Description of series and its contents:

This series consists of the correspondence and memoranda produced by and for the International and Global Studies program in the College of Arts and Sciences. Formerly known as International Studies, the International and Global Studies program (INGS) was renamed and restructured in in 2015. It is an interdisciplinary minor that includes course options pertaining to Europe, Asia, Africa/Middle East, and Latin America as well as courses with a comparative approach that analyze multiple topics cross-culturally. One of the most flexible programs on campus, the International Studies program allows students to customize their minor by choosing coursework from among over twenty different disciplines spanning four of the university's colleges.
