Record Group no: W413.2
Sub-group no: __
Series no: __3__

Description of series and its contents:

This series consists mainly of correspondence (1933-1943) between Winthrop College officials, primarily the business manager, and state, regional, and national NYA directors relating to the establishment of the NYA’s program for college students employment; its objectives, procedures, regulations, statistical reports, and Winthrop’s NYA allotment, which ended in 1943. There is also some early correspondence between Winthrop and agencies of the FERA, Civilian Works Administration (CWA), and Public Works Administration (PWA). The related records include legislative acts establishing and revising the program, bulletins, circulars, and sample NYA forms. The series is in general chronological order.
