet to avoid the same thing happening to you if you're earlier. —The Gamecock.

F. C.'s Glancey seems to be trying to swamp the place of Oscar of the Tiger in sex attractions. Incidentally, we're anxious to see how The Slim Stocking would flash their little spigars.

According to The Citadel Bulletin: In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of things which women have been thinking of all winter.

We notice that in "The Old Gold and Black" Wofford has expressed, by an Editorial, the need of extended rushing and rebeltastic requirements for pledging in order to improve upon their present system of obtaining new members in their fraternities. It's pleasant to notice that we have already established something on our campus that other schools use a century far, isn't it?

Here lies wife's left of Mary Jones. Underneath those polished stones. Her name is really Brown, not Jones. But Brown didn't rhyme with polished stones. So... Censored. College Humor.

Accord to The Boston Evening Transcript: "Women are going to pay more attention to their stockings this fall and winter, says Miss Edna Gray, home economics specialist, at University of Illinois, because the new style skirt 'will be shorter.' And analgesic

Why does a dog hang out its tongue while running? A. To balance its tail. Q. What is steel wool? A. The fleece of a hydraulic room.

Why does a dog hang out its tongue while running? A. To balance its tail. Q. What is steel wool? A. The fleece of a hydraulic room.

Why does a dog hang out its tongue while running? A. To balance its tail. Q. What is steel wool? A. The fleece of a hydraulic room.

Why does a dog hang out its tongue while running? A. To balance its tail. Q. What is steel wool? A. The fleece of a hydraulic room.

Why does a dog hang out its tongue while running? A. To balance its tail. Q. What is steel wool? A. The fleece of a hydraulic room.

Why does a dog hang out its tongue while running? A. To balance its tail. Q. What is steel wool? A. The fleece of a hydraulic room.

Why does a dog hang out its tongue while running? A. To balance its tail. Q. What is steel wool? A. The fleece of a hydraulic room.

Why does a dog hang out its tongue while running? A. To balance its tail. Q. What is steel wool? A. The fleece of a hydraulic room.

Why does a dog hang out its tongue while running? A. To balance its tail. Q. What is steel wool? A. The fleece of a hydraulic room.

Why does a dog hang out its tongue while running? A. To balance its tail. Q. What is steel wool? A. The fleece of a hydraulic room.

Why does a dog hang out its tongue while running? A. To balance its tail. Q. What is steel wool? A. The fleece of a hydraulic room.

Why does a dog hang out its tongue while running? A. To balance its tail. Q. What is steel wool? A. The fleece of a hydraulic room.

Why does a dog hang out its tongue while running? A. To balance its tail. Q. What is steel wool? A. The fleece of a hydraulic room.

Why does a dog hang out its tongue while running? A. To balance its tail. Q. What is steel wool? A. The fleece of a hydraulic room.

WINTHROP IN "WHO'S WHO"

Book of Notables Lists Dr. Phelps, Dr. Kinard, and Dr. Naudain

President Shelton Phelps, Dr. James P. Kinard, and Dr. Glenn G. Naudain, of Winthrop, are listed in the 1936-37 edition of "Who's Who in America."

Dr. Phelps received his B. S. degree from Missouri State College and his M. A. and Ph.D. degrees from George Peabody College for Teachers. He has been a member of the faculty of Missouri State Teachers' College of the University of Vermont, and George Peabody College for Teachers. From 1911 till 1934, when he came to Winthrop to serve as president, Dr. Phelps was dean of the graduate school of George Peabody College. He is the author of several books on school administration.

Dr. James P. Kinard, President Emeritus of Winthrop, received the M. A. and Ph.D. degrees from The Citadel, and the Ph. D. degree from Johns Hopkins University. Dr. Kinard has been a member of The Citadel and Winthrop faculties and served as dean of Winthrop from 1917 till 1929 and as president from 1929 to 1934. He is the author of "Our Language," "English Language and Literature," and editor of "Old English Ballads."

Dr. Glenn G. Naudain, head of the chemistry department at Winthrop, received his B. S., M. S., and Ph. D. degrees from Iowa State College. He also received a D. Sc. degree from Kansas State Teachers College. Dr. Naudain has been a member of the faculty of Iowa State College Agriculture and Mechanical Arts and Kansas State College. He is the author of "Food and Physiological Chemistry."

A Cleveland, Ohio, wife complained that her night-club manager had never got home late in the fact that he, thinking him a stranger, bit him one night by mistake. So the judge ordered the husband to come home at least one night a week.—Literary Digest.

An Iowa has traced 35,000 living relatives, which is better than to have 38,000 living relatives trace him.—Louisville Times.

NOVICES Anyone wishing to try out for the Poetry Society, should submit at least two poems by Friday, November 5, to Elizabeth Mitchell, 263 South, or Box 513.

B. S. U. HOLDS CONVENTION

Helen Craig of Winthrop Elected First Vice-President

Helen Craig, Winthrop freshman, of Warrenton, was elected first vice-president of the South Carolina Baptist Student Union at the state convention held at Clemson, Friday through Sunday, October 18-19. Mrs. A. C. Payne, of Clemson College, was elected president of B. S. U. Convention for the coming year. The theme of the conference was "The Will of God." Evelyn Brock, Winthrop senior, was president of the convention.

Among the speakers were Dr. E. W. Sites, president of Clemson College; Dr. W. D. Maginnis, Winthrop College; Dr. John L. Hill, Nashville, Tennessee; and Dr. Charles A. Jones, of Columbia.

Winthrop students attending the convention were: Odessa Lee, Dorothy Hair, Werner Ruth Troller, Mary Schofield, Deane Hill, Oliver Wilson, Dorothy Miller, Helen Bryant, Elizabeth Stone, Nettie Wells, Mebel Wilson Ann Hill, Ruth Harvey, Elizabeth Kennedy, Sarah Wolford, Eunice Garrison, Evelyn Brock, E. A. Preston, Katharine Freeman, "Lulu" Smith, Virie Crow, Adele Ulmer, Margaret Shirley, Louise Hall, Mary Wade, and Anne Burnett.

At the business session following the program, the three societies voted jointly to ask the Senate to submit some plan for the selection of marshals.

Teacher-Librarian Trained by Course

"The new library science course is designed to fill the Winthrop graduates to fill the position of teacher-librarian in the high schools of South Carolina," said Mrs. Leon Spain, in stating the purpose of this new course at Winthrop. Mrs. Spain is the instructor of this recently added course at Winthrop.

"There will be more and more positions available for girls trained in library science, because, as the Southern Association of Secondary Schools requires schools to have librarians in order to be accredited, there will be an ever increasing demand for the teacher-librarian," said Mrs. Spain in speaking of the course.

"This course in library science is for Juniors and Seniors, and may be counted as a minor or as an elective. It includes study on the administration and management of a school library, the technical process of cataloging and classification being simplified for school use. Courses on children's and adolescents' literature will include both recreational and reference books, ways of getting books to students, and the use of books. The final course is the actual practice in the Training School Library. Then, the students will carry out to practice the actual management of a library and see how it works in reality.

"Students who take this library work have two fields open to them, because they are not limited to teaching only," said Mrs. Spain in emphasizing the great demand for the teacher-librarian.

Mrs. Spain received her library training at Emory University in Atlanta, obtaining her B. A. degree in Library Science there. She has had actual library experience in the Jacksonville, Florida, Library.

When Planning to Build or Remodel Consult

Catawba Lumber Company

T. elephone 148

IF IT'S BLOCKING WE CAN DO IT

Get Your Knitting Suggestions From Us

We Can Solve All Measurement Problems and We Keep Your Personal Measurements on File for Future Reference

SHERER'S CLEANERS AND DYERS

SOCIETIES HEAR MRS. J. P. KINARD

Reviews "Come With the Wind"; Miss Wardle Sings

Mrs. James P. Kinard discussed "Come With the Wind," by Margaret Mitchell, at a joint meeting of the three Literary Societies, Monday, October 26.

Giving the story of the book, Mrs. Kinard remarked of it, "Once you start reading this book you just can't stop until you have finished its one thousand and thirty-seven pages. At first it seemed to me that the book had no theme; but after reading it twice I concluded that the theme was the weakness of Southern society, at the time of the Civil War."

Proceeding Mrs. Kinard's discussion, Miss Constance Wardle, accompanied by Marie Powers, sang songs belonging to the Civil War period, "Long, Long Ago," "Last Rose of Summer," "I Dream of Jeanie," and "O Susannah," were her selections.

At the business session following the program, the three societies voted jointly to ask the Senate to submit some plan for the selection of marshals.

Tri Beta Sponsors Masquerade Ball

A masquerade ball, sponsored by Tri Beta, will be held Saturday night, October 24, in Johnson Hall, from nine to eleven o'clock. All members of the faculty and student body are invited.

A floor show, prizes for the best dancing couple and the best costume will be features of the ball. A small admission fee will be charged.

When football men at the University of Mississippi go around "booging" it's not to relax. They vote Bing Crosby as their favorite radio star not long ago.

Dr. L. P. Campbell of Rush Medical College has the answer to a fat man's prayer: a reducing diet that allows heavy eating.—Blue Stocking.

training at Emory University in Atlanta, obtaining her B. A. degree in Library Science there. She has had actual library experience in the Jacksonville, Florida, Library.

PRINTING

Consult Us for Your Needs

Programs, Stationery
Cards, Engraving

•

THE RECORD PRINTING COMPANY

ROGER BROOKS, Manager

Phone 164

When Planning to Build or Remodel Consult

Catawba Lumber Company

T. elephone 148

IF IT'S BLOCKING WE CAN DO IT

Get Your Knitting Suggestions From Us

We Can Solve All Measurement Problems and We Keep Your Personal Measurements on File for Future Reference

SHERER'S CLEANERS AND DYERS

Dr. Keith Explains Parliamentary Law

A school of parliamentary law will be held by Dr. Warren G. Keith in Clio Hall, Monday through Friday, October 26-30, at five o'clock.

Anyone interested in learning parliamentary law is invited to attend the drills.

GERMANY IS L. R. C. TOPIC

Rachel Hay Wins Extemporaneous Contest Held in Connection With Meet

"Germany and Europe" was the topic discussed at a meeting of the International Relations Club in Clio Hall, Wednesday, October 21, at 4:30. Rachel Hay was winner of the extemporaneous contest held in connection with the meeting.

The Strawberry Leaf, honorary debating fraternity of Winthrop, invited for membership Mary Louise Ratchford and Fayre Hilton.

Popular Book Store
The largest used book store in New England is located in Harvard square with a saleroom in Pemberton square on Beacon Hill.

Well patronized by Harvard students, the store, started by William L. Thain, 14 years ago, grew from a little shop on Massachusetts Avenue into an establishment of immense proportions.—Boston Evening Transcript.

The campaign orators have made at least one convert in their campaign to return to the "home and buggy days." He's a Back Lane City visitor who hitched his nag to an auto parking meter post.—Scranton Times.

UNDERWOOD TYPEWRITER CO.
Charlotte, N. C.

Complete Line of Sporting Goods

Basketball Tennis Golf Bicycles

Rock Hill Hardware Co.
Phone 413 We Deliver

Visit McCrory's Pet Department

THE TALK OF THE TOWN

BELK'S

COLLARS—The feature of these new neckwear fashions are silk plaques, rough crepe, jacquard satin and lace. They are close-fitting, small, and add a touch of freshness to your dark fall costume.

48 - 98

New flowers for the fall costume. Types suitable for the sport ensemble or afternoon frock.

25, 48, 59, 98

New made, soft and rough leather bags with smart stitching, bracket handles, outside handle pockets and basket straps. In navy, black, brown, maroon, Plimsa green.

1.00, 1.95, 2.95 and up

Van Raalle gloves in flannel cloth to wear with casual all-day clothes. Picnic and dinner costumes and made fabric with sport and tailored tops.

.98

HANDKERCHIEFS — Delany lace trimmed with hand embroidery and appealing fringes.

25, 48, 1.00

Colorful prints to adorn new handbags and go with new fall frocks.

.10, .19, 25

WARE SHOALS FORMS CHAPTER

Alumnae Plan Fifty-First Chapter—Miss Russell at Meeting

Ware Shoals Alumnae of Winthrop, will organize and form the fifty-first chapter of the Alumnae Association, according to an announcement made by Miss Lella Russell, alumnae executive secretary.

At a meeting Wednesday, October 14, which Miss Russell attended, Mrs. E. M. Higgins (Annie Reeves, '07), was appointed temporary chairman. The group decided to meet again, October 27, to make further plans.

Last week Miss Russell also visited alumnae groups in Abbeville and Eastly, where she is trying to organize chapters of the Alumnae Association, Abbeville, where Dr. D. Johnson, founder and first president of Winthrop College, began his work as an educator, is one of the few county seats in the state having no chapter of the Alumnae Association.

Miss Russell said, "I consider the trip very profitable. I not only got back through those groups the work carried on by the Alumnae Association, but also placed before them some of the needs of the college."

Singer Sewing Machine Company

Ma. as for Best Sewing Machine

CITY WHOLESALE CO.

UNDERWOOD TYPEWRITER CO.
Charlotte, N. C.

COX & POLK GARAGE
Corner of East White and Caldwell
Phone 297

WALDRUP SUPPLY CO.
Jobbers Heating, Plumbing and Electrical Supplies
Oakland Ave. Rock Hill, S. C.

Business Department Adds New Equipment

Thirty new typewriters, two book-keeping machines, and an automatic Monroe Calculator, are among the equipment that has been recently added to the Commercial Department.

The new typewriters include fifteen Royals, twelve Underwoods, and three L. C. Smiths. The book-keeping machines were purchased from the Fort Mill Bank.

New chairs and desks have also been installed in the Accounting Laboratory.

During the last seven years of Big Ten competition, Furde has won 28 games, lost 8, and tied 2 for a percentage of 77.

trip very profitable. I not only got back through those groups the work carried on by the Alumnae Association, but also placed before them some of the needs of the college."

ROLL DEVELOPED
5 Never-fade Velox Prints On ENLARGEMENT
JACK RABBIT CO. (Cont.)
Spartanburg, S. Carolina

F. W. Woolworth Co.
HALLOWEEN NOVELTIES AND CANDIES

Let Us Supply Your Party Needs
FLORIDA FRUIT STORE
On Oakland

BIGGERS BROTHERS, Inc.
WHOLESALE MERCHANTS

Fruits, Produce, Poultry and Eggs
301-3-5 South College Street
Charlotte, N. C.

WINS THE Beauty Contest
AMONG MODERN FOUNTAIN PENS

Full-length visible ink supply

PROOF NOT MORNIN'

—The Parker point is Scratch-proof —Parker's Platinum combined with 24K Gold.

Every student needs this miracle writer that doesn't "let you down" by running dry in class or exam. Go and see this luminous, lustrated Pearl Beauty at any good store selling pens. The Parker Pen Co., Jacksonville, Fla.

Parker
VACUUM FOUNTAIN PEN

Start the Fall term with the Pen that Students Rate Highest

—The sleeker Vacuum with Ever-Flowing Ink Supply and 1875 More Ink Capacity than Old Style — GUARANTEED Mechanically Perfect

Yes, other things being equal, style-minded people would choose the Parker Vacuum for beauty alone! Not other things, too, including performance, make this revolutionary invention the national favorite by a still larger margin—by 9 to 4.

One important difference—its ink supply is new visible—the ENTIRE length of the barrel. Thus it shows day ahead WHEN IT'S RUNNING LOW.

Another great difference is the patented Parker filler. There's no other like it. It requires no sliding piston (immersed in ink—its work parts are cooled in the work INK CAN NEVER TOUCH THEM—can never decompose them.)

Price, $3.00
One-Year, $5.00
Five-Year, $10.00

The Howard-Green Mints
WORKMAN-GREEN MINTS STORE

Winthrop Seals and Pins Watches and Jewelry
TUCKER'S JEWELRY STORE

Let Us Retread Your Old Tires

ROCK HILL BODY COMPANY
Phone 54 Black St.

F. W. Woolworth Co.
HALLOWEEN NOVELTIES AND CANDIES

Let Us Supply Your Party Needs
FLORIDA FRUIT STORE
On Oakland

BIGGERS BROTHERS, Inc.
WHOLESALE MERCHANTS

Fruits, Produce, Poultry and Eggs
301-3-5 South College Street
Charlotte, N. C.

WINS THE Beauty Contest
AMONG MODERN FOUNTAIN PENS

Full-length visible ink supply

PROOF NOT MORNIN'

—The Parker point is Scratch-proof —Parker's Platinum combined with 24K Gold.

Every student needs this miracle writer that doesn't "let you down" by running dry in class or exam. Go and see this luminous, lustrated Pearl Beauty at any good store selling pens. The Parker Pen Co., Jacksonville, Fla.

Parker
VACUUM FOUNTAIN PEN

Start the Fall term with the Pen that Students Rate Highest

—The sleeker Vacuum with Ever-Flowing Ink Supply and 1875 More Ink Capacity than Old Style — GUARANTEED Mechanically Perfect

Yes, other things being equal, style-minded people would choose the Parker Vacuum for beauty alone! Not other things, too, including performance, make this revolutionary invention the national favorite by a still larger margin—by 9 to 4.

One important difference—its ink supply is new visible—the ENTIRE length of the barrel. Thus it shows day ahead WHEN IT'S RUNNING LOW.

Another great difference is the patented Parker filler. There's no other like it. It requires no sliding piston (immersed in ink—its work parts are cooled in the work INK CAN NEVER TOUCH THEM—can never decompose them.)

Price, $3.00
One-Year, $5.00
Five-Year, $10.00

CHURCH TO MEET WITH DIRECTORS

Columbia Professor to Help With Plans for Spring SUPERVISORS MEET

Sextette, Orchestra, and Band Will Perform—All Supervisors Invited Again

Mr. Norvall Church, Associate Professor of Music Education at Columbia University, will meet with the music directors of South Carolina tomorrow in Johnson Hall to discuss the annual spring concert.

All supervisors who have ever entered students in this contest, have been invited back to plan for the contest next spring, and to select the contest numbers.

The college sextette will sing several of the vocal numbers considered. The college orchestra will play the selections for the orchestra contest, and a select band of thirty pieces, from the Charlotte High School, under the direction of Mr. L. F. Sides, will play the band selections.

By his criticism, suggestions, and comments, Mr. Church will enable the supervisors to get the correct interpretation of the numbers.

Faculty, officers, and students of Winthrop are invited to attend any of the discussions, which will be held from 8:30 to 3:30.

NOEL OVERHEARS COGGANS IN FIERCE BATTLE OF WORDS

(Continued From Page One)

quite simply but quite convincingly stated no time in hearing from the eloquent speech of the affirmative. He proved with examples from Biblical history, ordinary history, and contemporary history, woman's superiority. His examples were Eve, Ruth, Esther, Deborah, Cleopatra, Martha Washington, Eleanor Roosevelt, and Mrs. Simpson.

"Women are not so much politicians than men," he declared, "they show more interest in that than men; that they spend sixty per cent of the money; that they do all the courting; although they are so clever about it that they make men think themselves doltier than they are." Then, to put teeth into his argument, Mr. Noel stated that women are so much more intelligent than their male friends that they have rights at the tender age of eighteen which are withheld from men until they are twenty-one.

Dr. Johnson presented the coveted blue ribbon, denoting first place, to Master Thomas. Sadie received the coveted red ribbon of second place.

Miss Mims Gives Hawaiian Party

Members of the Maqueps were guests at a Hawaiian party given by their sponsor, Miss Florence Mims, at 9:30 o'clock Thursday, October 14, in the Maqueps room in Johnson Hall.

Miss Mims, wearing a lei, a garland of hibiscus, talked to the club about Hawaii, and Eva Fair, also wearing a lei of flowers, sang "Aloha Oe," a Hawaiian song.

Lochie King, as the winner of a rhyme-writing contest, was given a picture of a Hawaiian scene, which Miss Mims had brought with her from Hawaii this summer.

Refreshments consisted of little cakes and a salad, appropriately made of Hawaiian fruit: pineapples, bananas, coconuts, and cherries.

LOST AND FOUND

LOST: Literature and Life, Book 3, 1938 edition. Probably left in library on Thursday night, Oct. 13. If found, please return to Elizabeth Walker, 283 South or Box #14.

LOST: Y. W. C. A. president's pin—small, round, blue. If found, please return to Box #87 or #115.

For the Best of Everything in Groceries

Phone 114

SIMPLEX GROCERY

"Let's Sing Again" To Be Shown Saturday Night

"Let's Sing Again," with a cast composed of Bobby Brown, Henry Armetta, Grant Withers, and George Houston will be shown in Main Auditorium, Saturday night, October 14, at 7:30.

As the story opens in Italy, Alice deceives her husband, Leon, who is an opera singer, and takes their infant child with her. Years pass, the mother dies, and Billy is an inmate of an orphan home.

He is discovered by Paquale, once a great singer, but now a clown in a traveling show. He hears Billy sing and takes him under his wing. They land in New York after many adventures and from there the action progresses rapidly.

Music Department Presents Recital

Members of the Music Department presented the following weekly recital Wednesday, October 11:

Sabbian crucifix—Calders; Aria "Eye hath not seen"—The Holy City—Gaul; Christine Brown. Scherzo from Sonata a minor—Schumann; Minnie Lynch Walker. Soaring—Schumann; Martha Elizabeth Coleman.

Oriental—Dud; Elizabeth Kennedy. Be Violent—Moorat; The Almond Tree—Schumann; Sara Agnes Johnson.

Andante—C. Chaminade; Mrs. Kate Hardin, Kate Hardin. Out of the Depths—Mrs. Beach; Elizabeth Walker.

Stern November—Cecil Buriel; Louise Paul.

Ware Shoals Plans Winthrop Chapter

Plans for organizing a Ware Shoals Chapter of Winthrop Daughters are being made, according to Miss Lillian Russell, alumnae executive secretary, who has been visiting Winthrop chapters in Abbeville, McCormick, Rasley, and Greenwood this week.

In Greenwood, Miss Russell is attending the district meeting of the Federated club.

Freshmen Debaters Discuss Election

"Should the Freshmen Debaters' League support President Roosevelt in the coming election?" was the question discussed at a meeting of the Freshmen Debaters' League, in Clio Hall, Thursday, October 13, at five o'clock.

Uplinking the government were Elizabeth Rogers and Sarah Rosenblum. Supporting the opposition were Nancy Black, Bertha Meitz, and Theo Wells. Mary Lauritan was the leader of the Backbenchers.

The vote of the League upheld the government.

FIGURES SHOW INCREASE IN N. Y. A. EMPLOYMENT

(Continued From Page One)

assistant. Twelve girls are now engaged in painting Caledonia Hall. Twelve others assist in the Home Demonstration department, at various clerical jobs.

One of the distinctive works of the N. Y. A. is carried on by a teaching staff composed of members of the Senior class, under the direction of Mr. T. W. Noel and Miss Sadie Coggans. This staff instructs women of Rock Hill and vicinity in music, commerce, reformatting, and dancing.

The gift of $38,000 to Mount Holyoke College, will be used in the construction of new chapel.

Louisiana State University boasts of ten sets of twins this year in its female enrollment; the sets of males twins are far outnumbered.

Hardaway-Hecht Company

Wholesale Grocers

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

PRESS HEARS DR. PHELPS

President Addresses Associated Collegiate Press Meet in Kentucky

Dr. Shelton Phelps, representing college presidents, will give one of the five addresses on the subject, "If I were a College Editor," at the fifteenth annual meeting of the Associated Collegiate Press, to be held at the University of Louisville, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, October 20, 21, and 22.

Other speakers will be Mark Ehrig, general manager of The Louisville Courier-Journal and Times, representing professional journalism; Dean D. H. Gardner, University of Akron, Ohio, representing college deans; Frank S. Elliott, director of publicity, Indiana University, representing college publicity directors; and Rabi Dr. Joseph W. Ransoh, Temple's Adath Israel, member of the board of trustees of Louisville University, who will represent the reading public.

HOCKEY MEET CONVENES

Six Representatives of Winthrop Attend International Hockey Conference

Miss Lillian Walker, Miss Stute Hamrick, Mary Goss, Maude Murray, Mary Hunsan, Margie McMeekin, and Marjorie Mitchell are at the International Hockey Conference being held in Philadelphia, October 21-26.

Six foreign countries, England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales, Australia, and South Africa, are represented at this meeting.

Topics such as "Keeping Up Interest in Hockey Clubs" and "Spreading Hockey" are the main items of discussion.

These teams met in Philadelphia October 20 for the conference. They are playing match games every other day during the meeting, after which they will again tour the United States.

Other officers of the chapter are Mary Caroline Ulmer, pythian; and Rachel Hay, chrysothalia.

Crystal Theodore was elected hyperbolic; Kate Hardin, grammarian; and Jean Flynn, Pythian of Eta Sigma Phi, national honorary classical fraternity, at a meeting, Friday, October 9.

Other officers of the chapter are Mary Caroline Ulmer, pythian; and Rachel Hay, chrysothalia.

Among the 800,000 titles owned by the University of Wisconsin historical library, three were printed before 1800 and 33 printed between 1800 and 1897.

A Darling Dress at the DARLING SHOP Charlotte, N. C.

EMERGENCY PHONE CALLS

Police Department 108
Fire Department 379
BAKER'S SHOE RENURY 227
74ST MAIN STREET Next to Peoples Bank

REVERSE CALF

for Sport and Campus Wear

Shawl tongue model in blue suede. Square toe and built-up leather heel.

$2.95

All Sizes

There's nothing quite like it to display that casual, jaunty air that's so becoming to smart young college women. Reverse calf is especially flattering to your new fall tweed outfit.

FRIEDHEIM'S

McLaurin Hall Gives First Dance

Girls' rooming in McLaurin Hall, maestra, Mrs. Mary Gibson, and a few graduates were entertained at a formal dance on the porch of the building from 10:00 to 11:00 o'clock Saturday evening, October 17.

Music was furnished by the Lucky Strike Hill Parade, and the three No. 10s were the three winners of the week: Wm. Ed. You Leave Heaven, The Way You Look Tonight, and Dm I Remember.

The receiving line, which was made up of members of the Dance Committee and their escorts, was as follows: Louise McHenry with Frances Robertson, Sadie Scott with Mary Crawford Cox, Hattie Higby with Ruth Stewart, Jean Moss with Caroline Hilly, and "Liz" Miller with Jane Cooper.

Throughout the evening, punch was served on the lawn.

Rock's Laundry and Dry Cleaning Phone 755

ADAM'S LUNCH STAND

Hot Dogs! Cold Drinks! Visit Us!

GET YOUR COLLEGE RING

Bearing Official Seal Certified $2.00 Value and 25c with the purchase of a bottle of Parker Quink

Visit the LUCIELLE SHOP

Charlotte, N. C.

The Universal Drink

Coca-Cola

In Made Here by The Coca-Cola Bottling Co. Rock Hill, S. C.

Reflexions: Ruth Lambert Jones I like stupid people They tolerate facts. They miss points of stories And motives for acts. Their instincts are homespun. Their instincts are blind. I like stupid people. They ease up the mind. —Saturday Review.

Patrons Our Advertisers

TURRET TOP, SAFETY GLASS, KNEE-ACTION. THE ALL-AMERICAN COMBINATION

The combination of features you find on a General Motors car is mighty hard to beat, and that traces to the fortunate fact that this organization has resources great enough to finance the cost of pioneering, and build many cars that it can produce new developments at a real economy.

GENERAL MOTORS

A Public-Minded Institution

CHRYSLER • FORD • OLDSMOBILE • BUICK • LAMBDA • CADILLAC