Let's wake up in our own beds instead of at Camlann, where the sunrise reveals the fresh slaughter of the day.
Let's play a game instead.

There is no war
aside from the one inside our heads, where Time reigns supreme and the fight doesn't exist.

Let's tie a thread to the ecliptic and pause the rotation, stop the hemorrhage that stains everyone red.

Let's play a game where Time is just fiction, playing the Mordred of lore who says I Love You, before hugging from behind and running you through.
