That which goes through a child's mind upon birth | Emily Handy

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF'S CHOICE AWARD

mind is sparks—stars shooting ever whiz-way but quik!shot through,
harpooned
with wire coiled to a spring to bouquet antennae on me, or, no,
each star a bee on a string strung out to nectarseek and bring(string) it back to the hydraulic honeycomb, bee-loved home
and conversations quickshoot through on the telephone wires wrapped thick and peep-prone (glasses or no)
overflown coop'd, nest'd, behest'd bequest for the best bedrest side manners and frontseat banners for plans in dayplanners that took a backseat to white sheet, tabula rosa-cheeked then flatline, fräulein
well
Time to shine.
