

Table of Contents

Education For Girls And Women In Upper South Carolina Prior to 1890 with Related Miscellaneous Articles: A Compilation

by

Mrs. Henry Towles Crigler (Sara Gossett Crigler)

Section	Page Number
Dedication	2
Forward by Alfred S. Reid, Furman University	5
Preface	6
Higher Education for Women in Upper South Carolina 1840-1875	10
-The Coming Woman, Rena Rice, Greenville Female College 1896	21
-Pendleton Female Academy Circular, January 1845	26
Article of Agreement Between Leonard Wideman, Jr. and Wilson C. Eubank 1830	28
The Greenville Female Academy (1819) Elizabeth R. Alfred (Mrs. Neill H.) (March 31, 1956)	30
Letter From Laurens, Sara Ball Copeland (1956) [Discusses "The Misses Youngs' School for Young Ladies" and Laurensville Female College]	41
Barhamville Landmark of Yesteryear 1826 Article Appearing in the State Magazine September 26, 1854	44
-Pilgrimage to Site of Old Barhamville College	48
Early Schools in Spartanburg, SC (Spartanburg Female Seminary, St. John's College for Young Ladies, Spartanburg Female College	50
-Old Document, History of Converse College	53
-Founder's Ideal, Dexter Edgar Converse 1889	56
Excerpts From Catalogue Fuller Institute 1848 From the Family Documents of Sarah Patterson Wideman Brown (Mrs. Benjamin F. Brown) Williamston, SC 1838-1918	57
Founding of Johnson University	67
-Organization	71
-Excerpts from Catalogue	74
-Daniel Brown, One of the Founders	80
-The Garden at Sunny Side	84
-Trip to Anderson	88
Traditions and History of Anderson County	96
-Excerpts from Modern Domestic Cookery	98
The Wonders of Williamston	107
-Traditions and History of Anderson County	109
-Williamston and Williamston Female College	112
-The Garden at the College	118
-Address to Graduating Class of 1877	121
-Samuel Lander, Educational Pioneer	126
-A December Graduation at Williamston Female College 1880	128
-Alumnae Association Williamston Female College 1888-1889	132
-The Garden at Home of Major and Mrs. G. W. Anderson	134
A Physician (Benjamin Franklin Brown, 1833-1919) of the Up-Country and His Wife (Sarah Patterson Wideman Brown, 1838-1918)	138
Leaves From An Autograph Album of Sallie Brown Gossett (1877)	154

Table of Contents (cont.)

Walter W. Brown (1858-1900)	165
-Letter in Latin to his sister Sallie Brown while he was teaching at Furman University. They corresponded in Latin	166
Juda (Judy) – A Slave (1837-1923)	167
-Excerpt from a Sarah Patterson Wideman Will (written 1850, filed 1863)	168
-A Freedman’s Contract from Sarah P. Brown to former slaves (1865)	169
-A Sketch of Judy (by Sara Gossett Crigler)	172
-Death Comes to Judy	176
-Judy’s Spiritual: Song Lost (includes lyrics and music to the song)	178
A Postscript	181
-Address to Alumnae Association Converse College Commencement 1955 by Sara Gossett Crigler	182