A faded, sepia-toned photograph of Winthrop University's main building and a fountain in the foreground. The building is a large, multi-story structure with a prominent clock tower on the left side. The fountain in the foreground has a tall, thin water column. Several vintage cars are parked in front of the building. The overall image is light and serves as a background for the text.

Scope and Content Note: The South Carolina Extension Homemaker's Council- Kershaw County Records contain correspondence; financial reports; scrapbook; field reports; newspaper articles; minutes; a brief history; attendance record; convention programs; monthly and annual reports for the Home Demonstration clubs, Farm Women, and 4-H clubs. Also included is information on the 1940 Mattress Making Project and a letter from US Senator Burnet R. Maybank. Subjects include: Camden, South Carolina, 4-H, South Carolina Council of Farm Women; and World War II. The South Carolina Extension Homemaker's Council in Kershaw County can trace its origin to 1912 when Miss Catherine Chapell became the first Home Demonstration Agent for the county. In 1920, an important outgrowth of home demonstration work in Kershaw County was the organization of 8 clubs in the Kershaw County Council of Farm Women.
