Among My Souvenirs

By MARJORIE HARRELL

There's an old song that says: "When you leave the land of Scotch girls, you'll miss them as much as you would the land itself.

In one sense, this is true. Scotch girls are indeed different from the girls of other nationalities. They are not only attractive physically, but they have a way of making you feel at home.

"Guatemala Has Everything," Says Dr. Delano In Giving Detail Of Her Christmas Vacation

By VAUGHN MONROE

"Christmas vacation was one of the most important events of the year," said Dr. Delano. "It was a time of relaxation and enjoyment for everyone involved."

One of the most important aspects of Christmas vacation is the ability to spend time with family and friends.

Dr. Delano left for Guatemala on December 20th. She visited friends and family, and had a great time exploring the country.

Dr. Delano is a great example of what Christmas vacation can be like. She truly enjoyed her time in Guatemala and looks forward to returning next year.

"Dundie Chewing Gum"

"Well, I'll be a monkey's uncle! Here you go, my son." And with that, Uncle Dundie handed the boy a big piece of Dundie Chewing Gum.

"Thank you, Uncle Dundie," said the boy, grinning from ear to ear.

"It's my pleasure," said Uncle Dundie. "Enjoy it, young man."

The boy ate the Dundie Chewing Gum and smiled contentedly. "This is the best thing I've ever tasted," he said.

Uncle Dundie chuckled. "I'm glad you enjoyed it," he said. "Now, go get your chores done and then we'll have some more."

In Indian Summer

In Indian Summer, and because of a delicate balance between the weather and the earth, the two forces of wind and weather are in conflict throughout the season. The change of season is marked by a gradual cooling of the air, a decrease in the number of sunny days, and an increase in the number of cloudy and rainy days. The season is characterized by a mixture of warm and cool weather, with occasional bursts of cold air, known as Indian Summers.
