Scope and Content Note: The South Carolina Vocational Association, Inc. was initially formed in 1974 to: “1. To establish and maintain active leadership in initiating, extending, improving, and promoting vocational education; 2. To serve as a unifying agency for all personnel in vocational education; 3. To advance the ideals and standards of vocational education; 4. To act as a central agency to help keep the people of the state clearly and reliably informed of the purposes, needs, and accomplishments of vocational education in the state; 5. To provide an opportunity for discussion of all questions involved in vocational education; 6. To be vital and integral part of the American Vocational Association (AVA) and to help plan, develop, and implement its program of work.” The South Carolina Vocational Association, Inc. was later renamed the South Carolina Association of Career and Technical Education.

The South Carolina Vocational Association Records consist of correspondence, minutes, bylaws, reports, and memoranda relating to annual conferences, awards, administrators of the organization, and its activities. Subjects include the annual summer conferences from 1981-1984, minutes and agenda of business meetings during this same time, other South Carolina Vocational Association (SCVA) advertised events, as well as original resumes and correspondence for the 1981 director position.
