Scope And Content: Matt Christopher (1917-1997) was a prolific author of children's books having written over 100 books as well as over 300 short stories, articles, poems, and screenplays. Most of his writings dealt with sports themes, but he also wrote fantasy and mystery themed stories as well.

The Matt Christopher Papers consist of both published and unpublished manuscripts, published short stories (1943-1994) (drafts, synopses, plot outlines, and magazines, comics, and newspapers with articles and short stories), publisher's editions of Matt Christopher's children's books (1993-1994). The collection contains many unpublished manuscripts and drafts outside the children's book field (1954-1997), unpublished screenplays (1940-1997), and unpublished short stories (1954-1997). Also included are personal (1949-1997) and business correspondence (1952-2002)(to include when he made sales, along with receipts of checks for said sales), biographical information (1917-2004), memorabilia (photos from readers, special awards from libraries, and newspaper clippings with his published stories.).
