Series: Home Management House Annual Reports

Record Group no: W423.4

Sub-group no: 2B

Series no: 1

Description of series and its contents:

This series consists of annual reports of the home management house (originally named the practice house), a program that was designed before the formation of the home demonstration department to provide Winthrop students with practical experience in home economics. These reports submitted by the supervisor of the home management house (practice house) to the president of Winthrop include a summary of the past year's work, suggestions and needs for the program's improvement, and an inventory of supplies and equipment. The reports are in chronological order.
