Scope and Content Note: The Garden Club of Rock Hill was organized in 1933 and federated with the Garden Club of South Carolina in 1951. The object of the club is “to promote the love of gardening among amateurs; to promote and protect the growth of native trees, wild flowers, and birds and to encourage civic planting and civic beauty.” The Garden Club of Rock Hill Records consist of constitutions and bylaws, correspondence, annual reports, minutes, yearbooks, programs, membership lists, newspaper clippings, photographs, and two scrapbooks. The collection is a good source of information on local history and garden clubs in Rock Hill.
