The JOHNSONIAN

THE OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF THE STUDENT BODY OF WINTHROP COLLEGE

ROCK HILL, SOUTH CAROLINA, FRIDAY, MAY 12, 1939

No. 24

• People are nice.

This outburst of affection for our fellow-beings is a direct result of Junior-Senior.

Nice Juniors received some

People of their most valuable aid and advice from outsiders—people who were under no obligation to help the junior class.

Offers of flowers, suggestions about decorations, encouragement, little things?

The pleasantness with which five different crises for "more ivy" was greeted, the suggestion from the physical ed faculty that the committee need not wait till Saturday to begin decorating, the cooperation which met requests for everything from spotlights to rope—all these things?

Perhaps. But the juniors appreciated it immensely.

• Seeing the hectic note-taking and desperate concentration in the library, hearing such frenzied marks as "I've got to Jitter-bugs hand it in tomorrow, and I haven't done but half of it," "No, I'm not through," "Hope I never see another paper on 'Coffee Beans,'" an observer would remark at once, "term papers!"

The same observer would probably add, "Why didn't you do them earlier?" People have been giving us that advice ever since teachers have been giving us term papers.

And, really, they're right. After all, there's only a few ways for us to go about these term papers. We can do them as soon as they're assigned—or we seldom do.

We can wait until last week, work desperately, and end up with a term paper and the jitters of the jitterbug we usually do. Or we can just be nonchalant and let things drift along—if we do, we fall.

Thinking it over, we decided to take our own advice. After all, wouldn't it be fine to be able to say, "Term papers? Oh, I finished all mine last month."

A fine of 10 cents per day will be charged on each took not returned by that date.

All members are urged to attend.

Events Include
Artists Course,
Alumnae Meet,
And Banquet

Four major events, anyone of which would make a significant occasion, have been scheduled for May 27 to give the Winthrop campus what might be called its biggest day in recent College history.

Dedication exercises for the new $450,000 auditorium and music conservatory building, the annual business meeting of the Alumnae association, a Johnsonian banquet honoring the editors of South Carolina daily newspapers and others, and climaxing the day, a presentation of four Metropolitan Opera company vocal stars in the 350-seat auditorium in the last Artists' course of the season, highlight the day's program of events.

Opening the series will be the annual business meeting of the alumnae at 10:30 in the morning, followed by a luncheon for the alumnae at noon. Formerly scheduled for June 3, the annual alumnae meeting, according to Miss Letia Russell, was changed to enable the old grads to have a part in the dedication of the auditorium, a memorial fund for which was given by the association.

Over dinner guests are Catherine Hough, vice-president; Bettie Fodd, secretary; Mildred Havard, treasurer; and Blair Canak, recorder.

Margaret is a marshal, and a member of the Secondary Education club, the College Music club, Beta Pi Theta, the A Cappella choir, and president of Le Cercle Francais. She is holder of the Friedheim scholarship and was winner of the Gill Wylie scholarship her sophomore year.

MOTHER'S DAY!
M is for the million things Mother gave me,
O means that she's my "One and Only".
T is for the tears she shed to save me,
H is for her heart of purest gold.
E is for her eyes with love-light shining,
R means right and right she'll always be.
Put them all together and they spell MOTHER,
The one who means all the world to me.

Sunday is Mother's Day. The Peoples National Bank takes this opportunity to urge every Winthrop Girl to remember her Mother with at least a letter this week. We can appreciate that those students who are so fortunate to have their Mothers depend upon them to guide their lives during college years. Every problem that arises, social, financial or otherwise, is largely solved by Mother.

Now that college days are coming to a close for a great number of students and careers are going to be launched, in matters of business the officers of this institution possess a desire to contribute to the success of the young people of this community. Do not feel that you will be trespassing on our time in coming in and discussing your future plans with us because we are vitally interested in the welfare of the boys and girls.
