

November 2019

When we go still

Samantha Ross

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.winthrop.edu/anthology>

Part of the Photography Commons

Recommended Citation

Ross, Samantha (2019) "When we go still," The Anthology. Vol. 2019, Article 42.

Available at: <https://digitalcommons.winthrop.edu/anthology/vol2019/iss1/42>

This Editors is brought to you for free and open access by Digital Commons @ Winthrop University. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Anthology by an authorized editor of Digital Commons @ Winthrop University. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@mailbox.winthrop.edu.

Sam Ross is a Junior Fine Arts major with a concentration in Photography. Her work mainly focuses on memories and the intimacies found within relationships with others. Although she mainly works with still images, her work has started to develop into other forms of media such as video and installation. When she is not being crushed by her school work and the impending doom of her future, Samantha enjoys listening to music, staying up late, and contemplating the intricacies of the universe.

